It engages with conceptual debates and makes several propositions that push the frontiers of scholarship on Islamic and Religious Studies, Material Religion, Heritage Studies, and Anthropology and Sociology of Religion. The contributions presented in this volume demonstrate how material things and less thing-like materialities make the praesentia and potentia of the Sacred tangible; how they cultivate intimate relations between human and more-than-human beings; and how they act as links and gateways to the Elsewhere and Otherworldly. The volume posits that materialities of religion are integral to processes of heritagization shaped by competing social and political actors involved in the construction and canonization of religious in this case Shi'ism heritage. Twelver Shiism Andrew J. Newman, 2013-11-20 Charts the history and development of Twelver Shi'ism. As many as 40 different Shi'i groups existed in the 9th and 10th centuries; only 3 forms remain. Why is Twelver Shi'ism one of them? As the established faith in modern Iran, the majority faith in Iraq and areas in the Gulf, and with its adherents forming sizeable minorities elsewhere in the region, it is arguably the most successful branch of Shi'ism. Andrew Newman charts the history of Twelver Shi'ism, uncovering the development of the key distinctive doctrines and practices which ensured its survival in the face of repeated challenges. He argues that the key to the faith's endurance has been its ability to institutionalise responses to the changing, often localised circumstances in which the community has found itself, thereby remaining remarkably resilient in the face of both internal disagreements and external opposition. A Social History of Modern Tehran Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi, 2023-01-05 Tehran, the capital of Iran since the late eighteenth century, is now one of the largest cities in the Middle East. Exploring Tehran's development from the nineteenth to the mid-twentieth century, Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi paints a vibrant picture of a city undergoing rapid and dynamic social transformation. Rezvani Naraghi demonstrates that this shift was the product of a developing discourse around spatial knowledge in which the West became the model for the social practices of the state and sections of Iranian society. As traditional social spaces such as coffee houses, bathhouses, and mosques were replaced by European-style cafes, theatres, and sports clubs, Tehran and its people were irreversibly altered. Using an array of archival sources, Rezvani Naraghi stresses the agency of everyday inhabitants in shaping urban change. This enlightening history not only allows us to better understand the contours of contemporary Tehran but to develop a new way and history Making Gender in the Intersection of the Human and the Divine Thomas Donlin-Smith, Muhammad Shafiq, 2019-02-07 This collection of essays challenges the traditional patriarchal approach to sacred literature by highlighting gender parity in sacred texts and envisioning the rise of the matriarchy in the future The authors redefine Biblical Greek words like malakoi and arsenokoitai used in condemnation of homosexuality and Qur'anic words like darajah and qawwamun used for establishing patriarchy One author reexamines the role of the Nepalese Teej festival of fasting and worship of the god Shiva in promoting male hegemony in Hinduism Other papers examine passages like Proverbs 31:1-31 the stories of Sarah and Rahab in the Bible the role of Mary in the Qur'an and the Dharmic conversion in chapter 27 of the Lotus Sutra This book makes it clear that sacred literature is subject to human understanding as it evolves through space and time Today as more women are educated and actively engaged in political economic and social life religions are challenged to redefine gender roles and norms Shi'ite Lebanon Roschanack Shaery-Eisenlohr, 2011 Annotation By providing a new framework for understanding Shi'ite national politics in Lebanon Roschanack Shaery Eisenlohr recasts the relationship between religion and nationalism in the Middle East Democracy in Iran Ali Gheissari, Vali Nasr, 2006-06-15 Today Iran is once again in the headlines Reputed to be developing nuclear weapons the future of Iraq's next door neighbor is a matter of grave concern both for the stability of the region and for the safety of the global community President George W Bush labeled it part of the Axis of Evil and rails against the country's authoritarian leadership Yet as Bush trumpets the spread of democracy throughout the Middle East few note that Iran has one of the longest running experiences with democracy in the region In this book Ali Gheissari and Vali Nasr look at the political history of Iran in the modern era and offer an in depth analysis of the prospects for democracy to flourish there After having produced the only successful Islamist challenge to the state