There are more than a million nonprofit organizations in the United States and every one of them needs to tell its story, find clients, solicit donations, sell services, and encourage its volunteers. Yet few have a marketing department, and many have serious challenges in meeting their communications and marketing goals. This multi-award-winning book will help in-house communications staff be more effective while sticking to their budgets. Addressed to the Marketing Communications manager in small to medium-sized nonprofits, this book assumes that the reader has little formal knowledge of marketing. In plain language, it provides a hands-on reference that can be referred to frequently, providing checklists and actionable tips to make marketing easier and more effective. This second edition adds a new chapter on crisis communications management as well as updated information on social media and new tips on marketing automation. It also adds a full index.
