Martha Gellhorn Her Life And Times:

Martha Gellhorn Carl Rollyson,2000-12-01 Confessions of a Serial Biographer Carl Rollyson,2016-03-09 Some critics rank biographers just above serial murderers The author of this book a self described member of the Samuel Johnson school doesn't share this view An account of a life he believes should adhere to the truth as the biographer sees it not to the sentiments of others This memoir of a professional biographer's life tells the inside story of how he became interested in his subjects and reveals the mechanics of the trade how to assemble proposals for publishers conduct interviews and archival research and joust with editors subjects and their literary estates Other biographers have described their process but remained discrete not wishing to offend their sources and supporters This author has forgone such caution

Hemingway's Cats Carlene Fredericka Brennen,2015-09-01 Ernest

Hemingway always had cats as companions from the ones he adored as a child in Illinois and Michigan to the more than 30 he had as an adult in Paris Key West Cuba and Idaho All are chronicled and most are pictured here along with revelations of how they fit into the many twists and turns of his life and loves In 1943 Ernest Hemingway living in the Finca in Cuba with his third wife and eleven cats wrote to his first wife One cat just leads to another The place is so damned big it doesn't really seem as though there were many cats until you see them all moving like a mass migration at feeding time He called the cats purr factories and love sponges who soaked up love in return for comfort and companionship He gave each a name that suited its character including F Puss Fatso Friendless Feather Kitty Princessa Furhouse Uncle Woofer and his last cat in Idaho Big Boy Peterson You'll also meet his nine dogs a cow and a young great horned owl that he rescued not long before his death Hemingway's Cats reveals a softer side to the writer's character than is usually portrayed by the macho image of the hunter and fisherman He sought the cats' comfort in times of loneliness and stress and he featured some of them in his writings particularly in A Moveable Feast Islands in the Stream The Garden of Eden and True at First Light all written late in his life and as close to autobiography as he came

Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell, 2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self-portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H. G. Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter-connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France

On Their Own Joyce Hoffmann, 2008-06-24 Over three hundred women both print and broadcast journalists were accredited to chronicle America's activities in Vietnam Many of those women won esteemed prizes for their reporting including the Pulitzer the Overseas Press Club Award the George Polk Award the National Book Award and the Bancroft Prize for History Tragically several lost their lives covering the war while others were wounded or taken prisoner In this gripping narrative veteran journalist Joyce Hoffmann tells the important yet largely unknown story of a central group of these female journalists including Dickey Chapelle Gloria Emerson Kate Webb and others Each has a unique and deeply compelling tale to tell and vivid portraits of their personal lives and professional triumphs are woven into the controversial details of America's twenty year entanglement in Southeast Asia No Ordinary Time Doris Kearns Goodwin, 2013-11-05 Examines the distinct leadership roles of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt during the war years and discusses the dynamics of their marriage

Selected Letters of Martha Gellhorn Martha Gellhorn, Caroline Moorehead, 2024-05-01 A literary landmark that spans the author's complex life and career Gellhorn's prose is at its finest in the letter form Francine du Plessix Gray The New York Times Book Review Martha Gellhorn's reporting brought her to the front lines of virtually every significant conflict from the Spanish Civil War to the end of the cold war While Gellhorn's wartime dispatches rank among the best of the twentieth century her personal letters are their equal as vivid and fascinating as her reporting was trenchant Gellhorn's correspondence introduces us to the woman behind the often inscrutable journalist chronicling her friendships with world famous luminaries as well as her tempestuous marriage to Ernest Hemingway Caroline Moorehead Gellhorn's critically acclaimed biographer was granted exclusive access to the letters This expertly edited volume contextualizes Gellhorn's correspondence within the arc of her entire life the result is an intimate portrait of one of the most accomplished women of modern times A Washington Post Best Nonfiction Book of 2006 A Slate Best Book of 2006 A Kansas City Star Noteworthy Book of 2006 The New York Times Magazine , 1999 Hemingway's Cats Carlene Brennen, 2011-05-03 A revised edition for lovers of cats and literature Hemingway's Cats tell of the many cats the famed writer Ernest Hemingway had as a child to the more than 30 felines that this book chronicles in his adult life Filled with rare photos of the author and his cats Foreword by Hemingway's niece Gellhorn Caroline Moorehead, 2007-04-01 The first major biography of legendary war correspondent Martha Gellhorn whose life provides a unique and thrilling perspective on world history in an extraordinary time Martha Gellhorn's heroic career as a reporter brought her to the front lines of virtually every significant international conflict between the Spanish Civil War and the end of the Cold War The preeminent and often the only female correspondent on the scene she broke new ground for women in the male preserve of journalism Her wartime dispatches marked by a passionate desire to expose suffering in its many guises and an inimitable immediacy rank among the best of the twentieth century A deep seated love of travel complemented this interest in world affairs From her birth in St Louis in 1908 to her death in London in 1998 Gellhorn passed through Africa Cuba China and most of the great cities of Europe recording her experiences in first rate travel writing and fiction A tall glamorous blonde she made friends easily among the boldface names that populated her life were Eleanor Roosevelt Leonard Bernstein and H G Wells but she was as incapable of settling into comfortable long term relationships as she was of sitting still and happiness often eluded her despite her professional success Both of her marriages ended badly the first to Ernest Hemingway publicly so Drawn from extensive interviews and with exclusive access to Gellhorn's papers and correspondence this seminal biography spans half the globe and almost an

Double-Edged Sword Bart Paul, 2020-09 Sidney Franklin 1903-76 was the last person you'd expect to become a bullfighter The streetwise son of a Russian Jewish cop Sidney had an all American boyhood in early twentieth century Brooklyn while hiding the fact that he was gay A violent confrontation with his father sent him packing to Mexico City where first he opened a business then he opened his mouth bragging that Americans had the courage to become bullfighters Training with iconic matador Rodolfo Gaona Sidney's dare spawned a legend Following years in small town Mexican bullrings he put his moxie where his mouth was taking Spain by storm as the first American matador Sidney's 1929 rise coincided with that of his friend Ernest Hemingway's until a bull's horn in a most inappropriate place almost ended his career and his life Bart Paul illuminates the artistry and violence of the mysterious ritual of the bulls as he tells the story of this remarkable character from Franklin's life in revolutionary Mexico to his triumphs in Spain from the pages of Death in the Afternoon to the destructive vortex of Hemingway's affair with Martha Gellhorn during the bloody Spanish Civil War This is the story of an unlikely hero a gay man in the most masculine of worlds who triumphed over prejudice and adversity as he achieved what no American had ever accomplished teaching even Hemingway lessons in grace machismo and respect

Shadow Lovers UK Edition Andrea Lynn, 2019-12-06 Nearing 70 and in what would be the last decade of his life H G Wells fell in love at least three times once with the much younger Baroness Budberg and soon thereafter with two well born Americans Constance Coolidge and Martha Gellhorn 25 and 40 years his junior respectively These would constitute what Wells himself described as his last flounderings towards the wife idea and demonstrate in many ways that Wells was driven less by his considerable intelligence than by his obsession to find his ideal lover what he called his lover shadow This study looks at this very personal side of H G Wells The self proclaimed Don Juan was said to have radiated energy intellectual emotional physical and sexual Drawing on papers made public by the Wells estate the author documents Wells relationship with each of these femme fatales and paints a vivid portrait of the early part of the 20th century in London Paris and the US
