Marrying Off Morgan McBride Amy Barry, 2024-03-06 Morgan McBride is tough as nails but a surprise mail order bride is enough to have him quaking in his cowboy boots in this laugh out loud historical romance The oldest of the McBride siblings Morgan has had to look after his siblings since Ma died and Pa ran off It hasn't always been easy especially when his heart longs for the solitude of the wide open road But now that his brother Kit is married and settled the time is right for Morgan to leave in search of adventure Little does he know that Junebug his hellcat of a little sister is dead set on keeping him at home all with one honest advertisement in The Matrimonial News Pip Hopgood has always been good at doing the wrong thing She's too tall too loud too opinionated and too contrary for polite society Staring down the barrel of spinsterhood she decides to answer a seemingly straightforward ad for a bride But when Pip shows up to meet her betrothed she finds that Morgan McBride is not the husband she expected In fact he doesn't even want to be a husband Unwilling to return to her unsupportive family Pip is determined to take control of her own future with or without Morgan McBride

Convergences Dr. Nabil M. Abdel-Al, 2017-05-25 This anthology is an amalgam of the authors output in the domains of interpretation translation and literary scholarship It is a serious attempt to highlight the cardinal traits common to said fields This research is a vested trek into the inner workings of the authors profession interpretation and translation as well as his standing engagement with literary genres throughout the ages The books uniqueness resides in treating a diversity of matters interrelated in various ways although on the surface it appears to make up a queer admixture of dissimilar elements hence the title Convergences Interpretation and translation are twin vocations and between them convergence is all encompassing Both transform a message from a source to a target language Complementary and mutually supportive as they are yet there is a train of difference in the execution of these two inseparable professions the method nature and techniques involved in each Interpretation is the instantaneous the simultaneous in a word the express mode of communication and translation is the meditative the slow or the local medium of correspondence Concomitantly literature is the crucible for teleologically permeable convergences and incredible divergences It has a noble ontological message and brings out humanity's hidden treasures experiences thoughts and choices Literatures lofty missive is grounded in understanding the scenes events and characters it depicts excerpts of which feed into discourses to be interpreted and translated Clients come up with multiple interpretations depending on circumstances and the context in which texts are couched

Marrying Off a Daughter Henry Gréville, 1878

Islamizing Intimacies Nancy J. Smith-Hefner, 2021-05-31 One of the great transformations presently sweeping the Muslim world involves not just political and economic change but the reshaping of young Muslims styles of romance courtship and marriage Nancy J Smith Hefner takes up the personal lives and sexual attitudes of educated Muslim Javanese youth in the city of Yogyakarta to explore the dramatic social and ethical changes taking place in Indonesian society Drawing on more than 250 interviews over a fifteen year period her vivid well crafted ethnography is full of insights into the real life struggles of young Muslims and framed by a deep understanding of Indonesia s wider debates on gender and youth culture The changes among Muslim youth reflect an ongoing if at times unsteady attempt to balance varied ideals ethical concerns and aspirations On the one hand growing numbers of young people show a deep and pervasive desire for a more active role in their Islamic faith On the other even as they seek a more self conscious and scripture based profession of faith many educated youth aspire to personal relationships similar to those seen among youth elsewhere a greater measure of informality openness and intimacy than was typical for their parents and grandparents generations Young women in particular seek freedom for self expression employment and social fulfillment outside of the home Smith Hefner pays particular attention to their shifting roles and perspectives because it is young women who have been most dramatically affected by the upheavals transforming this Muslim majority country Although deeply personal the changing aspirations of young Muslims have immense implications for social and public life throughout Indonesia The fruit of a longitudinal study begun shortly after the fall of the authoritarian New Order government and the return to democracy in 1998 1999 the book reflects Smith Hefner s nearly forty years of anthropological engagement with the island of Java and her continuing exploration into what it means to be both modern and Muslim The culture of the new Muslim youth the author shows through all its nuances and variations reflects the inexorable abandonment of traditions and practices deemed incompatible with authentic Islam and an ongoing and profound Islamization of intimacies

Marrying Off Mom Elisabet McHugh, 2016-10-23 When I was four years old I came from Korea to be adopted My new mother is a veterinarian and she is single as in never been married Although she's very organized at work she is hopeless at home If I wasn't here to take care of things I don't know what would happen to her She'd probably spend the rest of her life looking for her missing car keys or else starve to death because she forgot to cook Now I'm eleven In another seven years I'll leave for college and then who is going to take care of Mom By that time she will be thirty seven which is almost forty which is old and who would want to marry her then Probably nobody Which is why I have to find her a husband Soon A

Daughter's Guide to Mothers and Murder Dianne Freeman, 2025-06-24 In the latest USA Today bestselling Victorian Era set Countess of Harleigh Mystery from multi award winning author Dianne Freeman Frances Hazelton and her husband George uncover the secrets of backstage Paris to find out who's acting the role of a killer to chilling perfection Frances and George are enjoying some well deserved leisure time in Paris when an old acquaintance from London Alicia Stoke Whitney seeks Frances's help to investigate a personal matter Alicia's daughter is being courted by Carlson Deaver a wealthy American shadowed by a very suspicious tragedy Less than a year ago Carlson's wife a former actress was murdered her body discovered in one of the more dubious quarters in Paris Though authorities guess it was a robbery gone wrong no one was ever brought to justice Until Daniel Cadieux Inspector for the Sret follows a startling new lead None other Sarah Bernhardt legendary icon of the Paris stage receives a piece of jewelry stolen from the victim along with an incriminating note I know what you did It opens a new door for the Hazeltons investigation as well But not a soul believes that the Divine Sarah would become entangled in something so disreputable as murder even if she and the late Mrs Deaver did have a history of theatrical clashes Amid questions of revenge blackmail scandals and secrets more poisoned pen letters follow and suspects abound Now it's up to Francis and George to infiltrate the most elite social circles of Paris and find a culprit before another victim faces their final act A Lady Never Tells Lynn Winchester, 2019-09-23 Richard Downing may be a viscount of impeccable character but he's bored beyond belief of dancing at balls faking smiles and making dull conversation So when he stumbles upon a housemaid with defiance in her striking blue eyes and a dagger hidden in her skirts well color him intrigued Raised with a rather peculiar upbringing Lady Victoria Daring is full of secrets and surprises As part of His Majesty's personal homeland spy organization and as a master of disguises Vic is charged with infiltrating high society to uncover the enemies hiding in plain sight But Richard is the first man to see through her disguises and infiltrate deep into her heart Too bad his family is at the top of her list of suspects Nomadic Societies in the Middle East And North Africa Dawn Chatty, 2006 A volume devoted to an understanding of contemporary nomadic and pastoral societies in the Middle East and

North Africa It recognizes the variable mobile quality of the ways of life of these societies which accommodate the nation state but remain firmly transnational and highly adaptive

Women, Wealth, and Community in Perpignan, c.

1250-1300 Rebecca Lynn Winer, 2017-05-15 Women Wealth and Community in Perpignan c 1250 1300 investigates the gender system at work in medieval Perpignan Using a series of notarial registers unique as surviving records for the social history of the thirteenth century realms of Aragon and Majorca the political confederations to which this town belonged Rebecca L Winer opens a window onto the experiences of women and their families Her interpretive framework reveals medieval assumptions about the distinct natures of Christian Jewish and enslaved Muslim women by analyzing which actions were curbed controlled or fostered in these different groups Sensitive to questions of social rank and marital status the book departs from traditional women s history by asking how a woman s religious identity factored in determining her economic and legal options in this society As a frontier town Perpignan lends itself well to an analysis of relations among Christians Jews and Muslim slaves The later thirteenth century also provides an ideal focus for this inquiry since the politics of Christian expansion and the economics of the western Mediterranean meant that Jewish communities flourished In contrast Christian Muslim relations unfolded particularly tensely due to intermittent conflict and both groups slave trade almost exclusively in each other s people Winer reconstructs how the members of these three communities negotiated shared space conducting all manner of exchanges making endogamous marriages wills commercial contracts and arranging for the care of children whose fathers were lost to war or disease The first section of the book focuses on women s legal status work and control of financial resources in the two dominant communities Christian and Jewish across the social spectrum It goes on to compare the ways in which mothers relationships to their children were understood in the Christian and Jewish communities The book concludes by entering the homes of Christian

Helen with the High Hand Arnold Bennett, 1911 Helen With the High Hand Arnold Bennett, 2015-05-01 A hopelessly mismatched niece and uncle find themselves thrown together by circumstance But underneath their constant bickering and nitpicking the pair truly cares about each other Will this hilariously dysfunctional duo find a way to make their nontraditional household work

Moral Power Koen Stroeken, 2010-07-01 Neither power nor morality but both Moral power is what Sukuma farmers in Tanzania in times of crisis attribute to an unknown figure they call their witch A universal process is involved as much bodily as social which obstructs the patient s recovery Healers turn the table on the witch through rituals showing that the community and the ancestral spirits side with the victim In contrast to biomedicine their magic and divination introduce moral values that assess the state of the system and that remove the obstacles to what is taken as key self healing The implied sensory shifts and therapeutic effectiveness have largely eluded the literature on witchcraft This book shows how to comprehend culture other than through the prism of identity politics It offers a framework to comprehend the rise of witch killings and human sacrifice just as ritual initiation disappears

To Have and to Hold Larry E. Hudson, 2010-07-01 Looking closely at both the slaves and masters worlds in low middle and up country South Carolina Larry E Hudson Jr covers a wide range of economic and social topics related to the opportunities given to slaves to produce and trade their own food and other goods contingent on first completing the master's assigned work for the day In particular Hudson shows how these opportunities were exploited by the slaves both to increase their control over their family life and to gain status among their fellow slaves Filled with details of slaves social values family formation work patterns internal economies and domestic production To Have and to Hold is based on a wide variety of primary and secondary sources emphasizing wherever possible the recollections of former slaves Although their private world was never immune to intervention from the white world Hudson demonstrates a relationship between the agricultural productivity of slaves in family situations that range from simple to complex formations and the accumulation of personal property and social status within slave communities
