Marxism An American Christian Perspective:

Marxism, an American Christian Perspective Arthur F. McGovern, 1980 World Christianity and Marxism Denis Janz, 1998 All the diverse philosophical and political manifestations of Marxism were ultimately rooted in Marx's thought and supporters based their greater or lesser hostilities toward Christianity on their reading of his critique Janz follows this with an overview of Christian responses to Marx extending from the mid 19th century to the onset of the Cold War Marxism, Christianity, and Islam Julian Roche, 2024-02-20 Roger Garaudy was for many years at the centre of the French Communist Party but was eventually expelled for his liberal views In the Seventies he strove to bring Marxism and Christianity together to include all humanity in a project to set all people free What emerges from Garaudy's project is a very modern Marxism with its emphasis on the individual its ecological politics and in its insistence on religion as central to human emancipation Although Garaudy himself became frustrated by the failure of Marxism and converted to Islam eventually resulting in his work being discredited in the West it is certainly possible that Garaudy's project represents a good perhaps even the best starting point for Marxism in today's world The Spirit of Democratic Capitalism Michael Novak, 1991 In this work the author examines the roots of modern democratic capitalism from a theological point of view In his defence of Western capitalism he attempts to reconcile sound faith and sound economics Karl Marx's Economics John Cunningham Wood, 1993 Towards a Christian Literary Theory L. Ferretter, 2002-12-17 Most modern literary theory is explicitly anti theological This book states the case for a contemporary literary theory whose principles derive from Christian theology Ferretter argues that it remains rationally and ethically legitimate to use theological language in literary theory despite the objections to such a theory posed by deconstruction Marxism and psychoanalysis He concludes with an assessment of how such a theory can be formulated and used in contemporary cultural analysis Caminemos con Jesus Roberto S. Goizueta, 1995-01-01 While the growth in both numbers and influence of Hispanics in North American Catholicism and Protestantism has been commented on widely up until now there has been no systematic attempt to define a Hispanic theology Roberto Goizueta a Cuban American theologian aware that Hispanic and Latino can be terms imposed artificially on diverse peoples finds a common link in the Spanish language and in a shared culture Central to this culture is the experience of exile of being a people at the margins of a society who must find and make their way together Central also is faith and its grounding in this experience of being in exile In delineating the very particular nature and worldview of Hispanic Latino theology Caminemos con Jesus challenges both traditional Euro American theologies and modern Western epistemological assumptions It examines the implications of this theological method for the Church and the academy as well as for the future of the Latino community and North American society Caminemos con Jesus provides lessons in discipleship for non Hispanics and Hispanics alike for students of contemporary theology and all those engaged in pastoral and church based work addresses the questions human beings have been asking for centuries Each chapter focuses on the writings of a different philosopher from Plato to Nietzsche St Augustine to Simone de Beauvoir As a distinctive feature commentaries explore the unique relationship between what philosophers say and what religion teaches

Third World Liberation Theologies

Deane W. Farnham, 2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies A Reader this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century

Marx, Lenin, and the Revolutionary Experience Paul LeBlanc, 2014-06-03 Marx Lenin and the Revolutionary Experience offers a fresh look at Communism both the bad and good and also touches on anarchism Christian theory conservatism liberalism Marxism and more to argue for the enduring relevance of Karl Marx and V I Lenin as democratic revolutionaries It examines the Red Decade of the 1930s and the civil rights movement and the New Left of the 1960s in the United States as well Studying the past to grapple with issues of war and terrorism exploitation hunger ecological crisis and trends toward deadening de spiritualization the book shows how the revolutionaries of the past are still relevant to today s struggles It offers a clearly written and carefully reasoned thematic discussion of globalization Marxism Christianity and religion in general Communism the history of the USSR and US radical and social movements

Latin American Liberation

Theology David Tombs, 2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology The book is divided into five main sections the historical role of the church from Columbus s arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959 the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s the transitional decade of the 1970s the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s This book offers insights into liberation theology s profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Church and Politics in Latin America

Dermot Keogh, 1990-06-18 Complex and profound changes have been taking place in the Latin American Catholic Church in the 20th century which have often been misunderstood and misrepresented This is a collection of essays written by scholars working in the fields of history political science sociology law and theology

Will it Liberate ? Michael Novak, 1991-06-19

Michael Novak s work is challenging We often disagree sharply in our interpretations and assessments of liberation theology but he raises important issues which call for clarification and response

