Marlborough And Eastern Wiltshire Wiltshire A History Of Its Landscape And People:

Marlborough and Eastern Wiltshire John Chandler, 2018-09-15 Marlborough and Eastern Wiltshire first published in hardback in 2001 offers succinct but informative and well researched histories of thirty four Wiltshire parishes from Aldbourne in the north to Tidworth in the south and Avebury in the west including Marlborough Ramsbury and Ludgershall These carefully crafted historical essays are complemented by exquisite specially commissioned illustrations by Michael Charlton as well as facsimiles of historical maps For everyone living in the Marlborough area of Wiltshire who is interested in their surroundings and for the region s many enthusiastic visitors this book now reissued in paperback for the first time will become an indispensable companion The Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Magazine ,2009 Greater Medieval Houses of England and Wales, 1300-1500: Volume 3, Southern England Anthony Emery, 2006-03-09 This is the third volume of Anthony Emery s magisterial survey Greater Medieval Houses of England and Wales 1300 1500 first published in 2006 Across the three volumes Emery has examined afresh and re assessed over 750 houses the first comprehensive review of the subject for 150 years Covered are the full range of leading homes from royal and episcopal palaces to manor houses as well as community buildings such as academic colleges monastic granges and secular colleges of canons This volume surveys Southern England and is divided into three regions each of which includes a separate historical and architectural introduction as well as thematic essays prompted by key buildings The text is complemented throughout by a wide range of plans and diagrams and a wealth of photographs showing the present condition of almost every house discussed This is an essential source for anyone interested in the history architecture and culture of medieval England and Wales Southern History ,2004 Sacred Landscapes in Antiquity Ralph Haussler, Gian Franco Chiaia, 2020-07-31 From generation to generation people experience their landscapes differently Humans depend on their natural environment it shapes their behavior while it is often felt that deities responsible for both natural benefits and natural calamities such as droughts famines floods and landslides need to be appeased We presume that in many societies lakes rivers rocks mountains caves and groves were considered sacred Individual sites and entire landscapes are often associated with divine actions mythical heroes and etiological myths Throughout human history people have also felt the need to monumentalize their sacred landscape But this is where the similarities end as different societies had very different understandings believes and practices The aim of this new thematic appraisal is to scrutinize carefully our evidence and rethink our methodologies in a multi disciplinary approach More than 30 papers investigate diverse sacred landscapes from the Iberian peninsula and Britain in the west to China in the east They discuss how to interpret the intricate web of ciphers and symbols in the landscape and how people might have experienced it We see the role of performance ritual orality textuality and memory in people s sacred landscapes A diachronic view allows us to study how landscapes were rewritten adapted and redefined in the course of time to suit new cultural political and religious understandings not to mention the impact of urbanism on people s understandings A key question is how was the landscape manipulated transformed and monumentalized especially the colossal investments in monumental architecture we see in certain socio historic contexts or the creation of an alternative humanmade seemingly non natural landscape with perfectly astronomically aligned buildings that define a cosmological order Sacred Landscapes therefore aims to analyze the complex links between landscape religiosity and society developing a dialectic framework that explores sacred landscapes across the ancient world in a dynamic holistic contextual and historical perspective

Wiltshire Folk Tales Kirsty Hartsiotis,2011-09-16 These lively and entertaining folk tales from one of Britain s most ancient counties are vividly retold by local storyteller Kirsty Hartsiotis Their origins lost in the oral tradition these thirty stories from Wiltshire reflect the wisdom of the county and its people From the Giant s Dance to the Great Western Railway no stone is left unturned to discover the roots of the county Discover the Moonraker s passages and Merlin s trickery dabchicks and the devil the flying monk of Malmesbury and a canal ghost story These tales have all stood the test of time and remain classic texts that will be enjoyed time and again by modern readers

Landscapes of Pilgrimage in Medieval Britain Martin Locker,2015-02-28 This book seeks to address the journeying context of pilgrimage within the landscapes of Medieval Britain Using four case studies an interdisciplinary methodology developed by the author is applied to four different geographical and cultural areas of Britain to investigate the practicalities of travel along the Medieval road network

Is There a British Chalcolithic? Michael J. Allen,Julie Gardiner,Alison Sheridan,2012-06-09 The Chalcolithic the phase in prehistory when the important technical development of adding tin to copper to produce bronze had not yet taken place is not a term generally used by British prehistorians and whether there is even a definable phase is debated Is There a British Chalcolithic brings together many leading authorities in 20 papers that address this question Papers are grouped under several headings Definitions Issues and Debate considers whether appropriate criteria apply that define a distinctive period c 2450 2150 cal BC in cultural social and temporal terms with particular emphasis on the role and status of metal artifacts and Beaker pottery Continental Perspectives addresses various aspects of comparative regions of Europe where a Chalcolithic has been defined Around Britain and Ireland presents a series of large scale regional case studies where authors argue for and against the adoption of the term The final section Economy Landscapes and Monuments looks at aspects of economy land use and burial tradition and provides a detailed consideration of the Stonehenge and Avebury landscapes during the period in question The volume contains much detailed information on sites and artifacts and comprehensive radiocarbon datasets that will be invaluable to scholars and students studying this enigmatic but pivotal episode of British Prehistory Additional information originally found on included CD ROM can be downloaded here https://books.casematepublishers.com/Is\_There\_a\_British\_Chalecolithic.pdf
