Digital Life Together

David I. Smith, Kara Sevensma, Marjorie Terpstra, Steven McMullen, 2020-05-05 Digital technologies loom large in the experience of today's students However parents teachers and school leaders have only started to take stock of the ramifications for teaching learning and faith Based on a three year in depth study of Christian schools Digital Life Together walks educators school leaders and parents through some of the big ideas that are hidden in our technology habits going beyond general arguments for or against digital devices to address the nuanced realities of Christian education in a twenty first century context

Quality-of-Life Research in Chinese, Western and Global Contexts Daniel T.L. Shek, Ying Keung Chan, Paul S.N. Lee, 2005-06-08 The majority of studies on the quality of life have been conducted in Western contexts and are based on Western participants Comparatively speaking there are only a few studies that have been conducted in different Chinese contexts Also there are fewer QOL studies based on children and adolescents or studies that examine the relationship between QOL and economic disadvantage In addition more research is needed to address the methodological issues related to the assessment of quality of life This volume is a constructive response to the challenges described above It is the first book to cover research in Chinese Western and global contexts in a single volume It is a ground breaking volume in which

Chinese studies on the quality of life are collected The book includes papers addressing family QOL quality of life in adolescents experiencing economic disadvantage and methodological issues in the assessment of QOL It is written by researchers working in a variety of disciplines
