The Abuse of Minors in the Catholic Church Anthony J. Blasi, Lluís Oviedo, 2020-03-26 This book offers an academically rigorous examination of the biological psychological social and ecclesiastical processes that allowed sexual abuse in the Catholic Church to happen and then be covered up The collected essays provide a means to better assess systemic wrongdoing in religious institutions so that they can be more effectively held to account An international team of contributors apply a necessarily multi disciplinary approach to this difficult subject Chapters look closely at the sexual abuse of minors by Roman Catholic clerics explaining the complexity of this issue which cannot be reduced to simple misconduct sexual deviation or a management failure alone The book will help the reader to better understand the social organizational and cultural processes in the Church over recent decades as well as the intricate world of beliefs moral rules and behaviours It concludes with some strategies for change at the individual and corporate levels that will better ensure safeguarding within the Catholic Church and its affiliate institutions This multifaceted study gives a nuanced analysis of this huge organizational failure and offers recommendations for effective ways of preventing it in the future As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Religious Studies Sociology of Religion Psychology Psychiatry Legal Studies Ethics Anthropology Cultural Studies History and Theology Gay and Lesbian Rights Richard Peddicord,1996 This book is unique in setting the question of homosexuality in its historical legal political and religious contexts in North America It is no longer possible in Catholic ethics to address sexual morality with a model of absolute moral norms immune from the ambiguities and complexities social justice issues introduce Peddicord looks at the personal and social sides of homosexuality and fairly examines all sides of the Roman Catholic response Lisa Sowle Cahill Boston College Faith in Politics A. religious right and political differences Reconciling Embrace Robert J. Kennedy, 1998 How do we think about sacramental reconciliation at this time in history How do we minister to alienated and inactive Catholics who wish to be reconciled to the church To begin to answer these questions from back cover Conscience First, Tradition Second Patrick H. McNamara, 1992-02-06 For this study of American religion the author surveyed over 2000 Catholic high school seniors during a fourteen year period exploring changes in religiosity and attitudes toward the recent teachings of the Church Fifty four of these people were resurveyed eight and nine years after graduation probing whether and in what direction their viewpoints had shifted African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya Globalization, Religion and Gender J. Bayes, N. Tohidi, 2016-09-23 In the early 1970s accompanying the current wave of globalization conservative nationalist religious movements began using religion to oppose non democratic and often western oriented regimes Reasserting patriarchal gender relations presumably authorized by religion has been central to these movements At the Fourth United Nations Congress on Women in Beijing in 1995 Muslim and Catholic delegations from diverse countries united to oppose provisions on sexuality reproductive rights women s health and women s rights as human rights In this book scholars from eight different Muslim and Catholic communities analyze the political strategies that women are employing in these contexts ranging from acceptance of traditional doctrines to various forms of resistance religious reinterpretation innovation and political action toward change and equal rights Journey into Faith and Fidelity Nadine Foley, 1999-01-10 This book is a collection of related stories by members of the Adrian Dominican congregation that reflects the creative movement that has taken place in religious life as women have responded to the inspiration of Vatican Council II as well as to the impact of contemporary culture While the impetus to renewal came directly from the Church authority adaptation and change far exceeded what was originally envisioned by those who authorized the process particularly when the institutes responded to the directive to consult all the members The contributors to this book trace the most critical influences that moved religious congregations toward a renewed religious life They embraced a God who does not remain static but who moves in human history a loving God who relates to us in care and compassion a Holy Spirit who dwells within and inspires through discernment the decisions and directions that are to be taken a sense of personal worth and empowerment as women baptized into gospel mission and ministry a response to Church teaching that action on behalf of justice is constitutive of Gospel mission In renewing their religious life women have an important experience to offer the Church for ongoing renewal in the future as reflection upon these essays and continuing dialogue will reveal

God the Economist M. Douglas Meeks, God does not appear in the modern market For most economists this is as it should be It is in no way necessary according to modern economic theory to consider God when thinking about economy Indeed the absence of God in economic matters is viewed as necessary to the great advances in modern economy The difficulty with modern market economies however is that human livelihood is also left out of the theory and practice of the market economy I propose to bring the church's teaching about God the doctrine of the Trinity to bear on the masked connections between God and economy I will treat the Trinity as the way of understanding what the Bible calls the economy of God

Economic Thinking for the Theologically Minded Samuel Gregg, 2001 Economic Thinking for the Theologically Minded provides an introduction to what has been called the economic way of thinking which explains some of the critical concepts and foundational assumptions employed in economics To communicate these ideas effectively to those engaged in theological studies this book avoids using unnecessary technical terminology These concepts are then subject to analysis from the standpoint of Christian ethics with emphasis placed upon the often unsuspected degree of agreement between economics and Christian belief about the nature of the person The second half of the book consists of a collection of selections from classical economic texts representing a range of authors from a variety of schools of thought These selections have been arranged around ten key concepts each of which attempts to deepen understanding of various ideas presented in the book's first half
