The Making of Strategy Williamson Murray,1996-05-31 Most writing about strategy has focused on individual strategic theorists or great military leaders This book focuses instead on the messy processes by which rulers and states have framed strategy in the past a subject of vital practical importance to strategists and of great interest to students of strategy and statecraft It consists of 17 case studies that range from fifth century Athens and Ming China to Hitler s Germany Israel and the post 1945 United States The studies analyse within a common interpretive framework precisely how rulers and states have made strategy The introduction emphasises the constants in the rapidly shifting world of the strategist the concluding
