The Culturalization of Caste in India Balmurli Natrajan,2011-07-20 In India caste groups ensure their durability in an era of multiculturalism by officially representing caste as cultural difference or ethnicity rather than as unequal descent based relations Challenging dominant social theories of caste this book addresses questions of how caste survives the system that gave rise to it and adapts to new demands of capitalism and democracy Based on original fieldwork the book shows how the terrain of culture captured by a new grammar of caste revitalizes castes as cultural communities so that the culture of a caste is produced organized and naturalized in the process of transforming jati fetishized blood and kinship into samaj fetishized culture Castes are shown to not be homogenous cultural wholes but sites of hegemony where class gender and hierarchy over determine the meanings and materiality of caste Arguing that there exists a new casteism in India akin to a new racism in the USA built less on biology and descent and more on purported cultural differences and their rights to exist the book presents an extended critique and a search for an alternative view of caste and anti casteist politics It is of interest to students and scholars of South Asian culture and society The Rules(TM) for Marriage Ellen Fein,Sherrie Schneider,2007-11-01 You did the Rules And They Worked You captured the heart of your Mr Right and are at the very least and sexual rights formal religions especially Islam are seen as barriers providing institutional and ideological resistance to women's realization of reproductive and social autonomy This book challenges this simplified view of Islam Based on original fieldwork in Eastern Indonesia the book explores the complex factors that affect how young Indonesian women form their sexual subjectivities discusses the cultural and historical conditions under which single Muslim women repress or express their sexuality and examines how the cultural context including other factors besides Islam simultaneously influence the ways in which young single women approach courtship and issues of sexuality and reproductive health It demonstrates that Islam is neither alone in trying to control female sexuality nor entirely successful in doing so Law, Religion and Love Paul Babie, Vanja-Ivan Savić, 2017-09-01

Increasingly the modern neo liberal world marginalises any notion of religion or spirituality leaving little or no room for the sacred in the public sphere While this process advances the conservative and harmful behaviours associated with some religions and their adherents exacerbate this marginalisation by driving out those who remain religious or spiritual And all of this is seen through the lens of social science which seems to agree that religion remains important if not in spiritual sense at least as a source of folklore and a means of identification religions remain rooted in the societies from which they emerged and the legal systems of many of those societies emerged from religious sources even if those societies remain unwilling to admit that fact In the modern materialistic world of conformity religion is less a source of guidance than a label of identification The world therefore faces two issues First the decreasing level of spirituality in the West widens the gap between worshippers and those who have left their faith eg agnostics and atheists or those who look at religion as a matter of picking and choosing from a range of options And second the strong connections to religion which remain in many nations but which are often misused in the secular public sphere both in the West and internationally In such divided worlds both religious and secular forces tend to lock themselves into closed groupings of pure truth and in so doing increase the level of disagreement in turn producing radicalism In short the modern world is divided in two ways between religious and non religious although some have argued that the non religious secular is itself a form of civil religion and between those subscribing to divergent understandings of the same religious tradition While hyperbolic and histrionic the term culture wars nonetheless best captures what we see happening in the public sphere today The question emerges then how best to accommodate the democratic principle which posits that the majority should feel that it lives in a society of its own with the human rights principle holding that is necessary to ensure the full protection of the minority's rights How to balance these seemingly opposed principles We are very familiar with the differences that appear between secular and sacred in the modern world yet what of the similarities amongst scriptures and laws which seek to encourage mutual understanding cooperation and even cohabitation Because religion itself is a source of law a set of exhortations or commands as much as a set of rights every major religion offers an approach to encountering the Other in a positive constructive affirming way and it is here that religions reveal much that they have in common This book draws together the work of scholars engaged in exploring the possibilities for a utopian world in the sense fostered by St Thomas More The essays explore those dimensions of religious and civil law where love however that is defined by relevant texts fosters and encourages acceptance of the Other and will offer perspectives on the ways in which religious or civil state law command one to act in the spirit of love Jean François Lyotard: Ethics Victor E. Taylor, Gregg Lambert, 2006 Hitchcock as

Philosopher of the Erotic Richard Gilmore, 2024-06-07 This book reads Alfred Hitchcock as a philosopher of what constitutes the erotic The author argues that Hitchcock is doing a post Nietzschean postmodern kind of philosophy in which he is exploring and creating possibilities of what the erotic can feel like and how the erotic can be expressed The erotic is a pervasive phenomenon in Hitchcock's films It involves irony play and sophistication and there can be erotic failures as well as erotic successes The erotic is most complexly explored by Hitchcock in his two masterpieces from the 1950s Vertigo 1958 a story of the failure of the erotic and North by Northwest 1959 in which the erotic is consummated in marriage The author argues that Hitchcock has a philosophical theory about what makes the difference It is a version of existential philosophy that understands what a person is to be based on what they make of themselves through their choices The author argues that the erotic for Hitchcock is a process of mutual reciprocal creation of the personality of the other person This process is complicated by the fact that as one attempts to create the person one desires one is simultaneously being created by that other person and so what one desires is also in a process of being recreated in the mutual reciprocal dance of the erotic entanglement There is a moral dimension to this because erotic failure is in a way a failure of the human not in the sense of a human essence but in the sense of realizing human possibilities that can make our lives more satisfying complete and full Hitchcock as Philosopher of the Erotic will appeal to scholars and advanced students working on philosophy of film film studies and philosophy of love and sex Modern European cinema and love Richard Rushton, 2023-05-23 Modern European cinema and love examines nine European directors whose films contain stories about romantic love and marriage The directors are Jean Renoir Ingmar Bergman Alain Resnais Michelangelo Antonioni Agnès Varda François Truffaut Federico Fellini Jean Luc Godard and Eric Rohmer The book approaches questions of love and marriage from a philosophical perspective applying the ideas of authors such as Stanley Cavell Leo Bersani Luce Irigaray and Alain Badiou while also tracing key concepts from Freudian psychoanalysis Each of the filmmakers engages deeply with notions of modern love and marriage often in positive ways but also in ways that question the institutions of love marriage and the couple Game
