Martyred Christian 160 Readings:

The Martyred Christian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1983 Bonhoeffer Down Under Ian Packer, Gordon Preece, 2012-08-30

If Protestants had saints Dietrich Bonhoeffer martyred under Hitler on April 9 1945 just days before the Allies reached his concentration camp would be one of the first canonised Not just his unsought martyr's death but his life's movement from privilege to growing identification with the suffering his courageous return from the safety and beckoning success of the US to Germany his work with the Confessing Church and more controversially with the underground resistance in the plot to assassinate Hitler all argue his case for canonisation Bonhoeffer is among ten twentieth century martyrs above the Great West Door at Westminster Cathedral where their portraits of ten tell more about the artists and their age than the saint and theirs the movement of their lives and the movements they belonged to or founded This is certainly true of Bonhoeffer and the Church of his anguished age This collection of essays is from Down Under for with the exception of the paper by UK theologian Keith Clements are all the papers by writers who live and work in the southern hemisphere They include former Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd South African theologian John de Gruchy and a number of Australian writers These include papers by historian John Moses and theologians Gordon Preece Brian Rosner Bruce Barber Max Chamption and Neil Holm Kevin Rudd writes in this volume that Bonhoeffer is without doubt the man I admire most in the history of the twentieth century He was a man of faith He was a man of reason He was never a nationalist always an internationalist For tormented twenty first century humanity Bonhoeffer is still one of our best guides to that new humanity being birthed by the Spirit of Christ in the midst of those seeing from and suffering below

A Little Child Shall Lead Them Johann Christoph Arnold, 1997 Pastor and family counselor Johann Christoph Arnold calls parents to recognize that parenthood is more than duty but is designed by God to be a privilege and blessing and an aid to drawing us closer to Himself

Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer's theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer's political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer's malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking Unpopular Religion Erik Swenson, 2013-05-16 Christianity is unpopular Many have come to view Christianity as a religion of intolerance where judgmental people gather to build walls They have come to see it as an irrational worldview held by people who have rejected reason And they have come to believe that Christianity is mostly irrelevant offering nothing to a broken dying world In Unpopular Religion Erik Swenson suggests that these negative views of Christianity are misconceptions At the same time he believes that the misconceptions have formed because the church has often misrepresented Jesus Erik tries to reconcile Christianity to the culture by confessing wrongdoing while also clarifying wrong perceptions Good News About Injustice Gary A. Haugen, 2009-09-08 This expanded edition of Gary Haugen's powerful book brings up to date his work in calling for the body of Christ to act to seek justice through the world Here you will find truth encouragement and concrete guidance on how ordinary Christians can rise up to seek justice throughout the world The martyred Christian : 160 readings from Dietrich Bonhoeffer, selected and edited by Joan Winmill Brown Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1991 Scripture and Pluralism: Reading the Bible in the Religiously Plural Worlds of the Middle Ages and Renaissance Thomas Heffernan, Thomas E. Burman, 2005-10-01 The Mediterranean and Western European sphere in the Ancient Medieval and Early Modern Periods was a world of complex and deeply rooted religious Pluralism Jews various sects of Christians Muslims and pagans all lived side by side and interacted regularly The essays in this volume explore what happened when Christians read the Bible faced with the challenges posed by this religious pluralism Topics covered include early Christianity's use of the Bible under persecution Arab Christian Biblical study within the Islamic World Jewish Christian scholarly interaction in the Twelfth Century Renaissance and the role of late medieval vernacular editions of the Bible in paving the way for the Reformation Contributors include Thomas E Burman Andrew Gow Sidney H Griffith Thomas J Heffernan Frans van Liere E Ann Matter Bernard McGinn Constant J Mews Michael A Signer Lesley Smith and Anne Marie Wolf Practicing Hope Jerry M. Ireland, Michelle L. K. Raven, 2020-07-20 The greatest crisis is being separated from Christ In the constant swirl of human suffering the church has long wrestled with appropriate responses As crises come and go the need for the church's theological missiological and practical readiness remains so that people not only survive but thrive in the context of a crisis Practicing Hope brings together global scholars and practitioners who share and think broadly about the church's mission in a world rife with crises Rather than harmonizing the voices of the contributors to provide general guidelines for generic crisis response Practicing Hope allows the reader to hear multiple perspectives on complex issues such as sustainability empowerment human rights biblical principles and mission Dei mission of God These essays highlight that being separated from Christ is the focus that will keep the church from losing its raison d'être its reason for being This book provides a potent reminder that crises are not the end sometimes they are the beginning of something better In these chapters you will find stories of hope amid unimaginable darkness Practicing Hope describes what it really means not just in theory but in practice to be the salt of the earth and light of the world Matt 5:14-15

