Repression And Recovery Modern American Poetry And The Politics Of Cultural Memory 1910 1945:

Repression and Recovery Cary Nelson, 1989 A poststructuralist literary history Nelson's premise that the history of modernist culture is one we no longer know we have forgotten and he aims to recover the political questions many forgotten modern poets looked straight in the eye

The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker, Andrew Thacker, 2009 This volume contains 44 original essays on the role of periodicals in the United States and Canada Over 120 magazines are discussed by expert contributors completely reshaping our understanding of the construction and emergence of modernism

Randolph Bourne and the Politics of Cultural Radicalism Leslie J. Vaughan, 2021-10-08 In the little rebellion that swept New York's Greenwich Village before World War I few figures stood out more than Randolph Bourne Hunchbacked and caped the little sparrowlike man of Dos Passos U S A Bourne was an essayist and critic most remembered today for his opposition to U S military involvement in Europe and his assertion that war is the health of the state A frequent contributor to The New Republic he died in 1918 at the age of 32 arguing that a military industrial complex would continue to shape the policies of the modern liberal state Bourne is also recognized as one of the founders of American cultural radicalism revered in turn by Marxists anti fascists and the New Left Through his writings he debated issues that were cultural as well as political from a position he described as below the battle rejecting the either or political options of his day in favor of a viewpoint that argued outside the terms set by the establishment In her new study of Bourne's political thought Leslie Vaughan maintains that this position was not as others have contended a retreat from politics but rather a different form of political engagement freed from the suppositions that impede genuine debate and democratic change Her analysis challenges previous readings of Bourne's politics showing that he offered non statist neighborhood based politics in America's modern cities as a practical alternative to involvement in the national state and its militarism By demonstrating Bourne's emphasis on politics as local multi ethnic and intergenerational Vaughan shows that his thought offered a new political discourse and set of cultural possibilities for American society in an era he was the first to label as post modern Returning to the influence of Nietzsche on his thought she also explores the role Bourne played in the creation of his own myth Eighty years later Bourne can be seen to stand at the cusp of the modern and the post modern worlds as he speaks to today's multiculturalist movement In reexamining Bourne's writings Vaughan has located the roots of twentieth century radical thought while repositioning Bourne at the center of debates about the nature and limits of American liberalism

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry Craig Svonkin, Steven Gould Axelrod, 2023-01-12 With chapters written by leading scholars such as Steven Gould Axelrod Cary Nelson and Marjorie Perloff this comprehensive Handbook explores the full range and diversity of poetry and criticism in 21st century America The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry covers such topics as Major histories and genealogies of post war poetry from the language poets and the Black Arts Movement to New York school and the Beats Poetry identity and

Cain,2014-04-04 Three extensively revised essays by Mailloux an influential proponent of cultural studies describe his approach in depth Following are ten essays nine of them written specifically for this volume by scholars who offer various perspectives on Mailloux s ideas Each essayist weighs the strengths and limitations of the cultural studies movement in general and Mailloux s approach in particular Modernism's Print Cultures Faye Hammill,Mark Hussey,2016-08-25 The print culture of the early twentieth century has become a major area of interest in contemporary Modernist Studies Modernism s Print Cultures surveys the explosion of scholarship in this field and provides an incisive well informed guide for students and scholars alike Surveying the key critical work of recent decades the book explores such topics as Periodical publishing from little magazines such as Rhythm to glossy publications such as Vanity Fair The material aspects of early twentieth century publishing small presses typography illustration and book design The circulation of modernist print artefacts through the book trade libraries book clubs and cafes Educational and political print initiatives Including accounts of archival material available online targeted lists of key further reading and a survey of new trends in the field this is an essential guide to an important area in the study of modernist literature Embattled Home Fronts Karsten H. Piep,2009-01-01 Embattled Home Fronts is an inquiry into the highly conflicted US American experience of World War I as it plays itself out in the diverse body of novelistic works to which it has given rise and by which it has been in turn shaped and commemorated As such this book naturally concerns itself with the formal aspects of artistic war representation But rather than merely endeavoring to illustrate how American writers from various backgrounds chose to depict World War I the present work seeks to uncover the particular ideologies and political practices that inform these representational choices To this end Embattled Home Fronts examines both canonized and marginalized US American World War I novels within the context of contemporaneous debates over shifting class gender and race relations The book contends that American literary representations of the Great War are shaped less by universal insights into modern society's self destructiveness than by concerted efforts to fashion class gender and race specific experiences of warfare in ways that stabilize and heighten political group identities In moving beyond the customary focus on ironic war representations Embattled Home Fronts illustrates that the representational and ideological battles fought within American World War I literature not only shed light on the emergence of powerful identity political concepts such as the New Woman and the New Negro but also speak to the reappearance of utopian communitarian and social protest fictions in the early 1930s This study Embattled Home Fronts provides a new understanding of the relationship between war literature and home front politics that should be of interest to students and scholars working from a variety of disciplines and perspectives

