Representation Of The Past Museums And Heritage In The Post Modern World:

The Representation of the Past Kevin Walsh, 2002-09-11 The 1980s and early 1990s have seen a marked increase in public interest in our historic environment The museum and heritage industry has expanded as the past is exploited for commercial profit In The Representation of the Past Kevin Walsh examines this international trend and questions the packaging of history which serves only to distance people from their own heritage A superficial unquestioning portrayal of the past he feels separates us from an understanding of our cultural and political present Here Walsh suggests a number of ways in which the museum can fulfill its potential by facilitating our comprehension of cultural identity

The Representation of the Past. Museums and Heritage in the Post-Modern World K. Walsh, 1992

China's Heritage through History Yujie Zhu, 2024-07-26 China's Heritage through History employs a longue durée approach to examine China's heritage through history From Imperial to contemporary China it explores the role of practices and material forms of the past in shaping social transformation through knowledge production and transmission The art of collecting reproducing and reinterpreting the past has been an enduring force shaping cultural identity and political legitimacy in China Offering a unique non Western perspective on the history of heritage in China Zhu considers who the key players have been in these ongoing processes of reconfigured pasts what methods they have employed and how these practices have shaped society at large The book tackles these questions by delving into the transformation of practices related to heritage through examples such as the book collection at Tianyi Private Library the reproduction of the Orchid Pavilion Preface calligraphy and its associated sites and the dynamics of exchange within the Liulichang antique market Zhu reveals how these practices once reserved for elites have become accessible to the broader public These processes of transformation embodied in various forms of reconfigured pasts have given rise to modern approaches to preservation digitisation museums and the burgeoning heritage tourism industry China's Heritage through History will be an invaluable resource for academics students and practitioners working in the fields of heritage museum studies and art history

Heritage, Museums and Galleries Gerard Corsane, 2005 This reader provides a starting point and introductory resource for anyone wishing to engage with certain key issues relating to the heritage museums and galleries sector

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring

Representing Enslavement and Abolition in Museums Laurajane Smith, Geoff Cubitt, Kalliopi Fouseki, Ross Wilson, 2014-05-30 The year 2007 marked the bicentenary of the Act abolishing British participation in the slave trade Representing Enslavement and Abolition on Museums which uniquely draws together contributions from academic commentators museum professionals community activists and artists who had an involvement with the bicentenary reflects on the complexity and difficulty of museums experiences in presenting and interpreting the histories of slavery and abolition and places these experiences in the broader context of debates over the bicentenary s significance and the lessons to be learnt from it The history of Britain s role in transatlantic slavery officially become part of the National Curriculum in the UK in 2009 with the bicentenary of 2007 this marks the start of increasing public engagement with what has largely been a hidden history The book aims to not only critically review and assess the impact of the bicentenary but also to identify practical issues that public historians consultants museum practitioners heritage professionals and policy makers can draw upon in developing responses both to the increasing recognition of Britain s history of African enslavement and controversial and traumatic histories more generally

Heritage and Tourism in The Global Village Priscilla Boniface, Peter Fowler, 2002-11-01 A nation s heritage is one of the most potent forces for generating tourism the Tower of London is the greatest visitor attraction in Britain But it is pushed into insignificance by comparison with the visitors travelling to Disneyland Epcot and the other entertainment complexes in the USA and it will be dwarfed by Euro Disneyland east of Paris So how should heritage attractions respond should they find their own specific audiences and resources This book written by a leading heritage specialist is essential reading for all those concerned both with heritage and leisure management International in scope it examines successful examples of heritage management for tourism and equally some failures It aims to lay some useful ground rules which should underpin all heritage developments designed to attract tourism on a major scale

UNESCO, Cultural Heritage, and Outstanding Universal Value Sophia Labadi, 2013 This book explores the international legal framework developed by UNESCO to identify and protect world heritage and its implementation at the national level Drawing on close policy analysis of UNESCO s major documents extensive professional experience at UNESCO as well as in depth analyses of case studies from Asia Europe and Latin America Sophia Labadi offers a nuanced discussion of the constitutive role of national understandings of a universalist framework The discussion departs from considerations of the World Heritage Convention as Eurocentric and offers a more complex analysis of how official narratives relating to non European and non traditional heritage mark a subversion of a dominant and canonical European representation of heritage It engages simultaneously with a diversity of discourses across the humanities and social sciences and with related theories pertaining not only to tangible and intangible heritage conservation and archaeology but also political science social theory tourism and development studies economics cultural and gender studies In doing so it provides a critical review of many key concepts including tourism development sustainability intangible heritage and authenticity