We hope that you will be inspired as Jesus said in the parable of the Good Samaritan to go and do likewise Good News About Injustice: 10th anniversary edition G HAUGEN, 2020-05-21 The good news about injustice is that God is against it God is in the business of using the unlikely to accomplish justice and mercy In this tenth anniversary edition of Gary Haugen's challenging and encouraging book he offers stories of courageous Christians who have stood up for justice in the face of human trafficking forced prostitution racial and religious persecution and torture This expanded edition brings up to date his work in calling for the body of Christ to act Throughout he provides concrete guidance on how ordinary Christians can rise up to seek justice throughout the world Early Christian Readings of Genesis One Craig D. Allert, 2018-07-24 Do the writings of the church fathers support a literalist interpretation of Genesis 1 Young earth creationists have maintained that they do But are we correctly representing the Fathers and their concerns This study from Craig Allert resets our understanding of early Christian interpretation and considers whether contemporary evangelicals may be more bound to modernity in our reading of Genesis 1 than we realize The Cumulative Book Index, 1900 A world list of books in the English language The Urban World and the First Christians Steve Walton, Paul Trebilco, David W. J. Gill, 2017 In the tradition of The First Urban Christians by Wayne Meeks this book explores the relationship between the earliest Christians and the city environment Experts in classics early Christianity and human geography analyze the growth development and self understanding of the early Christian movement in urban settings The book's contributors first look at how the urban physical cultural and social environments of the ancient Mediterranean basin affected the ways in which early Christianity progressed They then turn to how the earliest Christians thought and theologized in their engagement with cities With a rich variety of expertise and scholarship The Urban World and the First Christians is an important contribution to the understanding of early Christianity The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom Paul Middleton, 2020-01-27 A unique wide ranging volume exploring the historical religious cultural political and social aspects of Christian martyrdom Although a well studied and researched topic in early Christianity martyrdom had become a relatively neglected subject of scholarship by the latter half of the 20th century However in the years following the attack on the Twin Towers on September 11 2001 the study of martyrdom has experienced a remarkable resurgence Heightened cultural religious and political debates about Islamic martyrdom have in a large part prompted increased interest in the role of martyrdom in the Christian tradition The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom is a comprehensive examination of the phenomenon from its beginnings to its role in the present day This timely volume presents essays written by 30 prominent scholars that explore the fundamental concepts key questions and contemporary debates surrounding martyrdom in Christianity Broad in scope this volume explores topics ranging from the origins influences and theology of martyrdom in the early church with particular emphasis placed on the Martyr Acts to contemporary issues of gender identity construction and the place of martyrdom in the modern church Essays address the role of martyrdom after the establishment of Christendom especially its crucial contribution during and after the Reformation period in the development of Christian and European national building as well as its role in forming Christian identities in Asia Africa and the Americas This important contribution to Christian scholarship Offers the first comprehensive reference work to examine the topic of martyrdom throughout Christian history Includes an exploration of martyrdom and its links to traditions in Judaism and Islam Covers extensive geographical zones time periods and perspectives Provides topical commentary on Islamic martyrdom and its parallels to the Christian church Discusses hotly debated topics such as the extent of the Roman persecution of early Christians The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of religious studies theology and Christian history as well as readers with interest in the topic of Christian martyrdom

