Martin Of Tours:

St. Martin of Tours Henri Ghéon, 1946      Martin of Tours Régine Pernoud, 2006 Regine Pernoud the highly acclaimed French medieval historian and author of best selling titles on Joan of Arc and Hildegard of Bingen as well as the book Those Terrible Middle Ages presents an enlightening biography of one of France's most revered saints and man whose impact on France and Europe continues to this day. Martin of Tours lived in the 4th century at that great turning point in history when the Roman Empire fell and the Church took charge in the West. He left a successful career in the military life to become a monk and later a Bishop who traveled extensively evangelizing the countryside and creating that particular sort of community life in a village that is now called a parish. More than four hundred towns and some four thousand parishes in France are named after St. Martin. The term chapel is derived from the actual church where pilgrims venerate Martin's cape or cloak. Martin of Tours was a servant of the common man as well as the nobility and a very humble man who responded to the needs of his times and opened up vast perspectives for ordinary everyday life. Given the crisis of the Christian Faith now facing France and all of Europe, the story of this solid and great apostle and Christian evangelist is a timely one indeed.

Andre Mertens, 2017 St. Martin of Tours is one of Christianity's major saints and his significance reaches far beyond the powerful radiance of his iconic act of charity. While the saint and his cult have been researched comprehensively in Germany and France, his cult in the British Isles proves to be fairly unexplored. Andre Mertens closes this gap for Anglo-Saxon England by editing all the age's surviving texts on the saint, including a commentary and translations. Moreover, Mertens looks beyond the horizon of the surviving body of literary relics and dedicates an introductory study to an analysis of the saint's cult in Anglo-Saxon England and his significance for Anglo-Saxon culture.      St. Hilary of Poitiers and St. Martin of Tours
