Beyond the Multiplex Barbara Klinger, 2023-09-01 Since the mid eighties more audiences have been watching Hollywood movies at home than at movie theaters yet little is known about just how viewers experience film outside of the multiplex This is the first full length study of how contemporary entertainment technologies and media from cable television and VHS to DVD and the Internet shape our encounters with the movies and affect the aesthetic cultural and ideological definitions of cinema Barbara Klinger explores topics such as home theater film collecting classic Hollywood movie reruns repeat viewings and Internet film parodies providing a multifaceted view of the presentation and reception of films in U S households Balancing industry history with theoretical and cultural analysis she finds that today cinema s powerful social presence cannot be fully grasped without considering its prolific recycling in post theatrical venues especially the home Since the mid eighties more audiences have been watching Hollywood movies at home than at movie theaters yet little is known about just how viewers experience film outside of the multiplex This is the first full length study of how contemporary enterta

The Archivability of Television Lauren Bratslavsky, Elizabeth Peterson, 2025-06-01 This anthology critically evaluates archives and archival processes that collect order and preserve elements of television as historically culturally socially politically and economically significant material What do we know about how television moved from ephemeral broadcasts and mounds of paperwork documenting bureaucratic and creative processes to become historical material housed in archives This book s guiding principles are to interrogate where television as historical material lives and to collect the stories of some ways television preservation has been and continues to be deeply circumstantial and idiosyncratic Bringing together work by academics archivists and practitioners the book offers insights into the archival processes that confer television programs with historical value With a focus on television s archival spaces the book contributes more broadly to theories histories and practices of archiving Likewise the theories and questions about archives provide insights into the specificities of the medium the relations between technologies and culture the political economy of the culture industries and the minutiae of television s place in American society

Immersive Longform Storytelling David Dowling, 2019-03-13 A deep dive into the world of online and multimedia longform storytelling this book charts the renaissance in deep reading viewing and listening associated with the literary mind and the resulting implications of its rise in popularity David O Dowling argues that although developments in media technology have enabled the ascendance of nonfictional storytelling to new heights through new forms it has done so at the peril of these intensely persuasive designs becoming deployed for commercial and political purposes He shows how traditional boundaries separating genres and dividing editorial from advertising content have fallen with the rise of media hybridity drawing attention to how the principle of an independent press can be reformulated for the digital ecosystem Immersive Longform Storytelling is a compelling examination of storytelling covering multimedia features on demand documentary television branded digital documentaries interactive online documentaries and podcasting This book's focus on both form and effect makes it a fascinating read for scholars and academics interested in storytelling and the rise of new media

ITV Cultures Catherine Johnson, Rob Turnock, 2005-09-16 This exciting book goes to the heart of a creative commercial and public service culture it shows why ITV matters and how it was made to work so well A tremendous contribution Professor Jean Seaton University of Westminster This is a valuable addition to studies of ITV's history and programming Tom O'Malley Professor of Media Studies University of Wales Aberystwyth and Co Editor of Media History Since breaking the BBC's monopoly in 1955 ITV has been at the centre of the British television landscape To coincide with the fiftieth anniversary of the first ITV broadcast this accessible book offers a range of perspectives on the complex and multifaceted history of Britain's first commercial broadcaster The book explores key tensions and conflicts which have influenced the ITV service Chapters focus on particular institutions including London Weekend Television and ITN and programme forms including Who Wants to be a Millionaire Upstairs Downstairs and Trisha The contributors show that ITV has had to tread an uneasy line between public service and commercial imperatives between a pluralistic regional structure and a national network and between popular appeal and quality programming A timeline of key events in the history of ITV is also included ITV Cultures provides a timely intervention in debates on broadcasting and cultural history for academics and researchers and a lively introduction to the history of ITV for students and general readers Contributors Rod Allen City University Jonathan Bignell University of Reading John Ellis Royal Holloway University of London Jackie Harrison University of Sheffield Jamie Medhurst University of Wales Aberystwyth Matt Hills Cardiff University Steve Neale University of Exeter Helen Wheatley University of Reading Sherryl Wilson Bournemouth University
