Rineke Dijkstra Rineke Dijkstra, Hripsimé Visser, 2005 Rineke Dijkstra Rineke Dijkstra, Carol Ehlers, James Rondeau, 2002 Tall skinny short round squat awkward slouched tanned bashful and sometimes unknowingly beautiful the adolescents in Rineke Dijkstra's Beach Portraits stand alone the ocean rolling behind them Clad in little more than bathing suits these young people are striking to behold Remarkably clear and formally classical each subject is frontally posed and shot straight on the resulting photographs participate in a cold quasi scientific categorization reminiscent of the work of August Sander and Thomas Ruff Yet Dijkstra's pictures are not just that there is also something of the eccentric in them something that comes closer to Diane Arbus's images Seen together the complete series of 20 Beach Portraits creates a kind of collective portrait of the existential insecurity and awkward beauty of youth Rineke Dijkstra, 2001 Rineke Dijkstra Rineke Dijkstra, Sandra S. Phillips, Jennifer Blessing, 2012 This volume is the first comprehensive monograph on Rineke Dijkstra to be published in the United States accompanying the first U S mid career survey of this important Dutch artist's work in photography and video The catalogue features the Beach Portraits and other early works such as the photographs of new mothers and bullfighters together with selections from Dijkstra's later work including her most recent video installations Also featured are series that the artist has been working on continuously for years such as Almerisa 1994 which documents a young immigrant girl as she grows up and adapts to her new environment Exhibition curators Jennifer Blessing Senior Curator Photography Solomon R Guggenheim Museum and Sandra S Phillips Senior Curator of Photography San Francisco Museum of Modern Art contribute essays accompanied by an interview with the artist by Jan van Adrichem selected interviews with several of the artist's subjects and entries on the artist's series by Chelsea Spengemann as well as the most comprehensive exhibition history and bibliography to date Rineke Dijkstra Rineke Dijkstra, Michael Bracewell, Joanna Lowry, 1997 Rineke Dijkstra Rineke Dijkstra, Jessica Morgan, Katy Siegel, Institute of Contemporary Art (Boston, Mass.), 2001 Artist Rineke Dijkstra has appropriated the formal qualities of the studio portrait from the early part of this century taking the convention of the full length frontal and centrally composed portrait to its logical limits she is able to penetrate to the core of her subjects Each photograph is marked with a precise date and location suggesting a conscious evocation of the work of the early 20th century photographer August Sander and his project to document the Citizens of the Twentieth Century Dijkstra's photographs stand by themselves bearing no reference to personal circumstances or the specific geographical details of the location the power of her images lies in an intimate psychological connection between artist sitter and viewer For Dijkstra's best known series of photographs an extensive series of beach portraits of teenagers and children taken on beaches all over the world between 1992 and 1996 the artist sought out a certain introversion or unease in her subjects capturing with rare perfection the human condition of feeling not at home in the world This brilliant new monograph documents Dijkstra's recent photographic and video work Photography Mary Warner Marien, 2006 Each

Walter Benjamin and Art Andrew Benjamin, 2005-02-01 Walter Benjamin's most famous and influential essay remains The Work of Art in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction. Walter Benjamin and the Work of Art is the first book to provide a broad and dedicated analysis of this canonical work and its effect upon core contemporary concerns in the visual arts, aesthetics, and the history of philosophy. The book is structured around three distinct areas: the extension of Benjamin's work, the question of historical connection, the importance of the essay in the development of criticism of both the visual arts and literature. Contributors to the volume include major Benjamin commentators whose work has very much defined the reception of the essay and leading philosophers, historians, and aestheticians whose approaches open up new areas of interest and relevance.

Seeing Out Loud Jerry Saltz, 2003 Literary Nonfiction. Art In SEEING OUT LOUD Saltz critically engages with notable works of art by over 100 notable artists ranging from Picasso, Matisse, and Warhol to Matthew Barney, Gerhard Richter, and Chris Ofili. These reviews appeared in the Village Voice between November 1998 and winter 2003. Jerry Saltz is the best informed and hair-trigger liveliest of contemporary art critics, tracking pleasure and jump-starting intelligence on the fly. Jerry's fast takes usually stand up better in retrospect than other people's long views. Peter Schjeldahl. Jerry Saltz looks at art from the perspective of the viewer: the ignorant, the lover, and the enemy. His writing is overwhelmingly passionate yet without sentimentality. His words pierce the content and beauty of each work of art to test its endurance in time and memory. Francesco Bonami. Curator 2003 Venice Biennale.

The Photographic Paradigm Annette W. Balkema, Henk Slager, 1997 Opstellen over de fotografie en fotografische zienswijzen als paradigma in de hedendaagse beeldende kunst

A Violent Embrace Renée C. Hoogland, 2014-01-07 Instead of asking questions about the symbolic meaning or underlying truth of a work of art, Renée C. Hoogland is concerned with the actual work that it does in the world, whether intentionally or not. Why do we find ourselves in tears in front of an abstract painting? Why do some cartoons of the prophet Muhammad generate worldwide political outrage? What, in other words, is the compelling force of visual images, even or especially if they are nonfigurative, repulsive, or downright ugly? Rather than describing, analyzing, and interpreting artworks, Hoogland approaches art as an event that obtains on the level of actualization, presenting retellings of specific artistic events in the light of recent interventions in aesthetic theory and proposing to conceive of the aesthetic encounter as a potentially disruptive, if not violent, force field with material, political, and practical consequences.

On Perfection Jo Longhurst, 2013-01-01 Based on a 2012 symposium on Perfection held at the Whitechapel Gallery in East London, this book explores the ways in which artists engage with ideas of perfection, drawing on screenings, performances, and discussions. The symposium featured the work of an eclectic group of artists and writers who use photographic lenses of many kinds to create works that engage with or disrupt ideas of perfection. Framed from an artist's perspective and spanning a diverse range of artworks that question how these ideas shape our personal identities and our social and political systems, On Perfection considers the multifaceted nature of lens-based practices.
