

MARKETS AND STATES IN TROPICAL AFRICA

The Political Basis of Agricultural Policies

WITH A NEW PREFACE

"Robert Bates's book manages the difficult task of speaking to the specialist and nonspecialist alike. It explains the historical, political, and economic roots of Africa's challenges. Best of all, it gives context to why easy prescriptions haven't worked in the past, and some hope for what might work in the future."

development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this handbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and Africa's contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists

Weil, 2016-09-23 Studies of African economic development frequently focus on the daunting challenges the continent faces From recurrent crises to ethnic conflicts and long standing corruption a raft of deep rooted problems has led many to regard the continent as facing many hurdles to raise living standards Yet Africa has made considerable progress in the past decade with a GDP growth rate exceeding five percent in some regions The African Successes series looks at recent improvements in living standards and other measures of development in many African countries with an eye toward identifying what shaped them and the extent to which lessons learned are transferable and can guide policy in other nations and at the international level The first volume in the series African Successes Governments and Institutions considers the role governments and institutions have played in recent developments and identifies the factors that enable economists to predict the way institutions will function

Nationalism and Conflict Management Eric Taylor Woods, Robert Schertzer, Eric Kaufmann, 2013-09-13 Ethno national conflict is one of the central issues of modern politics Despite the emergence of approaches to managing it from nation building to territorial autonomy in recent years the application of these approaches has been uneven Old conflicts persist and new ones continually emerge The authors of this book contend that what is needed to drive forward the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management is a more nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism The book addresses this issue by linking theories of ethnicity and nationalism to theories of conflict management Its contributors share a common goal of demonstrating that a nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism can beneficially inform conflict management in theory and practice To do so they analyse both hot and cold conflict zones as well as cases that have been important in the development of the most widely used conflict management models The book is aimed at those interested in the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management as well as the study of ethnicity and nationalism It is well suited for undergraduate and advanced research students experts and policy makers This book was originally published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

Development in Multiple Dimensions Alexander Lee,2019-02-01 Why do some states provide infrastructure and social services to their citizens and others do not In Development in Multiple Dimensions Alexander Lee examines the origins of success and failure in the public services of developing countries Comparing states within India this study examines how elites either control or are shut out of policy decisions and how the interests of these elites influence public policy He shows that social inequalities are not single but multiple creating groups of competing elites with divergent policy interests Since the power of these elites varies states do not necessarily focus on the same priorities some focus on infrastructure others on social services and still others on both or neither The author develops his ideas through quantitative comparisons and case studies focusing on four northern Indian states Gujarat West Bengal Bihar and Himachal Pradesh each of which represents different types of political economy and has a different set of powerful caste groups The evidence indicates that regional variation in India is a consequence of social differences and the impact of these differences on carefully considered distributional strategies rather than differences in ideology geography or institutions

The Entrepreneurial State in China Jane Duckett,2006-10-19 Jane Duckett describes in detail new state business activities in China and explains why they have appeared Using research on the northern city of Tianjin during the 1990s she argues that individual departments within the Chinese state are involved in the market economy through the establishment of their own businesses The book demonstrates that many of these businesses are genuinely entrepreneurial in the sense of profit seeking risk taking and productive rather than rent seeking speculative or profiteering This entrepreneurialism is an important new dimension of state activity in China with implications for our understanding of the Chinese state This book develops an alternative to the local government state model and emphasises instead the State s dynamic entrepreneurial role in the
