Kingdon, 2005-10-20 You would not expect this from his dour reputation but John Calvin transformed the Western understanding of sex marriage and family life In this fascinating even sensational volume John Witte and Robert Kingdon treat comprehensively the new theology and law of domestic life that Calvin and his fellow reformers established in sixteenth century Geneva Bringing to light and life hundreds of newly discovered cases and theological texts Witte and Kingdon trace the subtle historical forms and norms of sex marriage and family life that still shape us today

Hosea 2 Brad E. Kelle, 2005 The complex and at times violent metaphorical discourse of Hosea 2 has elicited a variety of interpretive approaches This study explores the text from the perspective of rhetorical criticism The classical conception of rhetoric as the art of persuasion and the function of metaphor within persuasive discourses and social settings correlate with the oracular characteristics of Hosea 2 and illuminate its use of specific metaphors A reading of Hosea 2 from this perspective proposes that the prophets of Israel may have functioned in a manner similar to the orators of ancient Greece who delivered extended rhetorical discourses designed to discern meaning in contemporary events and to persuade audiences This study offers a distinctively political reading of Hosea 2 that explores the text as a metaphorical and theological commentary on the political and religious dynamics in Israel at the close of the

A Treatise on Customary and Fundamental Laws of the Nagas in Nagaland Moatoshi Ao, 2019-07-11 Law is an indispensable tool to control and maintain equilibrium in the progress of a civil society towards a healthier civilization. The object of law, whether customary or statutory, is to regulate, protect and deliver justice. The variance between customary laws and the contemporary statutory laws has to be balanced by recognizing and satisfying the wants, desires and wishes of the society. The book is a legal work on the efficacy of Naga customary law in governance and judiciary. It begins with a legal investigation on the history of the Naga customary law and its Constitutional recognition. It then delves into the Naga customary administrative and judicial bodies and the legitimacy of its actions in the eye of statutory and formal laws. The present work also makes a legal examination of the customary ownership of land and its resources. Furthermore, it reflects on the contemporary social and legal issues emanating in the State of Nagaland and investigates the role of the executive, legislature and judiciary in harmonization and reconciliation. The appendix of the book contains important colonial documents on Naga history, colonial judgments, orders, pre-constitutional documents and important judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and High Court on Naga customary laws.

Female Husbands Jen Manion, 2020-03-26 Long before people identified as transgender or lesbian, there were female husbands and the women who loved them. Female husbands, people assigned female who transed gender, lived as men and married women were true queer pioneers. Moving deftly from the colonial era to just before the First World War, Jen Manion uncovers the riveting and very personal stories of ordinary people who lived as men despite tremendous risk, danger, violence and threat of punishment. Female Husbands weaves the story of their lives in relation to broader social, economic and political developments in the United States and the United Kingdom while also exploring how attitudes towards female husbands shifted in relation to transformations in gender politics and women's rights, ultimately leading to the demise of the category of female husband in the early twentieth century. Groundbreaking and influential, Female Husbands offers a dynamic, varied and complex history of the LGBTQ past.

Covenant and the Metaphor of Divine Marriage in Biblical Thought Sebastian R. Smolarz, 2010-10-14 In his commentary on Hosea, H. W. Wolff proposed that the divine marriage metaphor is the central metaphor of the entire OT. In Hebrew prophetic books, the metaphor reflected the covenantal relationship between Yahweh and his people. No other metaphor reached as deeply into the heart of this relationship or better described the tragedy of a broken relationship between Yahweh and his people. No other metaphor expressed more fully the abundance of God's grace shown in the promise of covenant restoration and renewal in the eschaton In this volume Polish Reformed academic Sebastian Smolarz demonstrates that the divine marriage metaphor is also one of the leading NT metaphors used to describe God's restored covenant relationship with his people especially in the Book of Revelation Smolarz argues for continuity between OT and NT concepts and theologies in general and for continuity between the Apocalypse and OT material in particular showing that the Apocalypse has much in common with other parts of the NT In doing so he focuses on some Gospel parables and reads them against their OT background He also examines instances of the divine marriage metaphor in Paul's theological reflections The focus of Smolarz volume is a covenantal reading of the Apocalypse He argues that the metaphor helps to establish the Apocalypse's Sitz im Leben which he relates to the main conflict between the faithful and the unfaithful within the people of God in the first century CE His work establishes that the Apocalypse contains not only explicit instances but also implicit references and many echoes of this covenantal metaphor
