1865 1920 1990      The Power of Unearned Suffering Mika Edmondson, 2016-12-09 This book explores the roots and relevance of Martin Luther King Jr's approach to black suffering King's conviction that unearned suffering is redemptive reflects a nearly 250 year old tradition in the black church going back to the earliest Negro spirituals From the bellies of slave ships the foot of the lynching tree and the back of segregated buses black Christians have always maintained the hope that God could make a way out of no way and somehow bring good from the evils inflicted on them As a product of the black church tradition King inherited this widespread belief developed it using Protestant liberal concepts and deployed it throughout the Civil Rights Movement of the 50's and 60's as a central pillar of the whole non violent movement Recently critics have maintained that King's doctrine of redemptive suffering creates a martyr mentality which makes victims passive in the face of their suffering this book argues against that critique King's concept offers real answers to important challenges and it offers practical hope and guidance for how beleaguered black citizens can faithfully engage their suffering today      A More Perfect Union Linda Sargent Wood, 2012-10-18 This book uncovers a holistic sensibility in post World War II American culture that challenged Cold War logic and fed some of the century's most powerful social movements This impulse is illustrated by focusing on Rachel Carson Buckminster Fuller Martin Luther King Jr Abraham Maslow Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and the Esalen Institute      African American Jeremiad Rev David Howard-Pitney, 2009-09-02 An enduring verbal tradition links African American leaders from Frederick Douglass to Malcolm X to Alan Keyes      Liberating Visions Robert Michael Franklin, The four men spotlighted in this book together with other black religious and political leaders and communities have developed distinctive and significant traditions of moral thinking and social criticism Although the principal concern of these thinkers was social justice entailing significant institutional transformations in American society they were also attentive to the substantive content and formal character of the authentically free life and moral person Indeed most of them realized that authentic liberation required personal as well as social transformation Despite the significance and diversity of perspective in black theology however much of it does not adequately attend to the host of issues related to personal identity wholeness and fulfillment This general inattention to the personal dimension of the liberation enterprise has important consequences Failure to understand the person centered dimension of a broader inclusive societal transformation can lead to a disturbing paradox an optimism concerning the future of society existing alongside personal and familial disintegration despair and frustration Our method for correcting the perspectival imbalance in black theology is to identify the finest and most trusted resources and reflections on personal wholeness in the modern black community and to present them for revision reconsideration and possible reappropriation In this book I examine visions of human fulfillment and of the just society as presented by Booker T Washington 1856 1915 W E B Du Bois 1868 1963 Malcolm X 1925 1965 and Martin Luther King Jr 1929 1968 As I examined the ranks of post Reconstruction African American leaders I did so with an eye for those whose intellectual and political influence upon past and present Americans could be

Yang,2019-05-23 In the quiet recesses of my heart Dr Martin Luther King Jr often said I am fundamentally a clergyman a Baptist preacher No other statement could identify King better than this Thus the statement is the launching point for this work on preacher King's timeless messages on violence and reconciliation rooted in his theological foundation of the universal yet personal loving God Yang shows how King based on that theological idea vitalizes a pastoral and prophetic preaching voice hoping to create reconciliation in the context of a violent reality This concise piece is easily accessible yet rich enough to see the continuing impact and applicability of preacher King s reconciliatory ideas in the present violent torn apart world that desperately awaits reconciliation      The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought

Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min,2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects      Black Zion Yvonne Patricia Chireau,Nathaniel Deutsch,2000 This is an exploration of the interaction between African American religions and Jewish traditions beliefs and spaces The collection s argument is that religion is the missing piece of the cultural jigsaw and black Jewish relations need the religious roots of their problem illuminated

Religion in the Public Square James M. Patterson, 2019-04-11 Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public In Religion in the Public Square James M Patterson considers religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell differed profoundly on issues of theology and politics but they shared an approach to public ministry that aimed directly at changing how Americans understood the nature and purpose of their country From the 1930s through the 1950s Sheen was an early adopter of paperbacks radio and television to condemn totalitarian ideologies and to defend American Catholicism against Protestant accusations of divided loyalty During the 1950s and 1960s King staged demonstrations and boycotts that drew the mass media to him The attention provided him the platform to preach Christian love as a political foundation in direct opposition to white supremacy Falwell started his own church which he developed into a mass media empire He then leveraged it during the late 1970s through the 1980s to influence the Republican Party by exhorting his audience to not only ally with religious conservatives around issues of abortion and the traditional family but also to vote accordingly Sheen King and Falwell were so successful in popularizing their theological ideas that they won prestigious awards had access to presidents and witnessed the results of their labors However Patterson argues that Falwell's efforts broke with the longstanding refusal of religious public figures to participate directly in partisan affairs and thereby catalyzed the process of politicizing religion that undermined the Judeo Christian consensus that formed the foundation of American politics