Christians in Caesar's Household Michael Flexsenhar III, 2020-02-28 In this volume Michael Flexsenhar III advances the argument that imperial slaves and freedpersons in the Roman Empire were essential to early Christians self conception as a distinct people in the Mediterranean and played a multifaceted role in the making of early Christianity Scholarship in early Christianity has for centuries viewed Roman emperors slaves and freedmen as responsible for ushering Christianity onto the world stage traditionally using Paul's allusion to the saints from Caesar's household in Philippians 4:22 as a core literary lens Merging textual and material evidence with diaspora and memory studies Flexsenhar expands on this narrative to explore new and more nuanced representations of this group showing how the long accepted stories of Christian slaves and freedpersons in Caesar's household should not be taken at face value but should instead be understood within the context of Christian myth and meaning making Flexsenhar analyzes textual and material evidence from the first to the sixth century spanning Roman Asia the Aegean rim Gaul and the coast of North Africa as well as the imperial capital itself As a result this book shows how stories of the emperor's slaves were integral to key developments in the spread of Christianity generating origin myths in Rome and establishing a shared history and geography there differentiating and negotiating assimilation with other groups and expressing commemorative language ritual acts and a material culture With its thoughtful critical readings of literary and material sources and its fresh analysis of the lived experiences of imperial slaves and freedpersons Christians in Caesar's Household is indispensable reading for scholars of early Christianity the origins of religion and the Roman Empire

Constructing Religious Martyrdom John Soboslai, 2024-06-27 Martyrdom is a phenomenon common to many of the world's religious traditions But why In this study John Soboslai offers insights into the practices of self sacrifice within specific sociopolitical contexts Providing a new understanding of martyrdom through the lens of political theology he analyzes discourses and performances in four religious traditions during social and political crises beginning with second century Christianity in Asia Minor where the term martyr first took its meaning He also analyzes Shi'a Islam in the 1980s when suicide bombing first appeared as a strategy in West Asia global Sikhism during World War I where martyrs stood for and against the British Raj and twenty first century Tibetan Buddhism where self immolators used their bodies in opposition to the programs of the People's Republic of China Presenting a new theory of martyrdom linked to constructions of sovereign authority Soboslai reveals common features of self sacrifice and demonstrates how bodily performances buttress conceptions of authority

Maidens, Magic and Martyrs in Early Christianity Jan N. Bremmer, 2017-07-13 In this work Jan N Bremmer aims to bring together the worlds of early Christianity and those of ancient history and classical literature worlds that still all too rarely interlock Contextualising the life and literature of the early Christians in their Greco Roman environment he focusses on four areas A first section looks at more general aspects of early Christianity the name of the Christians their religious and social capital prophecy and the place of widows and upper class women in the Christian movement Second the chronology and place of composition of the early apocryphal Acts of the Apostles and Pseudo Clementines are newly determined by paying close attention to their doctrinal contents but also innovatively to their onomastics and social vocabulary The author also analyses the frequent use of magic in the Acts and explains the prominence of women by comparing the Acts to the Greek novel Third an investigation into the theme of the tours of hell suggests a new chronological order shows that the Christian tours were indebted to both Greek and Jewish models and illustrates that in the course of time the genre dropped a large part of its Jewish heritage The fourth and final section concentrates on the most famous and intriguing report of an ancient martyrdom the Passion of Perpetua It pays special attention to the motivation and visions of Perpetua which are analyzed not by taking recourse to modern theories such as psychoanalysis but by looking to the world in which Perpetua lived both Christian and pagan It is only by seeing the early Christians in their ancient world that we might begin to understand them and their emerging communities Publisher's description
