Marxism Domination New Hegelian Femini:

Ludic Feminism and After Teresa L. Ebert, 1996 A provocative and controversial challenge to postmodern academic feminism

Hegel and Feminist Social Criticism Jeffrey A. Gauthier, 1997-07-24 Makes a case for employing a Hegelian framework in defense of a number of controversial feminist claims and argues not only for the importance of Hegel for feminist thought but also for the significance of feminism in clarifying and developing key Hegelian ideas

Philosophy and the Maternal Body Michelle Boulous Walker, 2002-01-22 Philosophy and the Maternal Body gives a new voice to the mother and the maternal body which have often been viewed as silent within philosophy Michelle Boulous Walker clearly shows how some male theorists have appropriated maternity and suggests new ways of articulating the maternal body and women s experience of pregnancy and motherhood

The Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character Sondra Farganis, 1996-06-30 A classic in feminist theory The Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character is a stimulating and thought provoking book that brings to light the ways in which views of women are shaped by concrete conditions It compares feminism to other contemporary social movements that are raising questions about advanced industrial society In this new edition Farganis includes chapters on feminist legal theory and queer theory and updates the chapters on science reason and morality

On the Sovereignty of Mothers Gil Anidjar, 2024-11-19 Paternal patriarchal and fraternal concepts metaphors and images have long dominated thinking about politics But the political Gil Anidjar argues has always been maternal In a series of finely woven meditations on slavery sovereignty and the social contract this book places mothers and mothering at the crux of political thought Anidjar identifies a maternal sovereignty and a maternal contract showing that without motherhood there could be no constitution preservation or reproduction of collective existence in time And maternal power is also power over life and death as he reveals through a nuanced consideration of abortion Through the concept of the maternal Anidjar offers new insights into abiding sources from the Bible and ancient Greece to classical and modern political philosophy the story of Hagar and Sarah Oedipus and his two mothers Hegel s dialectic of master and slave reinterpreted in light of Black and feminist criticism psychoanalytic theory and autotheoretical reflection Elegantly written and provocative On the Sovereignty of Mothers offers the maternal as a new frame for understanding the political order

The Greening of Sovereignty in World Politics Karen Litfin, 1998 This is the first book to connect two important subfields in international relations global environmental politics and the study of sovereignty the state s exclusive authority within its territorial boundaries The authors argue that the relationship between environmental practices and sovereignty is by no means straightforward and in fact elucidates some of the core issues and challenges in world politics today Although a number of international relations scholars have assumed that transnational environmental organizations and institutions are eroding sovereignty this book makes the case that ecological integrity and state sovereignty are not necessarily in opposition It shows that the norms of sovereignty are now shifting in the face of attempts to cope with ecological destruction but that this

greening of sovereignty is an uneven variegated and highly contested process By establishing that sovereignty is a socially constructed institution that varies according to time and place with multiple meanings and changing practices The Greening of Sovereignty in World Politics illuminates the complexity of the relationship between sovereignty and environmental matters and casts both in a new light Contributors Daniel Deudney Margaret Scully Granzeier Joseph Henri Jupille Sheldon Kamieniecki Thom Kuehls Ronnie D Lipschutz Karen T Litfin Marian A L Miller Ronald B Mitchell Paul Wapner Veronica Ward Franke Wilmer

The Alienated Subject James A. Tyner, 2022-03-08 A timely and provocative discussion of alienation as an intersectional category of life under racial capitalism and white supremacy From the divisiveness of the Trump era to the Covid 19 pandemic alienation has become an all too familiar contemporary concept In this groundbreaking book James A Tyner offers a novel framework for understanding the alienated subject situating it within racial capitalism and white supremacy Directly addressing current economic trends and their rhetoric of xenophobia discrimination and violence The Alienated Subject exposes the universal whitewashing of alienation Drawing insight from a variety of sources including Marxism feminism existentialism and critical race theory Tyner develops a critique of both the liberal subject and the alienated subject Through an engagement with the recent pandemic and the Black Lives Matter movement he demonstrates how the alienated subject is capable of both compassion and cruelty it is a sadomasochist Tyner goes on to emphasize the importance of the particular places we find the alienated subject and how the revolutionary transformation of alienation is inherently a spatial struggle Returning to key interlocutors from Sartre to Fromm he examines political notions of distance and the spatial practices of everyday life as well as the capitalist conditions that give rise to the alienated subject For Tyner the alienated subject is not the iconic romanticized image of Marx's proletariat Here he calls for an affirmation of love as a revolutionary concept necessary for the transformation of a society marred by capitalism into an emancipated caring society conditioned by socially just relations

Adventures in Marxist Theory Douglas Kellner, 2025-08-20 Adventures in Marxist Theory provides an introduction and overview of Marxian theory to demonstrate its contemporary relevance to social and political theory and a range of disciplines from philosophy to economics in both the humanities and the social sciences The text argues that current historical developments and the evolution of economics politics society culture technology and everyday life demonstrates the contemporary relevance of Marxism in both theory and politics in the contemporary era The book presents a twenty first century Marxism relevant to theorizing contemporary state capitalist and technological societies critically dissecting their major social and political issues and problems while advancing progressive social transformation in the interests of increased democracy and social justice The volume opens with an Introduction describing a multi disciplinary and critical approach to Marxism and its application to a wide range of contemporary issues including the alienation of labor in the workplace social divisions and injustices such as classism sexism racism and homophobia and questions of technology social media and AI as well as problems of ecological crisis autocracy and state oppression Specific chapters address the

