Barruel, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001-01-01 The Contributions of Artists Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard Maurice Denis and Ker Xavier Roussel to the French avant garde of the 1890s as members of the Nabis are widely recognized What is less known about these artists careers is their extraordinary work in decorative painting work on a large or unusual scale for private interiors This illustrated book focuses on the many decorative works carried out by the four artists between 1890 and 1930 During these years they moved beyond the narrow parameters of easel painting and applied their wholly untraditional aesthetic of decoration to a wide range of works for domestic interiors from wall size ensembles to folding screens The cosmopolitan group of patrons who made this work possible ranged from the avant garde circle of La Revue Blanche to prominent members of the French establishment An examination of their role and tastes is another fascinating feature of this publication The book and accompanying exhibition reunite paintings that have long been dispersed introducing contemporary viewers to a group of bold and evocative works which had a wide ranging though little recognized influence on modern art As the book's authors argue the aesthetic embodied by these works indeed helped set the stage for the large non narrative paintings by artists as diverse as Rothko and Lichtenstein that came to dominate the avant garde after World War II BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Type
