Renewing The City Of God:

Renewing the City Robert D. Lupton, 2005-07-08 Community developer and urban activist Robert D Lupton looks to the Old Testament example of Nehemiah as a role model for community transformation and renewal Outreach And Renewal James McSherry, 2011-10-01 This work represents a novel treatment of the mission of the Church fathers the early Christian ascetics and their disciples during the turbulent centuries that followed the passing of the apostles Approaching a normally arcane subject largely through the interplay of character and incident Outreach and Renewal provides a stirring account of the various ways in which spiritual leaders of the time promoted the Gospel message Readers experience these leaders as they illuminate strengthen restore or defend the faith through their words and actions of fellow Christians Facilitating fresh insights and thought provoking conclusions the theme proceeds through the interaction of a varied cast of vital individuals engaged in lively and sometimes acerbic discourse which is always aimed at the glory of God With the careful attention the author gives to the early Irish church and its singular representatives this work is a unique and valuable contribution to the study of the patristic era The City of God Volumes I & II Revised Aurelius Augustine, 2019-08-27 One of Augustine s most famous works this book tells of the fall of the Roman Empire and the rise of the holy and righteous City of God from the ashes While building a utopia much like The Republic does Augustine uses sound theology to build the foundations of the cities morals and lawful authority Many theologies especially within the Catholic tradition owe their beginnings to the teachings of Augustine and this work is one of the starts of the field Now in larger print Culture in Crisis and the Renewal of Civil Life T. William Boxx, Gary M. Quinlivan, 1996 This important book addresses many of the most compelling social issues of our times and delves into the causes of America s social pathologies and strained sociopolitical condition Contributors include T William Boxx Linda Chavez Midge Decter Don E Eberly Heather R Higgins Gertrude Himmelfarb Russell Hittinger Glenn C Loury Michael Novak Robert Royal and James Q Wilson A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 The City of God Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1909 A Pentecostal Political Theology for American Renewal Steven M. Studebaker, 2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America s decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation
