Marriage Perversion And Power The Construction Of Moral Discourse In Southern Rhodesia 1894 193:

Hunting Africa Angela Thompsell, 2015-10-12 This book recovers the multiplicity of meanings embedded in colonial hunting and the power it symbolized by examining both the incorporation and representation of British women hunters in the sport and how African people leveraged British hunters dependence on their labor and knowledge to direct the impact and experience of hunting

Contact Zones Myra Rutherdale, Katie Pickles, 2007-10 This provocative book examines how women were uniquely positioned at the axis of the colonial encounter the so called contact zone between Aborigines and newcomers

Marriage, Perversion, and Power Diana Jeater, 1993 A history of sexuality and gender relations in colonial Africa this work examines African marriage relationships in southern Rhodesia Combining historical and anthropological approaches it analyzes colonial ideology its contradictions and its effects on the people of southern Rhodesia

Gender and Power in Irish History Maryann Gialanella Valiulis, 2009 This collection of articles poses the question What can gender history add to the traditional narrative of Irish history How can it help us to understand the ways in which power operated in and flowed through Irish society It is premised on the assumption that men and women are actors in the creation of their society influenced by the ideology of the period but also challenging and resisting the assumptions and beliefs of their era The articles included in this collection are far ranging and thematically diverse united by the common theme of gender While women play a dominant role in its pages it makes visible the power and presence of men Sometimes implicit sometimes explicit the history written on these pages is a history of the ways in which women and men constructed negotiated and made visible the roles ideas and representations that governed their particular society In so doing it provides an alternative reading to the traditional narrative of Irish history This book focuses mainly on the modern period and includes two articles from outside of Ireland which provides a comparative focus It also includes a theoretical introductory section on the nature of gender history from three leading Irish historians