Marxian critique of capitalism and theory of socialism its concept of ideology and morality its methodological synthesis of social science critical theory and its analyses of globalization technology and democracy Written by a distinguished scholar of Marxism critical theory and cultural and political studies the volume will be a key resource for instructors students and readers in historical and contemporary sociology social and critical theory political sociology political and cultural studies and Marx and Marxist studies

Ritual Violence and the Maternal in the British Novel, 1740-1820 Raymond F. Hilliard, 2010 This challenging book brings to light a mythic dimension of seventeen important eighteenth and early nineteenth century narratives that revolve around the persecution of one or more important female characters and offers original reading of novels by Richardson Fielding Burney Radcliffe Godwin Austen Scott and others The myth in question which Raymond Hilliard calls the myth of persecution and reparation serves as a major vehicle for the early novel s preoccupation with the mother a mythic figure distinct from the historical mother or from the mother as she is represented in eighteenth and early nineteenth century maternal ideology Hilliard argues that the myth of persecution and reparation derives from the ropos of female sacrifice in the romance tradition and shows that this topos is central to several kinds of novels realist Gothic Jacobin feminist and historical Hilliard contends that the narrative of persecution and reparation anticipates the twentieth century maternal myth associated with the work of Melanie Klein and other relational model psychoanalytic theorists and he thus also examines the psychosexual significance of the mother Hilliard explores the relation of psychosexual themes to social representations and delineates a new theory of plot both tragic and comic plots in the early novel Book Jacket

The Social Construction of Man, the State, and War Franke Wilmer, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Hegel's Philosophy Of Politics Harry Brod, 2019-04-05 This valuable book makes a significant contribution to the current revival of interest in Hegel Brod demonstrates the central unifying role the collective historical social consciousness plays in Hegel's thought. But far from leading to totalitarian conclusions, this emphasis upon the social actually leads Hegel toward a third way between the an Carl Barks and the Disney Comic Book Tom Andrae, 2006. The first full length critical study of the genius who created Duckburg and Uncle Scrooge. Feminist Interpretations of G. W. F. Hegel Patricia Jagentowicz Mills, 2010-11-01 Sympathy and Solidarity Sandra Lee Bartky, 2002. In a rare full length volume renowned feminist thinker Sandra Lee Bartky brings together eight essays in one volume. Sympathy and Solidarity: A philosophical work accessible to an educated general audience, the essays reflect the intersection of the author's eye work and sometimes her politics. Two motifs connect the works: first, all deal with feminist topics and themes; second, most deal with the reality of oppression, especially in the disguised and subtle ways it can be manifested. Ecofeminist Philosophy Karen Warren, 2000-10-11. A philosophical exploration of the nature, scope, and significance of ecofeminist theory and practice. This book presents the key issues, concepts, and arguments which motivate and sustain ecofeminism from a western philosophical perspective. Philosophy of Woman Mary Briody Mahowald, 1994-01-01. Revision of the second edition of 1983, cited in BCL3. Now arranged in chronological order with a new introduction and headnotes. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc, Portland, OR. Empowering Ourselves and Transforming Schools Judith Westphal Irwin, 1996-01-01. Examines the forces that keep educators and students from feeling fully empowered. Contains self-help and planning activities for teachers and administrators interested in transforming schools.

Feminine Soul Marilyn Chapin Massey, 1985. Reflexion teórica sobre la posibilidad de existencia de una espiritualidad femenina a la que la autora llama alma femenina. Este concepto tomado de Hegel y los filósofos alemanes tuvo su oposición en figuras como Marx o Freud. The Aesthetic State Josef Chytrý, 2024-07-26. Shortly after the middle of the eighteenth century a number of thinkers from the German-speaking lands began to create a paradigm drawn from their impressions of a distant historical reality: ancient Athens. Added to it a new mode of thought: modern dialectics, and at times even paid homage to the ancient Greek deity Dionysos to materialize their longing for an ideal. The influence of these forces came to permeate modern German consciousness, deifying the concept and activity of art, reviving the Platonic and Sanskrit vision of the cosmos as play and aesthetic creation, and projecting a way of life and labor that would honor not the commodity but the aesthetic product. With rigorous commitment to primary sources and an unflagging critical engagement with the ideas and concrete situations they raise, Josef Chytrý provides a comprehensive and extensive study of this central motif in German thought, from Winckelmann to Marcuse. Chytrý takes aesthetic state to signify the concentrated modern intellectual movement to revitalize the radical Hellenic tradition of the polis as the site of a beautiful or good life. The movement begins with the classicism of Winckelmann, Weimar aesthetic humanism, Wieland, Herder, Goethe, and Schiller's formal theory of the aesthetic state, and continues through the idealism of the Swabian dialecticians, Holderlin, Hegel, and Schelling, and the realism of Marx, Wagner, and Nietzsche. It culminates in the postrealism of Heidegger, Marcuse, and the aesthetic modernist artist Walter Spies, who initiated a dialogue with the non Western theatre state of the isle of Bali Josef Chytry concludes that the future speculation on the ideal of an aesthetic state must come to terms with the postrealist themes of ontological anarchy aesthetic ethos and theatre state In a bold effort to stimulate such speculation Chytry indicates how proponents of the aesthetic state might join forces with Rawlsian political theory to promote further the organon of persuasion that in his view serves as the common fount for the ancient dialectical and contractarian quests for the polis This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989
