doctrine is contextualized There is a growing gap between the ethics of many Christians and those of wider society So Christians have to be counter cultural But the church also has to be self critical differentiating between biblical revelation and cultural development And it must know how to present unchanging Christian convictions to a constantly changing society The contributors are Andy Angel Daniel Block Rosalind Clarke Barry Danylak Andrew Goddard Stephen Holmes David Instone Brewer A T B McGowan Nicholas Moore Onesimus Ngundu Oliver O Donovan Ian Paul Andrew Sloane Katy Smith Elaine Storkey and Sarah Whittle Narrative and Identity Arthena E. Joseph Raj, Drawing from years of research and theological reflection this work challenges contemporary leaders to move beyond power driven leadership to a model that prioritizes service responsibility and God centered governance Whether you are a pastor executive or aspiring leader this book offers a biblically grounded roadmap to lead with wisdom and purpose A Biblical Worldview on Racism Andrew Wommack, 2024-07-02 Cultural and historical revisions present America as a nation that always has been and always will be racist Is that true What are the real roots of racism Is there an answer to the problem of racism Stop being deceived by popular narratives Dig into the history of racism by looking at historical facts and biblical truths When you recognize the lies you will be prepared to share the truth that sets people free This teaching shows how to identify the root cause of racism You will recognize that Christians are uniquely positioned to offer the solution to racism the person of Jesus Christ

The Family in Life and in Death: The Family in Ancient Israel Patricia Dutcher-Walls, 2009-11-15 This volume explores the advantages of seeing a topic from two different but complementary perspectives All of the papers in the volume were read at two sessions at SBL 2005 and 2006 that were co sponsored by the Social Sciences and the Hebrew Bible Section of SBL and the American Schools of Oriental Research The sessions were designed to promote dialogue among scholars by juxtaposing research based in the social sciences and archaeology Scholars contributed papers from within their own methodological and research perspective but addressed possible interactions and overlaps that their research might contribute to the complementary perspective Significant intersections between the approaches emerged when patterns of social interactions accessed by social scientific methods paralleled patterns in material remains accessed by archaeological methods The sessions and thus the book achieve coherence because all of the papers attended to aspects of the family in ancient Israel While the presenters selected their own topics in the subject area several foci emerged that reflect current research interests in these fields These foci include research on ancestors and the cult of the dead configurations of family house structures and family relational interactions All of the papers make their methods and approaches visible and delineate clearly the textual or material basis of their research so that the dialogue among the papers is facilitated
