The Magnificent Century Thomas Bertram Costain, 2023-11-26

In The Magnificent Century by Thomas Bertram Costain readers are transported to the captivating world of historical fiction as Costain skillfully weaves together a tale set in 16th century France. The book is rich in historical detail bringing to life the court intrigues, political machinations, and lavish lifestyles of the characters. Costain's literary style is engaging and descriptive, making the reader feel as though they are truly living in this tumultuous period of history. As a historical novel, The Magnificent Century stands out for its meticulous research and attention to detail, creating a vivid picture of the era for readers to immerse themselves in. The book is a great choice for those interested in historical fiction, French history, or simply looking for a well-crafted story to get lost in.

The Magnificent Century Thomas B. Costain, 2012-03-21 The Magnificent Century, the second volume of Costain's A History of the Plantagenets, covers Henry III's long and turbulent reign from 1216 to 1272. During his lifetime, Henry was frequently unpopular, unreliable, and inconsistent. Yet his reign saw spectacular advancement in the arts, sciences, and theology, as well as in government. Despite all, it was truly a magnificent century. Combining a love of the subject with factual history, a great story. San Francisco Chronicle. A History of the Plantagenets includes The Conquering Family, The Magnificent Century, The Three Edwards, and The Last Plantagenets.

Eighteenth-century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder Sarah Tindal Kareem, 2014. A footprint materializes mysteriously on a deserted shore; a giant helmet falls from the sky; a traveler awakens to find his horse dangling from a church steeple. Eighteenth-century British fiction brims with moments such as these in which the prosaic rubs up against the marvelous. While it is a truism that the period's literature is distinguished by its realism and air of probability, Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder argues that wonder is integral, rather than antithetical, to the developing techniques of novelistic fiction. Positioning its reader on the cusp between recognition and estrangement, between faith and doubt, modern fiction hinges upon wonder. Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder's chapters unfold its new account of British fiction's rise through surprising new readings of classic early novels: from Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe to Jane Austen's Northanger Abbey, as well as bringing to attention lesser-known works, most notably Rudolf Raspe's Baron Munchausen's Narrative of His Marvellous Travels. In this bold new account, the eighteenth century bears witness not to the world's disenchantment but rather to wonder's relocation from the supernatural realm to the empirical world, providing a re-evaluation not only of how we look back at the Enlightenment but also of how we read today.

Mid-Century Romance John T. Connor, 2024-07-22 Mid-Century Romance chronicles a revival of the historical novel in the middle decades of the twentieth century in the cultures of British modernism and international communism. Born of a national turn in world politics, these novels met the turbulence of mid-century history with narratives of national becoming, roadmaps to situate their readers in the pattern of social change. Their writers were often mindful of the genre's romantic era heritage they saw themselves as following in the footsteps of Sir Walter Scott and they drew on the same rescued remains of primitive poetry and popular antiquities that romanticism first used to construct its versions of national identity culture and tradition This book shows how the impulse to salvage traces of ancestral culture and press them to new purpose links the mid century national historical novel to the rise of radical social history and magical realism Post war anticommunism shaped a tradition of the novel as a preserve of art and the individual Mid Century Romance counters with a different genealogy of the British and world novel whose object is society and the future of community the nation and its people It situates its cast of British writers including the modernists Hope Mirrlees and Virginia Woolf the communists Jack Lindsay and Sylvia Townsend Warner the eccentric modernist and sometime fellow traveller John Cowper Powys and the New Left luminary Raymond Williams in a transnational perspective that reaches from Bihar India to Bahia Brazil A Century of Banking in New York, 1822-1922 Henry Wysham Lanier, 1922 Other Capitals of the Nineteenth Century Richard Hibbitt, 2017-10-17 This book rethinks the notion of nineteenth century capital s from geographical economic and symbolic perspectives proposing an alternative mapping of the field by focusing on different loci and sources of capital Walter Benjamin s essay Paris the Capital of the Nineteenth Century identifies the French capital as the epitome of modernity His consideration of how literature enters the market as a commodity is developed by Pierre Bourdieu in The Rules of Art which discusses the late nineteenth century French literary field in terms of both economic and symbolic capital This spatio temporal approach to culture also underpins Pascale Casanova s The World Republic of Letters which posits Paris as the capital of the transnational literary field and Greenwich Meridian of literature This volume brings together essays by specialists on Bayreuth Brussels Constantinople Coppet Marseilles Melbourne Munich and St Petersburg as well as reflections on local colour literature the Symbolist novel and the strategies behind literary translation Offering a series of innovative perspectives on nineteenth century capital and cultural output this study will be invaluable for all upper levels students and scholars of modern European literature culture and society A Laggard in Love Mrs. Coulson Kernahan, 1890 Ideas and Ideologies in Twentieth-Century Latin America Leslie Bethell, 1996-09-13 The Cambridge History of Latin America is a large scale collaborative multi volume history of Latin America during the five centuries from the first contacts between Europeans and the native peoples of the Americas in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries to the present Ideas and Ideologies in Twentieth Century Latin America brings together chapters from Volumes IV VI and IX of The Cambridge History to provide in a single volume the economic social and political ideologies of Latin America since 1870 This it is hoped will be useful for both teachers and students of Latin American history and of contemporary Latin America Each chapter is accompanied by a bibliographical essay Two Questers in the Twentieth-century North Africa Imen Ayari Cozzo, 2016-09-23 This book offers a unique exploration of the work of Paul Bowles and Ibrahim Alkoni and reveals timely insights into the relationship between the West and the Orient showing that they both challenge and extend existing scholarship on this subject It builds on a sound theoretical platform which serves as a solid foundation for the analysis of the overarching theme Theories of place representation Orientalism and post colonialism are discussed in depth and are linked to the deconstruction and analysis of the selected literary texts helping the reader understand the various quests and motivations of the protagonists of the works of Bowles and Alkoni The first part of the book looks into the work of Bowles and is based on the fact that many of the author's texts revolve around the theme of encounters between Western and Eastern cultures It adopts a specific focus on the North African space which is depicted from a number of different points of view including native French English and American perspectives The second section discusses the work of the Libyan author Ibrahim Alkoni as a quester for a Mythical Identity It introduces the reader to the significance of the desert in both classical and modern Arabic literature and its place in the Arabic cultural imaginary This work is highly original both in its approach and subject matter and as such it constitutes a valuable contribution to the study of comparative literature Arabic literature and postcolonial magical realist literature It offers many original insights into this little studied field demonstrating a successful venture into less trodden terrain

