Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel

Aníbal González,2010-02-01 The Latin American Literary Boom was marked by complex novels steeped in magical realism and questions of nationalism often with themes of surreal violence In recent years however those revolutionary projects of the sixties and seventies have given way to quite a different narrative vision and ideology Dubbed the new sentimentalism this trend is now keenly elucidated in Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel Offering a rich account of the rise of this new mode as well as its political and cultural implications An bal Gonz lez delivers a close reading of novels by Miguel Barnet Elena Poniatowska Isabel Allende Alfredo Bryce Echenique Gabriel Garc a M rquez Antonio Sk rmeta Luis Rafael S nchez and others Gonz lez proposes that new sentimental novels are inspired principally by a desire to heal the division rancor and fear produced by decades of social and political upheaval Valuing pop culture above the avant garde such works also tend to celebrate agape the love of one s neighbor while denouncing the negative effects of passion eros Illuminating these and other aspects of post Boom prose Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel takes a fresh look at contemporary works

A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002 With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges Miguel ngel Asturias and Gabriel Garc a M rquez both the latter Nobel Prizewinners Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernismo Naturalism and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond It shows how while seldom moving completely away from satire social criticism and protest Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer s task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia
