Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972      Environmental Archaeology Evangelia Pişkin, Arkadiusz Marciniak, Marta Bartkowiak, 2018-04-11 This book aims to thoroughly discuss new directions of thinking in the arena of environmental archaeology and test them by presenting new practical applications Recent theoretical and epistemological advancement in the field of archaeology calls for a re definition of the subdiscipline of environmental archaeology and its position within the practise of archaeology New technological and methodological discoveries in hard sciences and computer applications opened fresh ways for interdisciplinary collaborations thus introducing new branches and specialisations that need now to be accommodated and integrated within the previous status quo This edited volume will take the challenge and engage with contemporary international discussions about the role of the discipline within the general framework of archaeology By drawing upon these debates the contributors to this volume will rethink what environmental archaeology is and what kind of input the investigation of this kind of materiality has to the reconstruction of human history and sociality      Speaking of Epidemics in Chinese Medicine Marta Hanson, 2012-03-29 This book traces the history of the Chinese concept of Warm diseases wenbing from antiquity to the SARS epidemic Following wenbing from its birth to maturity and even life in modern times Marta Hanson approaches the history of Chinese medicine from a new angle She explores the possibility of replacing older narratives that stress progress and linear development with accounts that pay attention to geographic intellectual and cultural diversity By doing so her book integrates the history of Chinese medicine into broader historical studies in a way that has not so far been attempted and addresses the concerns of a readership much wider than that of Chinese medicine specialists The persistence of wenbing and other Chinese disease concepts in the present can be interpreted as resistance to the narrowing of meaning in modern biomedical nosology Attention to conceptions of disease and space reveal a previously unexamined discourse the author calls the Chinese geographic imagination Tracing the changing meanings of Warm diseases over two thousand years allows for the exploration of pre modern understandings of the nature of epidemics their intersection with this geographic imagination and how conceptions of geography shaped the sociology of medical practice and knowledge in late imperial China Speaking of Epidemics in

Walls and Mirrors David G. Gutiérrez,1995-03-27 Covering more than one hundred years of American history Walls and Mirrors examines the ways that continuous immigration from Mexico transformed and continues to shape the political social and cultural life of the American Southwest Taking a fresh approach to one of the most divisive political issues of our time David Gutiérrez explores the ways that nearly a century of steady immigration from Mexico has shaped ethnic politics in California and Texas the two largest U S border states Drawing on an extensive body of primary and secondary sources Gutiérrez focuses on the complex ways that their pattern of immigration influenced Mexican Americans sense of social and cultural identity and as a consequence their politics He challenges the most cherished American myths about U S immigration policy pointing out that contrary to rhetoric about alien invasions U S government and regional business interests have actively recruited Mexican and other foreign workers for over a century thus helping to establish and perpetuate the flow of immigrants into the United States In addition Gutierrez offers a new interpretation of the debate over assimilation and multiculturalism in American society Rejecting the notion of the melting pot he explores the ways that ethnic Mexicans have resisted assimilation and fought to create a cultural space for themselves in distinctive ethnic communities throughout the southwestern United States
