Sightings The Gray Whales Mysterious Journey:

Sightings Brenda Peterson, Linda Hogan, 2002 In this powerful collection of Sightings award winning Native American author Hogan teams up with acclaimed novelist Peterson to document the serene beauty mystery and controversy surrounding gray whales as they migrate from Alaska to Mexico 16 page full color photo insert Little Gray's Great Migration Marta Lindsey, 2015-01-20 Little Gray loved his lagoon and the humans who came to visit him there One day Mama announces that they must swim north to a far away sea At first he is sad to leave his home but Little Gray soon realizes the importance of their journey What happens along the way and how does Little Gray help his mother Swim along with Little Gray as he finds the way to this special food filled sea Around the World in 80 Species Jill Atkins, Barry Atkins, 2018-11-08 The world is currently experiencing a sixth period of mass species extinction and extinction of flora and fauna is caused by a variety of factors arising from industrial activity and increasing human population such as global warming climate change habitat loss pollution and use of pesticides Most causes of extinction are linked to corporate activity either directly or indirectly Around the World in 80 Species Exploring the Business of Extinction responds to the ongoing mass extinction crisis engulfing our planet by exploring the ways in which accounting business and finance can be used to prevent species extinctions From Africa to the Far East and from Europe to the Americas the authors explore species loss and how businesses can stop mass extinctions through greater transparency and through closer engagement with their investors and wildlife organisations The book concludes that global capitalism has led us to this extinction crisis and that therefore the mechanisms of capitalism namely accounting finance investment can help to pull us out Businesses must urgently address extinction before it is too late for all species including ourselves As the first book to explore corporate accounting and accountability in relation to species on the brink of extinction this book will be of great interest to both professionals and a wider audience interested in the causes and prevention of extinction Contesting Leviathan Les Beldo, 2019-10-15 In 1999 off the coast of the Pacific Northwest the first gray whale in seven decades was killed by Makah whalers The hunt marked the return of a centuries old tradition and predictably set off a fierce political and environmental debate Whalers from the Makah Indian Tribe and antiwhaling activists have clashed for over twenty years with no end to this conflict in sight In Contesting Leviathan anthropologist Les Beldo describes the complex judicial and political climate for whale conservation in the United States and the limits of the current framework in which whales are treated as large fish managed by the National Marine Fisheries Service Emphasizing the moral dimension of the conflict between the Makah the US government and antiwhaling activists Beldo brings to light the lived ethics of human animal interaction as well as how different groups claim to speak for the whale the only silent party in this conflict A timely and sensitive study of a complicated issue this book calls into question anthropological expectations regarding who benefits from the exercise of state power in environmental conflicts especially where indigenous groups are involved Vividly told and rigorously argued

Contesting Leviathan will appeal to anthropologists scholars of indigenous culture animal activists and any reader interested in the place of animals in contemporary life Linda Hogan and Contemporary Taiwanese Writers Peter I-min Huang, 2015-12-16 Linda Hogan and Contemporary Taiwanese Writers an Ecocritical Study of Indigeneities and Environment is the first full length single authored study of Native American writer Linda Hogan and the first book to address Hogan's poetry and prose primarily from ecocritical perspectives inclusive of ecofeminism environmental justice postcolonial ecocriticism and animal studies It also is unique for the reason that it is a comparative study of the work of Hogan and writings by Taiwanese environmental writers scholars and activists Chapter One which serves as the introduction to the book written by and from the perspective of an indigene begins by giving readers a glimpse into the kind of world in the east in which the author came of age It then relates this world to the western worlds that Hogan writes about in her poetry and prose Chapter Two focuses on Hogan's most recently published novel People of the Whale 2008 and on the arguments that the novel makes about the environmentally unsustainable acts of corporate globalization that involve the trade in endangered animal species Huang relates those arguments to the oil industry in Taiwan and to the extirpation of cetacean species in the waters of Taiwan by this industry Chapter Three is an analysis of the novel Mean Spirit 1990 Huang reads this novel mostly through the lens of environmental justice arguments Chapter Four addresses the novel Solar Storms 1995 from the perspective of ecofeminist theory and in the context of the issue of the escalation of mega dams in East Asia Chapter Five analyses the novel Power from animal studies perspectives Chapter Six is a comparative studies reading of poems by several prominent Chinese Taiwanese and Aboriginal poets Taiwanese poet Ka hsiang Liu Paiwan poet Mona Neng Atayal poet Walis Noka and Chinese Taiwanese poet Guangzhong Yu and Hogan's latest collection of poetry entitled Dark Sweet New Selected Poems 2014 In his reading of this work Huang relies on a definition of ecopoetry in Ann Fisher Wirth and Laura Gray Street's recently published The Ecopoetry Anthology 2013 He also brings together the main theoretical ecocritical terms that he discusses in the previous chapters Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan's Poetry and Prose Małgorzata Poks, 2023-07-28 Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan's Poetry and Prose is a plea for an urgent redefinition of human animal relations on the basis of a nonanthropocentric animal ethic embraced by premodern Indigenous communities but depreciated by coloniality Without decolonial revisions of animal subjectivity and personhood the animal genocide can never truly stop It is also a close reading of Linda Hogan's poetry and prose in search of the coordinates of a decolonized animal ethic which would foster interspecies becoming Having defined the recurring tropes motifs and attitudes that underpin Hogan's treatment of nonhuman animals the book moves on to trace the way she depicts the human animal bond especially in the face of the destructive anthropogenic impact The major questions guiding the analysis of Hogan's oeuvre are as follows who are the animals we share our earthly lives with what can they teach us about ourselves how can animals guide us toward more sustainable futures and what are the conditions of possibility of an interspecies human animal thriving This book will be