Marketing Modernisms Kevin J. H. Dettmar, Stephen Myers Watt, 2025-10-01 Rarely have genres of literary expression been looked upon or read as commodities within a market system we tend to think of our literature as pure untainted by any interaction with the world of commerce Critical accounts of modernism are frequently theorized across the divide between the project itself and the larger marketplace the world of consumption Marketing Modernisms calls into question this curious separation and examines the material intellectual and ideological practices that comprise the notion of marketing Marketing Modernisms is concerned with Anglo American modernists and their potential readers in both the popular audience and the academy Examining the forms of promotion employed by book publishing houses in the editorial offices of literary magazines and in the minds of modern writers the essays bring to the fore little known connections between writers such as Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Langston Hughes and the commercial marketplace they engaged The book s provocative themes include the strategies that modernists and their publishers employed to market their work to fashion themselves as artists or celebrities and to bridge the gap between an avant garde elite and the popular reader Other essays explore the difficulties confronted by women African American and gay and lesbian writers in gaining literary acceptance and achieving commercial representation while maintaining the gendered racial and sexual aspects of their lives

Hart Crane and the Modernist Epic D. Gabriel, 2016-05-24 This study examines Hart Crane s canonical ambitions in The Bridge and argues for a new species of epic the modernist epic which also includes Pound s The Cantos Eliot s The Waste Land and Williams s Paterson It offers a close reading of The Bridge as a hybrid of lyric and epic modes Crane s sublime and history converge in a complex synthesis of form and ideas The study reconceives Crane s achievement by locating him in an intertextual system of production while also recognizing his poetic making of self Yet in this work Crane assumes a greater political presence than much commentary has entertained

The Politics of Cultural Mediation Paul Hjartarson, Tracy Kulba, 2003-05-28 Translators mediate between cultures they negotiate the transfer of meaning from one word and world to another Writers who migrate uprooting themselves from one world and settling in another also mediate between cultures and are mediated by them This collection of essays explores the contact zones produced by the migrations of two German born cultural figures New York Dada poet and artist Else Pl tz 1874 1927 better known as Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven or simply the Baroness and writer and translator Felix Paul Greve 1879 1948 aka the Canadian author Frederick Philip Grove Both figures negotiated languages beyond their mother tongue German both moved between geographic and cultural worlds both produced cultural works in their adopted countries the United States and Canada and both translated themselves into new contexts The Politics of Cultural Mediation features contributions by Richard Cavell Jutta Ernst Irene Gammel Paul Hjartarson Klaus Martens and Paul Morris and includes Morris's translation of Greve's Randarabesken Zu Oscar Wilde      The Cultural Front Michael Denning, 1998 As garment workers longshoremen autoworkers sharecroppers and clerks took to the streets striking and organizing unions in the midst of the Depression artists writers and filmmakers joined the insurgent social movement by creating a cultural front Disney cartoonists walked picket lines and Billie Holiday sang Strange Fruit at the left wing cabaret Caf Society Duke Ellington produced a radical musical Jump for Joy New York garment workers staged the legendary Broadway revue Pins and Needles and Orson Welles and his Mercury players took their labor operas and anti fascist Shakespeare to Hollywood and made Citizen Kane A major reassessment of US cultural history The Cultural Front is a vivid mural of this extraordinary upheaval which reshaped American culture in the twentieth century      Opposing Poetries: Readings Hank Lazer, 1996 Explains to structural engineers some of the basic equations for analyzing and designing buildings that were devised at the end of the 19th century but were so unmanageably complex to solve that they were displaced by approximation techniques until the recent advent of electronic computer Heyman engineering U of Cambridge warns that some of the equations turn out not to fit reality as close as future occupants of buildings might prefer and explains how to use them and in what context Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Mourning Modernity Seth Moglen, 2007 In Mourning Modernity Seth Moglen offers a bold new map of American literary modernism as a psychologically and politically divided response to the injuries inflicted by modern capitalism      Manifesto of a Tenured Radical Cary Nelson, 1997-04 In an age when innovative scholarly work is at an all time high the academy itself is being rocked by structural change Funding is plummeting Tenure increasingly seems a prospect for only the elite few Ph D s are going begging for even adjunct work Into this tumult steps Cary Nelson with a no holds barred account of recent developments in higher education Eloquent and witty Manifesto of a Tenured Radical urges academics to apply the theoretical advances of the last twenty years to an analysis of their own practices and standards of behavior In the process Nelson offers a devastating critique of current inequities and a detailed proposal for change in the form of A Twelve Step Program for Academia      The Suburb of Dissent Caren Irr, 1998 A study of a range of leftist literature of the 30s in its cultural milieu