Marketing the Museum Fiona Mclean, 2012-12-06 Marketing the Museum is the ideal guide to the ways in which museums can overcome the numerous hurdles on the route to truly achieving a marketing orientation The history of the museum is one of shifting purposes and changing ideals and this volume asks if it is possible to define the product which the modern museum can offer This book explores the crucial question Are the theories of marketing developed for manufactured goods in any way relevant to the experience of visiting a museum In covering one of the most highly disputed issues in the field this book is essential reading for museum professionals students and anyone who has dealing in the many branches of the heritage industry around the world

Museums and the Shaping of Knowledge Eileen Hooper Greenhill, 1992-01-23 Museums have been active in shaping knowledge over the last six hundred years Yet what is their function within today's society At the present time when funding is becoming increasingly scarce difficult questions are being asked about the justification of museums Museums and the Shaping of Knowledge presents a critical survey of major changes in current assumptions about the nature of museums Through the examination of case studies Eileen Hooper Greenhill reveals a variety of different roles for museums in the production and shaping of knowledge Today museums are once again organising their spaces and collections to present themselves as environments for experimental and self directed learning

Museum Basics Tim Ambrose, Crispin Paine, 1993 Drawing from a wide range of experience the authors propose the simple ideas which should underpin all professional museum training courses Organised on a modular basis Museum Basics provides a basic guide to best practice in every aspect of museum work from museum organisation through collections management and conservation to marketing and security It is designed for training courses to be supplemented by case studies project work and group discussion

Claiming Back Their Heritage Geneviève Susemihl, 2023-10-04 This book provides a unique in depth look at three Indigenous World Heritage sites in Canada and their use for Indigenous empowerment and community development Based on extensive ethnographic field studies and comprehensive narrative interviews it shows how the three First Nation communities presented in the case studies enforce recognition of their collective rights to preserve their cultural heritage and assert their right to political economic cultural and social self determination It also considers the prevailing universalistic discourses around World Heritage and the various ways in which they serve to either reinforce existing oppressive conditions regarding Indigenous communities and voices or provide opportunities to overcome them The book will be of interest to scholars and students working on social and cultural histories histories of colonialism and in heritage and museum studies

Cultural Heritage of the Great War in Britain Dr Ross J Wilson, 2013-10-28 As the hundredth anniversary approaches it is timely to reflect not only upon the Great War itself and on the memorials which were erected to ensure it did not slip from national consciousness but also to reflect upon its rich and substantial cultural legacy This book examines the heritage of the Great War in contemporary Britain It addresses how the war maintains a place and value within British society through the usage of phrases references metaphors and imagery within popular media heritage and political discourse Whilst the representation of the war within historiography literature art television and film has been examined by scholars seeking to understand the origins of the popular memory of the conflict these analyses have neglected how and why wider popular debate draws upon a war fought nearly a century ago to express ideas about identity place and politics By examining the history usage and meanings of references to the Great War within local and national newspapers historical societies political publications and manifestos the heritage sector popular expressions blogs and internet chat rooms an analysis of the discourses which structure the remembrance of the war can be created The book acknowledges the diversity within Britain as different regional and national identities draw upon the war as a means of expression Whilst utilising the substantial field of heritage studies this book puts forward a new methodology for assessing cultural heritage and creates an original perspective on the place of the Great War across contemporary British society

Creating Heritage Thomas Carter, David Harvey, Roy Jones, Iain Robertson, 2019-11-15 This book investigates the selection process of heritagisation to understand what specific pasts are being selected or rejected for representation who is selecting them how and to whom they are being represented and why they are being presented or dismissed in the ways that they are Some aspects of our pasts are venerated and memorialised for a variety of reasons while others are forgotten or even hidden This volume thus provides examples from across a spectrum Some phenomena are well suited to heritagisation such as animals memorialised for their bravery long past agricultural techniques and implements and impressive landscapes However this book also deals with products e g tobacco historical periods e g the Third Reich and scientific techniques e g genetic modification with negative connotations that extend beyond their heritage attributes This volume considers how the actors in the heritage industry admit valorise prioritise and rationalise historic resources as heritage products These findings provide practical examples of how heritage institutions privilege frame and or exclude a wide range of heritage items They also contrast the invocations of sectional local national or class based and more cosmopolitan heritages and consider the extent to which innovation and change are or can be acknowledged within the heritage discourse

