Reordering Of Culture Latin America The Caribbean And Canada In The Hood:

Reordering of Culture Alvina Roberta Ruprecht, Cecilia Taiana, 1995 Political economic and social barriers among Latin America the Caribbean and Canada are giving way to global forces and the global dreams they inspire This collection of original articles and essays examines popular culture literature theatre belief systems indigenous practices and questions of identity exile and alienation The interconnectedness and distinction of cultural production throughout the Americas transplanted interests the mediation of African and European influences and the expression of shifting identities all reflect the development of a new American neighbourhood Exile and the Politics of Exclusion in the Americas Luis

Roinger, 2012-03-13 This collection of essays brings together leading experts in the study of exile and expatriation whose historical and comparative perspectives enable readers to understand the phenomenon of forced displacement in the Americas Scripture and Resistance Jione Havea, 2019-04-29 Resistance against unjust wicked cultures and imperial powers is at the heart of scripture In many cases the resistance is waged against external systems or the misappropriation of scriptural texts and traditions In some cases however scripture resists oppressive cultures and powers that it also requires certifies and protects At other times and in different settings the minders of scripture speak against the abusive cultures and power systems that they inherited and whose benefits they milk Scripture and Resistance contains reflections by authors from East West South and North on resistance and the Christian scriptures regarding a rainbow of concerns the colonial legacies of the Bible the people especially native and indigenous people who were subjugated and minoritized for the sake of the Bible the courage for resistance among ordinary and normal people and the opportunities that arise from their realities and struggles the imperializing tendencies that lurk behind so called traditional biblical scholarship the strategies of and energies in post and de colonial criticisms the Bible as a profitable product and a site of struggle and the multiple views or perspectives in the Bible about empire and resistance In other words the contributors as a collective affirm that the Bible contains pun intended resistance

Diasporic Avant-Gardes C. Noland, B. Watten, 2016-04-30 Diasporic Avant Gardes draws into dialogue two differing traditions of poetic practice the diasporic and the avant garde This interdisciplinary collection examines the unacknowledged affinities and crucial differences between avant garde and diasporic formal strategies and social formations The essays foreground the creation of experimental forms and investigate the specific contexts of cultural displacement and language use that inform their poetics

Decolonizing American Philosophy Corey McCall, Phillip McReynolds, 2021-02-01 In Decolonizing American Philosophy Corey McCall and Phillip McReynolds bring together leading scholars at the forefront of the field to ask Can American philosophy as the product of a colonial enterprise be decolonized Does American philosophy offer tools for decolonial projects What might it mean to decolonize American philosophy and at the same time is it possible to consider American philosophy broadly construed as a part of a decolonizing project The various perspectives included here contribute to long simmering conversations about the scope purpose and future of American philosophy while also demonstrating that it is far from a unified homogeneous field In drawing connections among various philosophical traditions in and of the Americas they collectively propose that the process of decolonization is not only something that needs to be done to American philosophy but also that it is something American philosophy already does or at least can do as a resource for resisting colonial and racist oppression

Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2010-01-21 In the globalization game there are no absolute winners and losers Neither homogenisation nor diversity can capture its contradictory movement and character The essays and papers collected here offer from a variety of perspectives a rich exploration of creativity and innovation cultural expressions and globalization This volume of essays in all their diversity of contents and theoretical perspectives demonstrates the rich value of this paradoxical oxymoronic approach Stuart Hall Emeritus Professor of Sociology at the Open University Volume 3 of the Cultures Globalization series Creativity and Innovations explores the interactions between globalization and the forms of cultural expression that are their basic resource Bringing together over 25 high profile authors from around the world this volume addresses such questions as What impacts does globalization have on cultural creativity and innovation How is the evolving world map of creativity related to the drivers and patterns of globalization What are the relationships between creative acts clusters genres or institutions and cultural diversity The volume is an indispensable reference tool for all scholars and students of contemporary arts and culture

