A Consumers' Republic Lizabeth Cohen, 2008-12-24 In this signal work of history Bancroft Prize winner and Pulitzer Prize finalist Lizabeth Cohen shows how the pursuit of prosperity after World War II fueled our pervasive consumer mentality and transformed American life Trumpeted as a means to promote the general welfare mass consumption quickly outgrew its economic objectives and became synonymous with patriotism social equality and the American Dream Material goods came to embody the promise of America and the power of consumers to purchase everything from vacuum cleaners to convertibles gave rise to the power of citizens to purchase political influence and effect social change Yet despite undeniable successes and unprecedented affluence mass consumption also fostered economic inequality and the fracturing of society along gender class and racial lines In charting the complex legacy of our Consumers Republic Elizabeth Cohen has written a bold encompassing and profoundly influential book Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, 1945-1960 Alec Holcombe, 2020-08-31 Immediately after its founding by H Ch Minh in September 1945 the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV faced challenges from rival Vietnamese political organizations and from a France determined to rebuild her empire after the humiliations of WWII H with strategic genius courageous maneuver and good fortune was able to delay full scale war with France for sixteen months in the northern half of the country This was enough time for his Communist Party under the cover of its Vietminh front organization to neutralize domestic rivals and install the rough framework of an independent state That fledgling state became a weapon of war when the DRV and France finally came to blows in Hanoi during December of 1946 marking the official beginning of the First Indochina War With few economic resources at their disposal H and his comrades needed to mobilize an enormous and free contribution in manpower and rice from DRV controlled regions Extracting that contribution during the war s early days was primarily a matter of patriotic exhortation By the early 1950s however the infusion of weapons from the United States the Soviet Union and China had turned the Indochina conflict into a total war Hunger exhaustion and violence along with the conflict s growing political complexity challenged the DRV leaders mobilization efforts forcing patriotic appeals to be supplemented with coercion and terror This trend reached its revolutionary climax in late 1952 when H under strong pressure from Stalin and Mao agreed to carry out radical land reform in DRV controlled areas of northern Vietnam The regime s 1954 victory over the French at i n Bi n Ph the return of peace and the division of the country into North and South did not slow this process of socialist transformation Over the next six years 1954 1960 the DRV s Communist leaders raced through land reform and agricultural collectivization with a relentless sense of urgency Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam 1945 1960 explores the way the exigencies of war the dreams of Marxist Leninist ideology and the pressures of the Cold War environment combined with pride and patriotism to drive totalitarian state formation in northern Vietnam A New Republic of Letters Jerome McGann, 2014-03-17 Jerome McGann s manifesto argues that the history of texts and how they are preserved and accessed for interpretation are the overriding subjects of humanist study in the digital age Theory and philosophy no longer suffice as an intellectual framework But philology out of fashion for decades models these concerns with surprising fidelity Literary Series in the Federal Republic of Germany from 1960 to 1980 Mark W. Rectanus, 1984 Popular Chinese Literature and Performing Arts in the People's Republic of China, 1949-1979 Bonnie S. McDougall, 2018-05-18 The essays in this volume constitute an exceptionally broad and inclusive account of Chinese literature and performing arts since 1949 Extending beyond fiction to poetry and drama and covering song opera and film as well these essays reveal a more lively and varied cultural life than that disclosed by studies confined to fiction and literary politics Rather than stopping at the assumption that art reflects Party or government policy the essays uncover the traditional roots of popular literature and performing art by employing literary and artistic methods of analysis While often lacking in appeal to Western audiences these popular arts nonetheless have their own artistic validity and convey complex meanings to broadly based Chinese audiences The materials and analyses presented here have social as well as cultural relevance Variety and change rather than monolithic uniformity have characterized post 1949 cultural bureaucracies writers performers and audiences This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984
