Dangerous Knowledge Robert Irwin, 2006-11-02 What is Orientalism who were the Orientalists and how did Western scholars of Islamic culture come to be vilified as insidious agents of European imperialism In this new history the author answers this question with a detailed story of the motley crew of intellectuals and eccentrics who brought an understanding of the Islamic world to the West In a narrative that ranges from an analysis of Ancient Greek perceptions of the Persians to a portrait of the first Western European translators of Arabic to the contemporary Muslim world's perceptions of the Western study of Islam Irwin affirms the value of the Orientalists legacy not only for the contemporary scholars who have disowned it but also for anyone committed to fostering the cross cultural understanding which could bridge the real or imagined gulf between Islamic and Western civilization Dust jacket Architectural Conservation in Asia John H. Stubbs,Robert G. Thomson,2016-11-10 At a time when organized heritage protection in Asia is developing at a rapid pace Architectural Conservation in Asia provides the first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation practice from Afghanistan to the Philippines The country by country analysis adopted by the book draws out local insights experiences best practice and solutions for effective cultural heritage management that will inform study and practice both in Asia and beyond Whereas architectural conservation in much of the Western world has been extensively documented this book brings together coverage of many regions where architectural conservation has been understudied Following on from the highly influential companion volumes on global architectural conservation and architectural conservation in Europe and the Americas with this book the authors extend their pioneering global examination to the dynamic and evolving field of architectural conservation in Asia Throughout the book the authors and regional experts provide local case studies and profile topics that bring depth and insight to this ambitious study As architectural conservation becomes increasingly global in practice this book will be of considerable assistance to architectural conservation practitioners site managers and students of architecture planning archaeology and heritage studies worldwide Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach,1965 First systematic inclusive study of the impact of the high civilizations of Asia on the development of modern Western civilization Asia, 1929 Imagining Asia(s) Andrea Acri,Kashshaf Ghani,Murari K Jha,Sraman Mukherjee,2019-10-23 As a continent lying to the east of Europe Asia has been malleable to different spatial and temporal imaginations and politics Recent scholarship has highlighted how the seemingly self contained regional configurations of West and Central Asia South and Southeast Asia and East Asia carved by the Area Studies paradigm reflect changing geo political and economic interests than historical or cultural roots This volume advances the question as to what Asia is and as to whether there existed one or many Asia s It seeks to explore Asian societies as interconnected formations through trajectories networks of circulation of people ideas and objects in the longue dur e Moving beyond the divides of Area Studies scholarship and the arbitrary borders set by late colonial empires and the rise of post colonial nation states this volume maps critically the configuration of contact zones in which mobile bodies minds and cultures interact to foster new images identities and imaginations of Asia The Medieval French Alexander Donald Maddox,Sara Sturm-Maddox,2012-02-01 Alexander the Great was one of the legendary Nine Worthies in the medieval canon of ancient and modern heroes and medieval writers exploited his legend in a wide variety of literary and didactic texts Addressing the classical legacy to the Middle Ages as expressed in four centuries of vernacular narratives this volume offers the first systematic collective study of Alexander the Great s thematic prominence in medieval culture Contributors from Britain France the Netherlands and the United States combine sensitive textual analyses with perspectives from such diverse fields as art history codicology anthropology sociology the history of mentalities and postcolonial theory Overall the collection offers a provocative rethinking of the monumental medieval French tradition of Alexander the Great as well as valuable insight into the emergence and transformations of French literature between the early twelfth century and the end of the Middle Ages

China's Seaborne Trade with South and Southeast Asia (1200-1750) Roderich Ptak, 2024-12-11 This second selection of studies by Professor Ptak focuses on Chinese maritime trade in the medieval and early modern periods The first section deals with contacts between China and individual places in particular Timor the Sulu Islands southern India and the islands of the Indian Ocean Chinese geographical and other accounts of these areas and the trade routes leading to them are examined and where possible compared with Arabic and Western works from the colonial period The second part looks at trade in specific commodities such as sandalwood coral horses tortoise shell ebony cloves and tea Relevant Chinese terms the uses of each commodity and the production and distribution are analysed Both qualitative and quantitative information is drawn from the sources and it is demonstrated that many trade items were much more significant in international business than has been thought At the same time these studies highlight the importance of Chinese consumption in driving world commodity flows