Rastafari and the Arts Darren Middleton, 2015-02-11 Drawing on literary musical and visual representations of and by Rastafari Darren J N Middleton provides an introduction to Rasta through the arts broadly conceived The religious underpinnings of the Rasta movement are often overshadowed by Rasta s association with reggae music dub and performance poetry Rastafari and the Arts An Introduction takes a fresh view of Rasta considering the relationship between the artistic and religious dimensions of the movement in depth Middleton s analysis complements current introductions to Afro Caribbean religions and offers an engaging example of the role of popular culture in illuminating the beliefs and practices of emerging religions Recognizing that outsiders as well as insiders have shaped the Rasta movement since its modest beginnings in Jamaica Middleton includes interviews with members of both groups including Ejay Khan Barbara Makeda Blake Hannah Geoffrey Philp Asante Amen Reggae Rajahs Benjamin Zephaniah Monica Haim Blakk Rasta Rocky Dawuni and Marvin D Sterling

Beyond Man Yountae An, Eleanor Craig, 2021-04-26 Beyond Man reimagines the meaning and potential of a philosophy of religion that better attends to the inextricable links among religion racism and colonialism An Yountae Eleanor Craig and the contributors reckon with the colonial and racial implications of the field s history by staging a conversation with Black Indigenous and decolonial studies In their introduction An and Craig point out that European descended Christianity has historically defined itself by its relation to the other while paradoxically claiming to represent and speak to humanity in its totality The topics include secularism the Eucharist s relation to Blackness and sixteenth century Brazilian cannibalism rituals as well as an analysis of how Mircea Eliade s conception of the sacred

underwrites settler colonial projects and imaginaries Throughout the contributors also highlight the theorizing of Afro Caribbean thinkers such as Sylvia Wynter C L R James Frantz Fanon and Aim C saire whose work disrupts the normative Western categories of religion and philosophy Contributors An Yountae Ellen Armour J Kameron Carter Eleanor Craig Amy Hollywood Vincent Lloyd Filipe Maia Mayra Rivera Devin Singh Joseph R Winters

Madness in Black Women's Diasporic Fictions Caroline A. Brown, Johanna X. K. Garvey, 2017-11-04 This collection chronicles the strategic uses of madness in works by black women fiction writers from Africa the Caribbean Canada Europe and the United States Moving from an over reliance on the madwoman as a romanticized figure constructed in opposition to the status quo contributors to this volume examine how black women authors use madness trauma mental illness and psychopathology as a refraction of cultural contradictions psychosocial fissures and political tensions of the larger social systems in which their diverse literary works are set through a cultural studies approach The volume is constructed in three sections Revisiting the Archive Reinscribing Its Texts Slavery and Madness as Historical Contestation The Contradictions of Witnessing in Conflict Zones Trauma and Testimony and Novel Form Mythic Space Syncretic Rituals as Healing Balm The novels under review re envision the initial trauma of slavery and imperialism both acknowledging the impact of these events on diasporic populations and expanding the discourse beyond that framework Through madness and healing as sites of psychic return these novels become contemporary parables of cultural resistance

Wandering Sarah Jane Cervenak, 2014-09-17 Combining black feminist theory philosophy and performance studies Sarah Jane Cervenak ruminates on the significance of physical and mental roaming for black freedom She is particularly interested in the power of wandering or daydreaming for those whose mobility has been under severe constraint from the slave era to the present Since the Enlightenment wandering has been considered dangerous and even criminal when associated with people of color Cervenak engages artist philosophers who focus on wayward movement and daydreaming or mental travel that transcend state imposed limitations on physical geographic movement From Sojourner Truth s spiritual and physical roaming to the rambling protagonist of Gayl Jones s novel Mosquito Cervenak highlights modes of wandering that subvert Enlightenment based protocols of rationality composure and upstanding comportment Turning to the artists Pope L William Pope L Adrian Piper and Carrie Mae Weems Cervenak argues that their work produces an otherworldly movement an errant kinesis that exceeds locomotive constraints resisting the straightening out processes of post Enlightenment white supremacist capitalist sexist and heteronormative modernity Their roaming animates another terrain one where free black movement is not necessarily connected to that which can be seen touched known and materially valued

