www.destinyboaz.com Not One of Us Neil Clarke, 2018-11-06 Mankind comes face to face with extraterrestrial life in this short fiction reprint anthology from Clarke's World publisher Neil Clarke. They Are Strangers from Far Lands Science fiction writers have been using aliens as a metaphor for the other for over one hundred years. Superman has otherworldly origins and his struggles to blend in on our planet are a clear metaphor for immigration. Earth's adopted son is just one example of this Alien Among Us narrative. There are stories of assimilation or the failure to do so. Stories of resistance to the forces of naturalization. Stories told from the alien viewpoint. Stories that use aliens as a manifestation of the fears and worries of specific places and eras. Stories that transcend location and time speaking to universal issues of group identity and its relationship to the Other. Nearly thirty authors in this reprint anthology grapple both the best and worst aspects of human nature and they do so in utterly compelling and entertaining ways. Not One of Us is a collection of stories that aren't afraid to tackle thorny and often controversial issues of race, nationalism, religion, political ideology, and other ways in which humanity divides itself.

The 60-Something Crisis Barbara L. Pagano, 2022-08-17 Circumvent the tired and conventional approaches of finding purpose, passion, or happiness to discover a path of fulfillment after 60 by pursuing desires, mastering risk-taking, and expanding horizons with confidence. The crisis of unfulfilled lives unfolds gradually, often with acquiesced boredom and a flimsy search for purpose. Our relevancy comes into question or we succumb to the idea that the future will be one of slow-moving ambition and then an even slower glide into comfort as the flush of freedom fades. We can change this outcome if we want to. We should want to. The 60-Something Crisis: How to Live an Extraordinary Life in Retirement a 2023 Nautilus Book Award winner is the first book to circumvent the tired and conventional approaches of finding purpose, passion, or happiness or using reinvention to discover a path of fulfillment after 60. It presents a clear practical framework through four portals: geography of place, yield, kinship, and freedom to navigate and support future well-being and happiness. Readers will learn how to pursue desires, not roadmaps to increase self-confidence and master risk-taking and will discover the power and potential of investing in themselves at this time of life. Barbara L. Pagano provides the foundation for taking on or taking back late-stage growth and shifts the conversation from "What's next?" to "What do I need to know?" "What do I need to do now?" and "How soon can I get started?" This book is more than happy talk. Pre-retirees on the brink of a major life transition or retirees who want more from life will find themselves pulled toward a higher target of well-being that endures. Mature adults, now novices in an unfamiliar, uncharted landscape, will welcome a smart, well-written, practical, and poignant guide to hustle them forward, anchored in an award-winning author's deeply personal experience, well-researched content, and over 200 interviews with retirees and pre-retirees. The 60-Something Crisis offers a powerful message for the last third of life.