Representations of Classical Greece in Theme Parks Filippo Carlà-Uhink, 2020-04-16 Theme park studies is a growing field in social and cultural studies Nonetheless until now little attention has been dedicated to the choice of the themes represented in the parks and the strategies of their representation This is particularly interesting when the theme is a historical one for example ancient Greece Which elements of classical Greece find their way into a theme park and how are they chosen and represented What is the entertainment element in ancient Greek history culture and myth which allows its presence in commercial structures aiming to people s fun How does the representation of Greece change against different cultural backgrounds e g in different European countries in the USA in China This book frames a discussion of these representations within the current debates about immersive spaces uses of history and postmodern aesthetics and analyses how ancient Greece has been represented and made enjoyable in seven different theme parks across the world providing an original and ground breaking contribution to theme park studies and classical reception

Marie Antoinette at Petit Trianon Denise Maior-Barron,2018-07-11 Marie Antoinette at Petit Trianon challenges common perceptions of the last Queen of France appraising the role she played in relation to the events of French Revolution through an original analysis of contemporary heritage practices and visitor perceptions at her former home the Petit Trianon Controversy and martyrdom have placed Marie Antoinette s image within a spectrum of cultural caricatures that range from taboo to iconic With a foundation in critical heritage studies this book examines the diverse range of contemporary images portraying Marie Antoinette s historical character showing how they affect the interpretation and perception of the Petit Trianon By considering both producers and receivers of these cultural heritage exponents Marie Antoinette s historical figure and the historic house museum of the Petit Trianon the book expands current understandings of twenty first century cultural heritage perceptions in relation to tourism and popular culture A useful case study for academics researchers and postgraduate students of cultural heritage it will also be of interest to historians keepers of house museums and those working in the field of tourism studies

Holocaust Consciousness in Contemporary Britain Andy Pearce,2014-06-05 The Holocaust is a pervasive presence in British culture and society Schools have been legally required to deliver Holocaust education the government helps to fund student visits to Auschwitz the Imperial War Museum s permanent Holocaust Exhibition has attracted millions of visitors and Britain has an annually commemorated Holocaust Memorial Day What has prompted this development how has it unfolded and why has it happened now How does it relate to Britain s post war history its contemporary concerns and the wider globalisation of Holocaust memory What are the multiple shapes that British Holocaust consciousness assumes and the consequences of their rapid emergence Why have the so called lessons of the Holocaust enjoyed such popularity in Britain Through analysis of changing engagements with the Holocaust in political cultural and memorial landscapes over the past generation this book addresses these questions demonstrating the complexities of Holocaust consciousness and reflecting on the contrasting ways that history is used in Britain today

Representing the Nation Jessica Evans,David Boswell,1999 Representing the Nation gathers key writings from leading cultural thinkers to ask what role cultural institutions play in creating and shaping our sense of ourselves as a nation

Fishing for Heritage Jane Nadel-Klein,2020-05-26 Castles lochs seascapes Coastal Scotland is one of the world s most romanticized tourist destinations yet it is in the midst of severe economic decline The North Atlantic fisheries crisis has hit Scottish communities hard and local fisherfolk are faced with chronic insecurity anxiety over the decline of fishing and doubts about their cultural survival The decline of this traditional industry has been accompanied by growing tourism along Scottish shores Fishing villages are marketed for tourist consumption and culture has become a commodity Drawing upon fieldwork novels folk music and travel literature Nadel Klein explores how these influences have affected locals sense of identity and presence within a modern European nation How is identity linked to power What role do memory and authenticity play in the creation of Scottish heritage How do locals feel about the onslaught of tourists The topical nature of these issues and their relevance to other regions facing similar tensions make this book an important contribution to contemporary anthropology
