Requiem for the West Roger C. Brown, Richard D. Lamm, 2004-01-01      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      Teeth Under the Sun Ignácio de Loyola Brandão, 2007 A modern day Don Quixote and an exile in his own hometown the protagonist of Teeth Under the Sun is kept from writing by a conspiracy real imagined designed to prevent him from revealing the truth about the town s strange status quo and violent past In a place where people have abandoned their houses for tiny apartments in the confines of new high rises the narrator walks the almost empty streets remembering better times and meeting figures from his past his ex wife his son writers friends and revolutionaries And all of this is interspersed with his memories of the movies Fact and fiction past and present all meet in this story of the narrator s attempts to engage more fully with a modern world forcing him into isolation      Everyday Life Lydie Salvayre, 2006 The hiring of a new secretary shouldn t be a big deal just a slight a change in the office environment But for the protagonist of this novel it is a declaration of war a call to arms The new secretary has only been here two days she says and I m already talking about evil a word I shouldn t even be using arming myself for battle and choosing my weapons Her quiet life of sacrifice and service has been rudely disrupted by the new hire and she is not despite the advice of her doctor her neighbors and her daughter about to leave it at that Instead sabotage alcohol and kindness become the arsenal in a conflict fought across copy rooms and office parties But the humor is undercut by a sadness a sense of defeat that makes this slim novel resonate with the injustice of our increasingly impersonal corporate world

The Third Policeman Flann O'Brien, 1999 With the publication of The Third Policeman Dalkey Archive Press now has all of O'Brien s fiction back in print      Imaginative Qualities of Actual Things Gilbert Sorrentino, 2007 Gilbert Sorrentino s third novel is about the New York artistic and literary world of the 1950s and 60s specifically the artists writers hangers on and the phonies who populated that world In a prose that is ruthless as well as possessed of an enormous comic verve the dedicated the stupid the rapacious and the foolish are dissected Eight major characters many of whom reappear in Sorrentino s later novels are employed to allow the reader a variety of views of the same world Told in the weary voice of a cynical and sardonic narrator the novel is crammed with fantastic characters incidents and episodes and moves from wit and satire through elegiac brooding to bitter invective It is a superb re creation of a real time and place Publisher description

Summer in Termuren Louis Paul Boon, 2006 It is the story of Ondine and Oscarke a young married couple adrift in a Belgian landscape that is darkening under the spread of industry      Conversations with Professor Y Louis-Ferdinand Céline, 2006 So begins the imaginary interview that comprises this novel Professor Y the interviewing academic asks questions that allow C line a character in his own book the chance to rail against convention and defend his idiosyncratic methods In the course of their outrageous interplay C line comes closer to defining and justifying his poetics than in any of his other novels But this is more than just an interview As the book moves forward Professor Y reveals his real identity and the characters travel through the streets of Paris toward a bizarre climax that parodies the author the critic and most of all the establishment

The Confidence-man Herman Melville, 2007 A scathing razor sharp satire set on a New Orleans bound riverboat The Confidence Man exposes the fraudulent optimism of so many American idols and idealists Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau and P T Barnum in particular and draws a dark vision of a country being swallowed by its illusions of progress Why is Dalkey Archive doing yet another edition of The Confidence Man And why is it doing Melville at all First this edition originally published by Bobbs Merrill over forty years ago contains remarkable annotations by H Bruce Franklin intended for both the general reader and the scholar It s an edition we have long admired More importantly we believe that The Confidence Man is America s first postmodern novel game like darkly comic and completely inventive

The Mystery of the Sardine Stefan Themerson, 2006 When an unknown black poodle inexplicably explodes in philosophy professor Timothy Chesterton Brown s back yard paralyzing the professor and killing his guest the mystery of the sardine begins Its solution will involve such unwitting detectives as a twelve year old mathematician his mother his beloved a palmist named Miss Prentice and a bureaucrat dubbed the Minister of Imponderabilia The clues they unearth drawing on logic the occult intuition and everything in between lead them far away from the tiny seaside town where they begin We follow them to Majorca Rome Warsaw and London but in the end the solution lies beyond even the furthest and most magical reaches of reason