a revolution and an Islamic Republic Iran is now poised to produce a genuine and indigenous democratic movement in the Muslim world Democracy in Iran is neither a sudden development nor a western import Gheissari and Nasr argue The concept of democracy in Iran today may appear to be a reaction to authoritarianism but it is an old idea with a complex history one that is tightly interwoven with the main forces that have shaped Iranian society and politics institutions identities and interests Indeed the demand for democracy first surfaced in Iran a century ago at the end of the Qajar period and helped produce Iran's surprisingly liberal first constitution in 1906 Gheissari and Nasr seek to understand why democracy failed to grow roots and lost ground to an autocratic Iranian state Why was democracy absent from the ideological debates of the 1960s and 1970s Most important why has it now become a powerful social political and intellectual force How have modernization social change economic growth and the experience of the revolution converged to make this possible Shamanism and Islam Thierry Zarcone, Angela Hobart, 2017-01-30 Here Thierry Zarcone and Angela Hobart offer a vigorous and authoritative exploration of the link between Islam and shamanism in contemporary Muslim culture examining how the old practice of shamanism was combined with elements of Sufism in order to adapt to wider Islamic society

Shamanism and Islam thus surveys shamanic practices in Central Asia the Middle East North Africa and the Balkans to show how the Muslim shaman like his Siberian counterpart cultivated personal relations with spirits to help individuals through healing and divination It explores the complexities and variety of rituals involving music dance and in some regions epic and bardic poetry demonstrating the close links between shamanism and the various arts of the Islamic world This is the first in depth exploration of Islamized shamanism and is a valuable contribution to the field of Islamic Studies Religion Anthropology and an understanding of the Middle East more widely

Partners of Zaynab Diane D'Souza, 2014-09-03 How do pious Shia Muslim women nurture and sustain their religious lives How do their experiences and beliefs differ from or overlap with those of men What do gender based religious roles and interactions reveal about the Shia Muslim faith In Partners of Zaynab Diane D Souza presents a rich ethnography of urban Shia women in India exploring women s devotional lives through the lens of religious narrative sacred space ritual performance leadership and iconic symbols Religious scholars have tended to devalue women s religious expressions confining them to the periphery of a male centered ritual world This viewpoint often assumes that women s ritual behaviors are the unsophisticated product of limited education and experience and even a less developed female nature By illuminating vibrant female narratives within Shia religious teachings the fascinating history of a shrine led by women the contemporary lives of dynamic female preachers and women s popular prayers and rituals of petition Partners of Zaynab demonstrates that the religious lives of women are not a flawed approximation of male defined norms and behaviors but a vigorous authentic affirmation of faith within the religious mainstream D Souza questions the distinction between normative and popular religious behavior arguing that such a categorization not only isolates and devalues female ritual expressions but also weakens our understanding of religion as a whole Partners of Zaynab offers a compelling glimpse of Muslim faith and practice and a more complete understanding of the interplay of gender within Shia Islam

The Study of Shi'i Islam Gurdofarid Miskinzoda, Farhad Daftary, 2014-01-08 Shi i Islam with its rich and extensive history has played a crucial role in the evolution of Islam as both a major world religion and civilization The prolific achievements of Shi i theologians philosophers and others are testament to the spiritual and intellectual wealth of this community Yet Shi i studies has unjustly remained a long neglected field despite the important contribution that Shi ism has made to Islamic traditions Only in recent decades partially spurred by global interest in political events of the Middle East have scholars made some significant contributions in this area The Study of Shi i Islam presents papers originally delivered at the first international colloquium dedicated exclusively to Shi i studies held in 2010 at The Institute of Ismaili Studies London Within the book are eight sections namely history the Qur an and its Shi i interpretations hadith law authority theology rites and rituals and intellectual traditions and philosophy Each section begins with an introduction contextualizing the aspects of studying Shi i Islam particular to its theme before going on to address topics such as the state of the field