and I Can't Get Up Liz Curtis Higgs, 1998 Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 You Can Be Anything You Want to Be! Claudia Sellin, 2019-04-05 Being a fan of humorist and author Erma Bombeck and enjoying her take on life the author has brought her own style and insight to everyday situations and life moments from a Baby Boomer's perspective For example do you feel invaded by a doctor prescribed colonoscopy Does exercise in general make you feel there has to be a better way to lose weight and feel good Does dealing with people sometimes leave you feeling like chewing glass would be less grating Or that being dragged by a horse could certainly give you a new appreciation for life in general Do others' opinions leave you feeling incompetent as to what you want to do with your life And if death or divorce enters the stage do you feel divided dissected and defeated These and more of life's little surprises along with original poetry born from some of those experiences and observations await you in You Can Be Anything You Want To Be Says Who Merry Wives and Others Penelope Fritzer, Bartholomew Bland, 2010-06-28 In many ways the history of domestic humor writing is also a history of domestic life in the twentieth century For many years domestic humor was written primarily by females significant contributions from male writers began as times and family structures changed It remains timeless because of its basis on the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children houses and inhabitants pets and their owners chores and their doers and neighbors This work is a historical and literary survey of humorists who wrote about home It begins with a chapter on the social context of and attitudes toward traditional domestic roles and housewives The following chapters beginning with the 1920s and continuing through today cover the different time periods and the foremost American domestic humorists and the humor written by surrogate parents grown children about their childhood families husbands and Canadian and English writers Also covered are the differences among various writers toward traditional domestic roles some like Erma Bombeck and Judith Viorst embraced them while others like Caryl Kristenson and Marilyn Kentz resisted them Common themes such as the isolation and competitiveness of housework home as an idealized metaphysical goal and ongoing physical challenge and the urban suburban and rural life are also explored Leaking Laffs Between Pampers and Depends,

A Truly Terrific Grandparent Annette Heinrich LaPlaca, 2000-03 This delightful gift book is for the grandparent who has everything: a little treasury of humor, wisdom and inspiration from both classic and popular writers.

A Shared Experience Laura Mccall, Donald Yacovone, 1998-08 For decades women's history has been one of the most dynamic fields in all of American history. More recently the study of manhood has drawn the attention of scholars, students and general readers. Despite the obvious intersections of female and male gender roles the nineteenth century doctrine of separate spheres has dominated historical inquiry. The shared experiences and complementary lives of men and women have rarely been considered. This important new anthology reflecting recent trends in the history of men and women calls for the reintegration of the study of gender. Only by focusing on the similarities as well as the differences in the lives of men and women can we achieve a fully representative portrait. The essays in this exciting collection, most commissioned exclusively for this book, cover American history from colonial times to the present, representing multicultural and interdisciplinary scholarship at its most persuasive. Combining compelling subjects and thorough research, the contributors represent an appealing mix of established authors and new scholars. A lively blend of experience and innovation, A Shared Experience marks an important step in the development of American history and the burgeoning field of gender studies.

Extraordinary Marriage Rodney Wilson, 2004

Living Somewhere Between Estrogen and Death Barbara Johnson, 1997-03-06 Barbara Johnson reveals her hilarious anti-aging remedy. Living Somewhere Between Estrogen and Death is your wise and witty guide to the joys and challenges of aging gleefully. They say the best way to grow old is not to be in a hurry about it and Lord knows I've put it off for as long as I could, says Barbara. But old age happens without any effort on our part. If you're alive you're getting older. So what happens when you find yourself between menopause and LARGE PRINT? This best-selling author offers a delightful recipe for living life to the fullest in your later years and spices it with loads of laughter. She shows how she came to her own decision to age ferociously instead of gracefully. From savoring the here and now to preparing for our glorious future in heaven, Living Somewhere Between Estrogen and Death is a lighthearted and encouraging book on the joys and problems of growing older. You'll laugh at Barbara Johnson's zany insights on aging.