The Enamoured Knight Douglas H. Glover, 2005 This book is filled with a great love for the art of writing and is a celebration of the act of reading Through the prism of the renowned Russian Formalist Viktor Shklovsky Douglas Glover provides a scrupulous reading of Cervantes s Don Quixote By showing us how Cervantes constructed his novel and how we as readers participate in his magical creation he opens the 400 year old Spanish masterpiece to a new generation of readers Glover seduces us with his stunning prose while making it possible for even the casual reader to understand and enjoy Cervantes s genius

BOOK JACKET Night Vedrana Rudan, 2004 Not since Louis Ferdinand C line s Ferdinand Bardamu has a character appeared in fiction with such a bitter ironic hysterically ranting voice Tonka a fifty something woman spending the night watching TV before leaving her husband for a younger man rails against all of society from attacks on America to complaints about commercials from the passive nature of most married women to the way corporations control the world With shocking honesty and anger she pours out her soul to an imaginary audience interspersing her rants with the story of her difficult life the suffering experienced during the Yugoslav war and the affairs she and her best friend have with the same man

Sweet Tooth Yves Navarre, 2006 In a New York as gritty and brutal as Charles Bukowski s Los Angeles a city of muggings cockroach infested apartments dank hospitals and casual murders three characters cross paths and collide Sweet Tooth is a book of anonymous sexual encounters and of lust that grades into love a story by one of the most brilliantly uncompromising innovators of gay literature that shocks with candor and builds to an incredible climax Its last line Adventure is dead grounds everything that has come before and gives a conclusive melancholy tone to a book that is much more than shocking Flaubert, Joyce and Beckett Hugh Kenner, 2005 An enlightening study of three writers Flaubert Joyce and Beckett The Stoic Comedians begins with an explanation of the effect of the printing press on books The book as book has been removed from the oral tradition by such features as prefaces footnotes and indexes Books have become voiceless in some sense they are to be read silently not recited aloud How this mechanical change affected the possibilities of fiction is Kenner s subject Each of the three featured authors approached this situation in a unique yet connected way Flaubert as the Comedian of the Enlightenment categorizing man s intellectual follies Joyce as the Comedian of the Inventory with his meticulously constructed lists and Beckett as the Comedian of the Impasse eliminating facts and writing novels about a man alone writing Marks of Identity Juan Goytisolo, 2007 An exile returns to Spain from France to find that he is repelled by the fascism of Franco s Spain and drawn to the world of Muslim culture In Marks of Identity Juan Goytisolo one of Spain s most celebrated novelists speaks for a generation of Spaniards who were small children during the Spanish Civil War grew up under a stifling dictatorship and in many cases emigrated in desperation from their dying country Upon his return the narrator confronts the most controversial political religious social and sexual issues of our time with ferocious energy and elegant prose Torn between the Islamic and European worlds around him he finds both ultimately unsatisfactory In the end only displacement survives Chinese Letter Svetislav Basara, 2004 Ordered by two mysterious men to write a statement of about 100 pages the narrator of Chinese Letter who s not sure of his name but calls himself Fritz faithfully records the bizarre occurrences of his daily life his absurd conversations with his mother who is abducted by slave traders his visits to his friend who works in the hospital s autopsy room and his sister s tumultuous marriage to the butcher s son to name a few Widely respected in Serbia the term Basarian has been coined to refer to his unique writing style reminiscent of the best of Samuel Beckett for its directness existential pondering and odd sense of humor The Family of Pascual Duarte Camilo José Cela, 2004 This book reflects the crude reality of rural Spain in Franco s time It is full of human power and rich in social insight Cela writes with great detail but still maintains simplicity Larva Julián Ríos, 2004 A striking reassessment of the Don Juan myth A literary tour de force this extraordinary novel is told in single minded pursuit of double meanings but it is serious play Larva is a rollicking account of a masquerade party in an abandoned mansion in London Milalias disguised as Don Juan searches for Babelle as Sleeping Beauty through a linguistic funhouse of puns and wordplay recalling Joyce s Finnegans Wake A mock scholarly commentary reveals the backgrounds of the masked revellers while Rios allusive language shows that words too wear masks hiding an astonishing range of further meanings and implications Larva revives a Hispanic tradition repressed for centuries by introducing the English tradition of puns palindromes and acrostics a word puzzle in which certain letters in each line form a word or words and establishes Rios as the most accomplished successor in any language to Joyce      The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S. Burt, 2004
