Marlene Dumas Selected Works:

Marlene Dumas Marlene Dumas, Marlene Van Niekerk, 2005 This book contains numerous colour plates and illustrations of works on paper

Marlene Dumas: Myths & Mortals Marlene Dumas, 2019-06-18 Marlene Dumas's works respond more than ever to the uncertainty and sensuality of the painting process itself Allowing the structure of the canvases and the materiality of the paint greater freedom to inform the development of her compositions the artist has likened the creation of these works to the act of falling in love an unpredictable and open ended process that is as filled with awkwardness and anxiety as it is with bliss and discovery Myths Mortals documents a selection of paintings debuted in the spring of 2018 at David Zwirner New York ranging from monumental nude figures to intimately scaled canvases that present details of bodily parts and facial features Several nearly ten foot tall paintings focus on individual figures including a number of male and female nudes and a seemingly solemn bride whose expression is obscured behind a floor length veil Like the Greek gods and goddesses the figures in these paintings are at once larger than life and overwhelmingly human The smaller scale paintings referred to by the artist as erotic landscapes present a variety of fragmentary images eyes lips nipples or lovers locked in a kiss Evident across all of these works is the artist's uniquely sensitive treatment of the human form and her constantly evolving experimentation with color and texture Alongside these paintings Dumas presents an expansive series of thirty two works on paper originally created for a Dutch translation of William Shakespeare's narrative poem Venus Adonis 1593 by Hafid Bouazza 2016 Myths Mortals is accompanied by new scholarship on the artist by Claire Messud and a text by Dumas herself

David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea London the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery With contributions by Richard Shiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long term commitment to artists moral and ethical questions in his paintings and the heritage of Charles Baudelaire and Clement Greenberg in critical responses to Manet Through these and other analyses this volume illuminates the scope of Manet's career and indicates the crucial position the artist held in generating a modernist avant garde aesthetic Art in the Offertorium Harvey Giesbrecht, Charles Levin, 2012-01-01 This book proposes a new approach to the problem of aesthetic experience in Western culture Noting how art world phenomena evoke conventional psychoanalytic speculations about narcissism the authors turn the tables and apply aesthetic questions and concerns to psychoanalytic theory Experimenting with Freudian and post Freudian concepts they propose a non normative theory of the psychic drive to address and embrace deep tensions in the post Renaissance aesthetic project the rise of modernism and the contemporary art world It is argued that these tensions reflect central conflicts in the development of patriarchal civilization which the emergence of the aesthetic domain as a specialized range of practice exposes and subverts The postmodern era of aesthetic reflection is interpreted as the outcome of a complex narcissistic dialectic of idealization and de idealization that is significant for the understanding of contemporary culture and its historical prospects The Artistic Sphere Roger D. female autonomy and patriarchal violence and extremism as the essence of art The Beauty of Choice pursues its claims through a striking diversity of examples Sei Shonagon's defense of pleasure in the Pillow Book Picasso's and Balthus's sexualization of their models the redefinition of waste in postmodern fiction and interactivity and empathy in the works of contemporary artists such as Marlene Dumas Barbara MacCallum Kristin Beeler and Hannah Gadsby It offers the first critical study of Heroines a memorial to the twenty thousand women raped in Kosovo during the Serbian genocide This deeply original book gives taste beauty and pleasure central roles in a passionate defense of women's freedom Ethics and the Arts Paul Macneill, 2014-05-12 This book proposes that the highest expression of ethics is an aesthetic It suggests that the quintessential performance of any field of practice is an art that captures an ethic beyond any literal statement of values This is to advocate for a shift in emphasis away from current juridical approaches to ethics ethical codes or regulation toward ethics as an aesthetic practice away from ethics as a minimal requirement toward ethics as an aspiration The book explores the relationship between art and ethics a subject that has fascinated philosophers from ancient Greece to the present It explores this relationship in all the arts literature the visual arts film the performing arts and music It also examines current issues raised by hybrid artists who are working at the ambiguous intersections between art bio art and bioethics and challenging ethical limits in working with living materials In considering these issues the book investigates the potential for art and ethics to be mutually challenged and changed in this meeting The book is aimed at artists and students of the arts who may be interested in approaching ethics and the arts in a new way It is also aimed at students and teachers of ethics and philosophy as well as those working in bioethics and the health professions It will have appeal to the general educated reader as being current of considerable interest and offering a perspective on ethics that goes beyond a professional context to include questions about how one approaches ethics in one's own life and practices Formes de Cohabitation Roel Arkesteijn, 2006 Spaced Out, 1999 South African Artists at Home Paul Duncan, 2015-05-04 An artist's canvas reflects the face he chooses to show to the world but the place in which that art is made is seldom revealed Paul Duncan was given unparalleled access into the homes and lives of fourteen of South Africa's most revered artists Over countless mugs of coffee or glasses of wine he listened and observed as they spoke about their lives loves and the way they make their art South African Artists at Home takes the reader into some very private spaces affording us a glimpse of what the artist goes home to at the end of the day For some the work space and home space are irrevocably intertwined For others home is a sanctuary Or perhaps it is the studio that is the sanctuary and home is where real life happens Either way if you have an interest in art artists and the often bizarre way that making art intersects with living life you'll find this book intriguing The Collected Works of Harold Clurman Harold Clurman, 2000-02 Applause Books For six decades Harold Clurman illuminated our artistic social and political awareness in thousands of reviews essays and lectures His work appeared indefatigably in The Nation The New Republic The London Observer The New York Times Harper's Esquire New York Magazine and more The Collected