Polemics and Provocations Paul

Gilk,2010-06-01 In the twelfth century an Italian monk named Joachim caught the attention of the Christian West by announcing the Three Ages of the World Joachim arrived at his formulation by a meshing of the Christian Trinity with the Old and New Testaments proclaiming in sequence the Age of the Father the Age of the Son and the Age of the Holy Spirit In the early modern period however archaeologists uncovered the remains of an agrarian village social stratum that predates the rise of civilization The divinity of this period was the Mother Goddess a divinity that civilized monotheism with its strict Father God steadily and severely repressed Paul Gilk has modified Joachim s Three Ages revelation by placing this newly discovered Age of the Mother at the beginning of Joachim s sequence But it s obvious that Mother Father Son and Holy Spirit are not psychologically coherent or linguistically consistent The only way to make semantic sense of Joachim s enlarged formulation is to recognize the Age of the Holy Spirit as the Age of the Daughter for if there s a Mother a Father and a Son then the Holy Spirit implicitly and quietly reveals Herself as Daughter With this understanding it s possible to discern the prophetic power and transformative cultural significance of both the contemporary women s movement and the feminine Earth sensibility of the growing ecological outrage Gilk goes on to assert that the radical servanthood and radical stewardship contained within Jesus kingdom of God proclamation is at least in part an attempt to spiritually reconnect with the agrarian village culture of the Mother s Age but it s also a lifting of that Age to a finer spirituality and toward an ethically Green political order The kingdom of God is Green Gilk says and its overarching divinity is the Daughter The Age of the Daughter is Green and is struggling to be born

Dialectic of Salvation Anselm K. Min,1989-07-03 Dialectic of Salvation is issue oriented coming to grips with the many criticisms of liberation theology the criticisms of the Vatican Schubert Ogden and Dennis McCann The critics are answered through a thorough analysis of the issues involved and a detailed presentation of the position of liberation theology The book presents the first substantial discussion between the Vatican and liberation theology It analyzes the Vatican s own theology of freedom and its social doctrine of liberation focusing on its anthropological assumptions and shows that the present conflict between the two parties is a conflict between two radically opposed horizons and modes of thinking between the personalist and the dialectical Min provides a Hegelian interpretation of liberation arguing that it is the first theology to take the Hegelian Marxian heritage seriously in the context of contemporary theology

A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong,2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong s observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez s liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss s Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future Michael Harrington Robert Gorman,2021-12-24 In this provocative biographical portrait Robert A Gorman examines the political and intellectual life of this engaging radical thinker while looking ahead to the ways in which the work and example he has left us can affect political life in the twenty first century Michael Harrington s major attempt to Americanize socialism plays a big part in Gorman s analysis He tells readers how it is possible to be both radical and patriotic and how an unjust system can be transformed without being destroyed Ideas across Cultures Paul A. Cohen,Merle Goldman,2020-03-17 Benjamin Schwartz taught at Harvard from 1950 until his retirement in 1987 Through his teaching and writing he became a major force in the field of Chinese studies setting standards above all in the area of intellectual history that have been a source of inspiration to students and scholars worldwide His influence extends well beyond the China field cutting across conventional disciplinary boundaries touching political science religion philosophy and literature as well as history The essays in this book are by scholars who have studied with Benjamin Schwartz Given the range of his own interests it is fitting that they embrace an expanse of time from the Zhou dynasty to the present and a range of subjects equally inclusive ancient and medieval Chinese thought the fate of democracy in early Republican China the development of aesthetic modernism in the 1920s and 1930s and its reemergence in the post Mao era the emphasis on spiritual regeneration and cultural transformation in Chinese and Japanese Marxism popular values in twentieth century China as reflected in village theatrical performances the larger issue of what part our own values should take in the study and assessment of other societies and cultures and the equally broad issue of how we are to address the relationship between Chinese modernization and China s traditional culture Despite this heterogeneity and the fact that the contributors include two political scientists five historians with strong philosophical interests and three scholars whose writing bridges the disciplines of history and literature there is a surprising coherence to the volume Almost all the authors consciously address either aspects of Schwartz s general approach or specific themes dealt with in his work Each contribution is about ideas and takes ideas and their societal roles seriously Although presented in the specific context of China the issues raised in these essays are important to the world beyond China Exploring them in both their Chinese and non Chinese settings reflects the power of Schwartz s own work in illuminating a broader canvas of human thought The Morality of Terrorism David C. Rapoport,Yonah Alexander,2013-09-24 The Morality of Terrorism Religious and Secular Justifications examines terrorist tradition from its origin in the revealed religions to its present manifestations which are largely secular though not exclusively so Important common themes running through all the essays are the moral climate that produces terrorism the doctrines terrorists used to justify themselves and the moral predicaments terrorists create The book is organized into three parts The essays in Part I focus on religious terror Topics covered include the successful efforts of Jewish terrorists in the first century to provoke a popular uprising the myths of Prometheus and Satan and the myths and fantasies in the minds of terrorists and how these myths are related to the ramshackle world of Western civilization Part II deals with various forms of state terror It includes essays such as the French Reign of Terror and Nazi terrorism Part III devoted to rebel terror includes essays such as terrorists justifications and their abilities to demonstrate sincerity though suffering and responses to rebel terrorism by communities deeply committed to protecting individual rights The Political Theory of Liberation Theology John R. Pottenger, 1989-01-01 Discusses the religious and political context of liberation theology the state of the Latin American economy Marxist Christian tensions and the ethics of reform
