Elizabeth Peters, Claire M. Kamp Dush, 2009-07-16 Family life has been radically transformed over the past three decades Half of all households are unmarried while only a quarter of all married households have kids A third of the nation s births are to unwed mothers and a third of America s married men earn less than their wives With half of all women cohabitating before they turn thirty and gay and lesbian couples settling down with increasing visibility there couldn t be a better time for a book that tracks new conceptions of marriage and family as they are being formed The editors of this volume explore the motivation to marry and the role of matrimony in a diverse group of men and women They compare empirical data from several emerging family types single co parent gay and lesbian among others to studies of traditional nuclear families and they consider the effect of public policy and recent economic developments on the practice of marriage and the stabilization or destabilization of family Approaching this topic from a variety of perspectives including historical cross cultural gendered demographic socio biological and social psychological viewpoints the editors highlight the complexity of the modern American family and the growing indeterminacy of its boundaries Refusing to adhere to any one position the editors provide an unbiased account of contemporary marriage and family Journey to Adulthood Chin-Chun Yi, Ming-Chang Tsai, 2023-01-06 Young people in East Asia are increasingly experiencing a prolonged transition to adulthood They are spending longer in school entering the labour market later and getting married later still This protracted young adulthood interacts with forces of both tradition and modernization as social and economic changes generate profound effects on the transition from school to work on family formation on personal relationships and on subjective well being Journey to Adulthood explores the special characteristics of young adulthood in East Asia It uses Taiwan as illustrative example with comparative findings from its East Asian neighbours Japan Korea and Hong Kong It describes the particular growth context of a millennial generation and the challenges they face as they attempt to balance family formation personal development and entry into a market economy Edited by Chin Chun Yi and Ming Chang Tsai this collection helps us to understand the structural configurations East Asian young adults collectively represent Taking a cross cultural and comparative perspective it enables meaningful policy suggestions on family dynamics educational strategy and health and well being across the globe Dr Chin Chun Yi and Dr Ming Chang Tsai both work within the Institute of Sociology Research Center for Humanities and Social Sciences Academia Sinica Taiwan Selected Readings in Marriage and Family Lorene H. Stone,1999 This book is a collection of readings that reflect the various opinions that exist in our society concerning marriage and family diversity Readings in the Marriage and Family Experience Bryan Strong,Christine DeVault,Barbara W. Sayad,1997-11-26 This expanded reader contains articles essays excerpts from books journals magazines and newspapers on the topic of marriage and family They have all been carefully selected for their diverse and stimulating content To encourage discussion and introspection critical thinking questions are included for each reading Renegade Kids, Suburban Outlaws Wayne S. Wooden,Randy Blazak,2001 Topics covered include exploring boundary between deviance and criminality in the lives of young people who are deeply involved in the youth culture show how youth culture is not a set of categories so much as it is a dynamic and creative response to the confusions of growing up in modern society Getting Real About Inequality Cherise A. Harris,Stephanie M. McClure,2022-01-07 Getting Real About Inequality is a contributed reader for undergraduate courses in Race Class Gender Social Inequality or the Social Construction of Difference and Inequality It gives instructors in these courses a set of materials to help them moderate civil productive and social science based discussions with their students about social statuses and identities Like the book it is modeled after Getting Real About Race it is organized around myths and stereotypes that students might already believe or be familiar with through the media or popular culture A panel of expert contributors were enlisted to write short accessible essays address the same questions What is the myth or stereotype under investigation How do we know that the myth or stereotype is widespread What does the empirical data tell us and provide the same pedagogical features a summary of the research data discussion questions suggestions for further study suggested activities and assignments All of pieces in the book employ an intersectional perspective to help students see the nuanced mechanisms of power and inequality that are often lost in everyday discourse Understanding Marriage, Family, and Intimate Relationships Jerry D. Lehman,2005 This introductory textbook is for students who are interested in learning about and establishing healthy marriage family and intimate relationships With divorce rates high and relationships fragile books and courses are needed that help students address important issues regarding relationships The readers of this text examine many important and relevant issues through the lens of theory and research and do so using a written format that is readable understandable and easy to apply to one s life It was written so that each chapter has information that readers will find helpful as they attempt to establish and maintain meaningful healthy relationships There are questions throughout each chapter that help readers focus not only on the material but also on how the material relates to their present and past relationship and family situations The text provides material on the research of

John Gottman the object relations theory of Harville Hendrix the solution focused approach of Michele Weiner Davis and the PREP approach to conflict management of Markman Stanley and Blumberg These and other topics discussed are very relevant to students concerns and are addressed in greater depth than found in most other texts The emphasis is not just on couple relationships but also on family relationships Therefore in this book there is extensive coverage of family systems theory and the influence of family rules and family structure on the development of families There is also material on how change produces transitions in family life that must be assimilated into the family structure for example when a couple has their first child Thus both couple and family issues are addressed throughout the book For instructors who want to focus their courses on marriage family and intimate relationships this book would be an ideal choice A study guide for students and instructional material for instructors can be obtained by visiting www.understandingrelationships.net Family Life Now Kelly J. facing family law and policy round the world The chapters apply legal sociological demographic and social work research to explore the most significant issues that have been commanding the attention of family law policymakers in recent years Featuring contributions from renowned global experts the book draws on multiple jurisdictions and offers comparative analysis across a range of countries The book addresses a range of issues including the role of the state in supporting families and protecting the vulnerable children s rights and parental authority sexual orientation same sex unions and gender in family law and the status of marriage and other forms of adult relationships It also focuses on divorce and separation and their consequences the relationship between civil law and the law of minority groups refugees and migrants and the movement of family members between jurisdictions along with assisted conception surrogacy and adoption This advanced level reference work will be essential reading for students researchers and scholars of family law and social policy as well as policymakers in the field

The Oxford Handbook of Family Policy Over the Life Course Mary Daly,Birgit Pfau-Effinger,Neil Gilbert,Douglas J. Besharov,2023 Drawing on a multidisciplinary group of experts from many countries this Handbook is intended to be a reference work that provides students and scholars in policy related disciplines a wide ranging perspective on the diverse ways that family policies respond to modern issues and trends over the life course The Handbook is divided into two main parts The first part offers a panoramic introduction to the setting and issues which contemporary family policies have been designed to address The second part and main body of the volume is organized around four benchmark periods that encompass the main stages of the family life cycle and social policies that are called into play during these stages

Statutes of California and Digests of Measures California,2001 Selected Chapters from Sex, Self and Society Tracey L. Steele,2004 Muslim Women and Islamic Family Law Islam Uddin,2025-03-18 This book investigates the practice of Islamic family law among Muslim women in a minority context Muslims living as a minority often practise Islamic family law in a private capacity following customary laws from their countries of origin The invocation and operation of law in this context is however understudied and little understood In response this book provides an empirical study of the practice of Islamic family law in Britain The book analyses the lived experiences of Muslim women and their interactions with the processes of marriage and divorce Focusing centrally on Muslim women s agency and legal consciousness the book is based on in depth interviews with Muslim women and with relevant professionals as well as observations of Sharia Council hearings and the analysis of related documentation The book thus offers a rich and nuanced account of how Muslim women currently navigate marriage marital discord dispute resolution divorce and post divorce offering insights that will better facilitate just outcomes for them This book will be of interest to scholars students and researchers in the fields of Islamic family law in minority contexts as well as legal practitioners policymakers and community activists working in this area

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Marvin B. Sussman,Suzanne K. Steinmetz,Gary W. Peterson,2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p Resources in Education ,1998

Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera,2021-03-12 Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility Journal of the Senate, Legislature of the State of California California.
