The Kin Who Count Margaret L. Meriwether, 2010-07-05 The history of the Middle Eastern family presents as many questions as there are currently answers Who lived together in the household Who married whom and for how long Who got a piece of the patrimonial pie These are the questions that Margaret Meriwether investigates in this groundbreaking study of family life among the upper classes of the Ottoman Empire in the pre modern and early modern period Meriwether recreates Aleppo family life over time from records kept by the Islamic religious courts that held jurisdiction over all matters of family law and property transactions From this research she asserts that the stereotype of the large patriarchal patrilineal family rarely existed in reality Instead Aleppo's notables organized their families in a great diversity of ways despite the fact that they were all members of the same social class with widely shared cultural values acting under the same system of family law She concludes that this had important implications for gender relations and demonstrates that it gave women more authority and greater autonomy than is usually acknowledged

Missing Links in Marriages & Families Journey Dr. Annie Ravhudzulo, 2019-05-10 There is something different about this book Many couples are confused about how to find the will of God for their lives marriages and families Do you desire for more intimacy and passionate linking Do you miss the feeling of togetherness that you and your spouse felt when you first met As a couple is it a problem for you to communicate openly Are you scared that being honest will hurt each other's feelings Maybe you are feeling discouraged by stubborn arguments over apparently irrelevant issues Alternatively perhaps you have begun to feel like you have fallen out of love Do you want to have more sex or less sex than your spouse does If you have had an affair or if you have been hurt by your spouse's infidelity you might be feeling uncertain if and how you can settle your feelings and be able to relink and connect Remember you are the person to initiate that take heart Unless you learn to identify broken and missing links that disengage you from your marriage and family you will continue to live in a relationship of finishing life together because of the children you have In order for strong intimacy and deep connection to take place forget about the lies of the devil false messages and cracks around your heart This is the foundation of rediscovering the joy of a broken heart in your life marriage and family A Pure and Forgiving Heart will Restore the Joy of your Broken and Missing Links to cover your physical intellectual spiritual and emotional aspect of your life