methodology and tools and the primary issues with which contemporary scholars of Shi i studies are dealing The scope and depth here covered makes this book of especial interest to researchers and students alike within the field of Islamic studies. The volume benefits from the diverse expertise of nearly 30 world class scholars including Mohammad Ali Amir Moezzi Meir, M. Bar Asher Farhad Daftary, Daniel De Smet, Gerald R. Hawting, Nader El Bizri, Etan Kohlberg, Wilferd Madelung, Andrew Newman, Ismail K. Poonawala, Sabine Schmidtke, and Paul E. Walker. Shi'i Cosmopolitanisms in Africa Mara A. Leichtman, 2015-08-27 Mara A. Leichtman offers an in depth study of Shi'i Islam in two very different communities in Senegal: the well established Lebanese diaspora and Senegalese converts from Sunni to Shi'i Islam of recent decades. Sharing a minority religious status in a predominantly Sunni Muslim country, each group is cosmopolitan in its own way. Leichtman provides new insights into the everyday lives of Shi'i Muslims in Africa and the dynamics of local and global Islam. She explores the influence of Hizbullah and Islamic reformist movements and offers a corrective to prevailing views of Sunni-Shi'i hostility, demonstrating that religious coexistence is possible in a context such as Senegal. Forming National Identity in Iran Ali Moza'ffari, 2014-06-20 Modern Iran is a country with two significant but competing discourses of national identity: one stemming from ancient pre-Islamic customs and mythology, the other from Islamic Shi'i practices and beliefs. At one time co-existing and often mutually reinforcing, in more modern times they have been appropriated by intellectuals and the state who have drawn upon their narratives and traditions to support and authenticate their ideologies. The result has been an often confused notion of identity in Iran. In this essential work, Ali Moza'ffari explores the complex processes involved in the formation of Iranian national identity. He lays particular stress upon the importance of place for it is through the concept of place that collective national identity and ideas of homeland are expressed and disseminated. The author reveals the ways in which homeland is conceived both through designated permanent sites and ritual performance, illustrating his arguments through an analysis of the ancient Achaemenid capital of Persepolis and the Shi'i rituals of Moharram. In a final part of the book, he extends his analysis to the Ancient Iran Museum and the Islamic Period Museum housed in the National Museum of Iran, showing how the major transformations of twentieth century Iran, which have so far been perceived in terms of political discourses and historical events, are in fact concerned with conceiving place. Forming National Identity in Iran offers powerful insights into the forces shaping national identity in Iran, which makes it a valuable contribution to the cultural and political importance of place. The Bengal Diaspora Claire Alexander, Joya Chatterji, Annu Jalais, 2015-11-06 India's partition in 1947 and the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 saw the displacement and resettling of millions of Muslims and Hindus, resulting in profound transformations across the region. A third of the region's population sought shelter across new borders, almost all of them resettling in the Bengal delta itself. A similar number were internally displaced, while others moved to the Middle East, North America, and Europe. Using a creative interdisciplinary approach combining historical, sociological, and anthropological approaches to migration and diaspora, this book explores the experiences of Bengali Muslim migrants through this period of upheaval and transformation. It draws on over 200 interviews conducted in Britain, India, and Bangladesh, tracing migration and settlement within and from the Bengal delta region in the period after 1947 Focussing on migration and diaspora from below it teases out fascinating hidden migrant stories including those of women refugees and displaced people It reveals surprising similarities and important differences in the experience of Muslim migrants in widely different contexts and places whether in the towns and hamlets of Bengal delta or in the cities of Britain Counter posing accounts of the structures that frame migration with the textures of how migrants shape their own movement it examines what it means to make new homes in a context of diaspora The book is also unique in its focus on the experiences of those who stayed behind and in its analysis of ruptures in the migration process Importantly the book seeks to challenge crude attitudes to Muslim migrants which assume their cultural and religious homogeneity and to humanize contemporary discourses around global migration This ground breaking new research offers an essential contribution to the field of South Asian Studies Diaspora Studies and Society and Culture Studies