Seventeenth-century Fiction Jacqueline L. Glomski, Isabelle Moreau, 2016 A multi-authored study of the emergence and transmission of fictional writing in Europe in the seventeenth century with the aim of improving understanding of the origins of the novel Images of the Antipodes in the Eighteenth Century David Fausett, 2022-03-07 How did Europeans view the unknown region at their antipodes in early times before the explorations of Captain Cook and others made it well known Throughout the ages it has evoked fantastic images which affected the arts and sciences and the evolution of the novel in the century prior to the major discoveries was influenced in the same way The eighteenth century was also a critical phase in European social history a time when many modern patterns of economic life and international relations were formed Distant explorations and discoveries bore implications for that process which tended to be worked out in fictional voyages mingling fact with fiction Images of the Antipodes asks what these can tell us about Europe's expansion to the limits of the New World about the first contacts between cultures with very different worldviews about the colonial relations that followed and about the geopolitics of the region since then They offer a perspective on cross cultural relationships generally nowhere more apparent than in their use of ancient images of the antipodes This is the third part of a study on the intellectual history of travel fiction and deals with the period from the 1720s to the 1790s focusing on an issue that is as vital now as it was then cultural or racial stereotyping and the link between this and the differing politico economic aspirations of peoples It is a dual problem of exploitation which has been associated with the antipodes since the beginnings of Western literature The book discusses teratological fantasies the literary background in utopias and Robinsonades Gulliver's Travels and other travel fiction from mid century onwards the parallels between real and imaginary voyages and the way the latter often prefigured the rise of modern anthropology and of colonial relationships in the austral regions Particularly relevant was the odd blend of arcadianism and horror inspired by or projected onto these places in the later eighteenth century as it had long been in the past The works discussed are chiefly English and French but include other European examples of the type The Nineteenth Century and After , 1888 The Dead Bridal. A Venetian Tale of the Fourteenth Century Jonathan Freke SLINGSBY (pseud. [i.e. John Francis Waller.]), 1856 The Boy-Man, Masculinity and Immaturity in the Long Nineteenth Century Pete Newbon, 2018-09-04 This book explores the evolution of male writers marked by peculiar traits of childlike immaturity The Boy Man emerged from the nexus of Rousseau's counter Enlightenment cultural primitivism Sensibility's Man of Feeling the Chattertonian poet maudit and the Romantic idealisation of childhood The Romantic era saw the proliferation of boy men who congregated around such metropolitan institutions as The London Magazine These included John Keats Leigh Hunt Charles Lamb Hartley Coleridge Thomas De Quincey and Thomas Hood In the period of the French Revolution terms of childishness were used against such writers as Wordsworth Keats Hunt and Lamb as a tool of political satire Yet boy men writers conversely used their amphibian child adult literary personae to critique the masculinist ideologies of their era However the growing cultural and political conservatism of the nineteenth century and the emergence of a canon of serious literature inculcated the relegation of the boy men from the republic of letters Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The
