Report on the Steel Strike of 1919, 1971 Report on the Steel Strike of 1919 Interchurch World Movement of North America. Commission of Inquiry, 1971 Report on the Steel Strike of 1919 Interchurch World Movement of North America, 1920 Red Scare Robert K. Murray, 1955-01-01 Red Scare was first published in 1955 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Few periods in American history have been so dramatic so fraught with mystery or so bristling with fear and hysteria as were the days of the great Red Scare that followed World War I For sheer excitement it would be difficult to find a more absorbing tale than the one told here The famous Palmer raids of that era are still remembered as one of the most fantastic miscarriages of justice ever perpetrated upon the nation The violent labor strife still makes those who lived through it shudder as they recall the Seattle general strike and Boston police strike the great coal and steel strikes and the bomb plots shootings and riots that accompanied these conflicts But exciting as the story may be it has far greater significance than merely that of a lively tale For just as American was swept by a wave of unreasoning fear and was swayed by sensational propaganda in those days so are we being tormented by similar tensions in the present climate of the cold war The objective analysis of the great Red Scare which Mr Murray provides should go a long way toward helping us to avert some of the tragic consequences that the nation suffered a generation ago before hysteria and fear had finally run their course The author traces the roots of the phenomenon relates the outstanding events of the Scare and evaluates the significant effects of the hysteria upon subsequent American life The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1977 The role of federal military forces in domestic disorders, 1877-1945 Clayton D. Laurie, 1997-07-15 CMH 30 15 Army Historical Series 2nd of three planned volumes on the history of Army domestic support operations This volume encompasses the period of the rise of industrial America with attendant social dislocation and strife Major themes are the evolution of the Army's role in domestic support operations its strict adherence to law and the disciplined manner in which it conducted these difficult and often unpopular operations Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1970 The Role of Federal Military Forces in Domestic Disorders, 1877-1945 Clayton David Laurie, Ronald H. Cole, 1997 Published in 1904 this forgotten classic is sci fi and dystopia at its best written by the creator and master of the genre Following extensive research in the field of growth Mr Bensington and Professor Redwood light upon a new mysterious element a food that causes greatly accelerated development Initially christening their discovery The Food of the Gods the two scientists are overwhelmed by the possible ramifications of their creation Needing room for experiments Mr Bensington chooses a farm that offers him the chance to test on chickens which duly grow monstrous six or seven times their usual size With the farmer Mr Skinner failing to contain the spread of the Food chaos soon reigns as reports come in of local encounters with monstrous wasps earwigs and rats The chickens escape leaving carnage in their wake The Skinners and Redwoods have both been feeding their children the compound illicitly their eventual offspring will constitute a new age of giants Public opinion rapidly turns against the scientists and society rebels against the world s new flora and fauna Daily life has changed shockingly and now politicians are involved trying to stamp out the Food of the Gods and the giant race Comic and at times surprisingly touching and tragic Wells story is a cautionary tale warning against the rampant advances of science but also of the dangers of greed political infighting and shameless vote seeking Records and Briefs of the United States Supreme Court ,1832