Words Made Flesh Justine Bakker, David Kline, 2025-06-03 The first sustained treatment of religion and religions in the scholarship of a prominent Caribbean thinker Sylvia Wynter is a profoundly transdisciplinary scholar whose works span an impressive array of theory literature science anthropology philosophy and religious studies as well as different forms including essays plays a novel and a 935 page unpublished manuscript entitled Black Metamorphosis New Natives in a New World Whatever the medium Wynter frequently engages religion as a relevant category of analysis from reflections on Christianity Islam and Rastafarianism to the category and role of religion as a universal aspect of human social production Wynter s writings have received enthusiastic attention by scholars in Black studies Caribbean theory critical race theory literature and philosophy But until recently little scholarly writing exists that directly engages the topic of religion in her corpus Words Made Flesh seeks to fill this gap by focusing exclusively on religion religions and religiosity in her work Bringing together scholars that provide a wide variety of theoretical perspectives on religion political theology social theory and science studies this book offers an in depth engagement with one of the most innovative and important thinkers of the last forty years and illustrates how Wynter s writing has significant implications for the study of religion and religion s relationship to colonialism race humanism science and political theology

Decolonisation and Legal Knowledge Folúké Adébí sí, 2024-04-09 The law is heavily implicated in creating maintaining and reproducing racialised hierarchies which bring about and preserve acute global disparities and injustices This essential book provides an examination of the meanings of decolonisation and explores how this examination can inform teaching researching and practising of law It explores the ways in which the foundations of law are entangled in colonial thought and in its re production of ideas of commodification of bodies and space time Thus it is an exploration of the ways in which we can use theories and praxes of decolonisation to produce legal knowledge for flourishing futures

Intersectional Decoloniality Marcos S. Scauso, 2020-08-05 This book assesses diverse ways to think about others while also emphasizing the advantages of decolonial intersectionality The author analyzes a number of struggles that emerge among Andean indigenous intellectuals governmental projects and International Relations scholars from the Global North From different perspectives actors propose and promote diverse ways to deal with others By focusing on the epistemic assumptions and the marginalizing effects that emerge from these constructions the author separates four ways to think about difference and analyzes their implications The genealogical journey linking the chapters in this book not only examines the specificities of Bolivian discussions but also connects this geo historical focal point with the rest of the world other positions concerning the problem of difference and the broader implications of thinking about respect action and coexistence To achieve this goal the author emphasizes the potential implications of intersectional decoloniality highlighting its relationship with discussions that engage post colonial decolonial feminist and interpretivist scholars He demonstrates the ways in which intersectional decoloniality moves beyond some of the limitations found in other discourses proposing a reflexive bottom up intersectional and decolonial possibility of action and ally ship This book is aimed primarily at students scholars and educated practitioners of IR but its engagement with diverse literature discussions of epistemic politics and normative implications crosses boundaries of Political Science Sociology Gender Studies Latin American Studies and Anthropology

British Subjects Nigel Rapport, 2020-05-25 The anthropology of Britain is hotly debated What does it mean to live in Britain and to be British and is an anthropology of Britain even a legitimate undertaking British Subjects presents a forthright voice in this debate Key anthropological concerns such as community rationality aesthetics the body power work and leisure nationalism and transnationalism are found reflected in the lives of a wide range of British subjects from farmers to dancers children to retired miners new agers to entrepreneurs In disputing traditional claims that anthropology at home and of one s own is misconceived unnecessary or unperceptive this book clearly establishes that an anthropology of Britain can set excellent standards of subtle ethnography and complex analysis Providing a nuanced appreciation of the intricacies of British society this book shows how the anthropological study of Britain can offer an enlightening paradigm for the study of individual lives
