The State, Identity, and the National Question in China and Japan Germaine A.

Hoston, 2021-02-09 The first decades of the twentieth century witnessed an explosion of nationalist sentiment in East Asia as in Europe This comprehensive work explores how radical Chinese and Japanese thinkers committed to social change in this turbulent era addressed issues concerning national identity social revolution and the role of the national state in achieving socio economic development Focusing on the adaptation of anarchism and then Marxism Leninism to non European contexts Germaine Hoston shows how Chinese and Japanese theorists attempted to reconcile a relatively new appreciation for the nation state with their allegiance to a vision of internationalist socialist revolution culminating in stateless socialism Given the influence of Western experience on Marxism Chinese and Japanese theorists found the Marxian national question to be not merely one of whether the working man has no country but rather the much more fundamental issue of the relative value of Eastern and Western cultures Marxism argues Hoston thus placed native Marxists in tension with their own heritage and national identity The author traces efforts to resolve this tension throughout the first half of the twentieth century and concludes by examining how the tension persists as Chinese and Japanese dissidents seek identity affirming modernity in accordance with the Western democratic model

Prolegomena to Any Future

Materialism Adrian Johnston, 2019-09-15 Adrian Johnston's trilogy Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism aims to forge a thoroughly materialist yet antireductive theory of subjectivity In this second volume A Weak Nature Alone Johnston focuses on the philosophy of nature required for such a theory This volume is guided by a fundamental question How must nature be rethought so that human minds and freedom do not appear to be either impossible or inexplicable within it Asked differently How must the natural world itself be structured such that sapient subjects in all their distinctive peculiarities emerged from and continue to exist within this world In A Weak Nature Alone Johnston develops his transcendental materialist account of nature through engaging with and weaving together five main sources of inspiration Hegelian philosophy Marxist materialism Freudian Lacanian metapsychology Anglo American analytic neo Hegelianism and evolutionary theory and neurobiology Johnston argues that these seemingly but not really strange bedfellows should be brought together so as to construct a contemporary ontology of nature Through this ontology nonnatural human subjects can be seen to arise in an immanent bottom up fashion from nature itself

Antonio Gramsci Gianni Fresu, 2022-10-31 This intellectual biography provides an organic framework for understanding Antonio Gramsci's process of intellectual development paying close attention to the historical and intellectual contexts out of which his views emerged The Gramsci in Notebooks cannot fully account for the young director of L'Ordine Nuovo or for the communist leader Gramsci's development did not occur under conditions of intellectual inflexibility of absence of evolution However there is a strong thread connecting the political Gramsci with Gramsci as a cultivated man The Sardinian intellectual's life is marked by the drama of World War I the first mass conflict in which the great scientific discoveries of the previous decades were applied on a large scale and in which millions of peasants and workers were slaughtered In all of his theoretical formulations this dual relation which epitomizes the instrumental use of simpletons by ruling classes goes beyond the military context of the trenches and becomes full fledged in the fundamental relations of modern capitalist society In contrast with this notion of social hierarchy which is deemed natural and unchangeable Gramsci constantly affirmed the need to overcome the historically determined rupture between intellectual and manual functions due to which the existence of a priesthood or of a separate caste of specialists in politics and in knowledge is made necessary It is not the specific professional activity whether material or immaterial that determines the essence of human nature to Gramsci all men are philosophers In this passage from Notebooks we find the condensed form of his idea of human emancipation which is the historical need for an intellectual and moral reform the subversion of traditional relations between rulers and ruled and the end of exploitation of man by man

The Discourse of Domination Ben Agger, 1992 The Discourse of Domination tackles nothing less than the challenge of giving critical theory a new grip on current problems and restoring the left's faith in the possibility of enlightened social change Agger steers a course between orthodox Marxism and orthodox anti Marxism bringing the concepts of ideology dialectic and domination out of the academy and making them into a living medium of political self expression

This generalized ecological aesthetics explores the relationship between humans and nature society and itself guided by the brand new ecological worldview in the post modern context It also changes the non beauty state of human existence and establishes an aesthetic existence state that conforms to ecological laws Liberalism and the Origins of European Social Theory Steven Seidman,1983-01-01 Problems of Communism ,1978 The Old and the New: Churching a Secular Age from Solovyóv to Bulgakov Michael Lee Miller,2025-03-25 In the midst of exile from his native Russia in the mid 1930s Fr Sergii Bulgakov identified his basic aspiration as an Orthodox theologian to be a positive overcoming of Modernity in fact a continuation of the efforts of his great 19th century inspiration Vladimir Solovy v to reconstruct Christian thought and culture in the face of the unprecedented challenges posed by the Enlightenment and the era of revolutionary upheaval But Bulgakov s theological vision also involves a distinctive revision of Solovy v s programme whose residual Hegelianism continually threatens to level out speculative reason and mystagogical faith progress in history and the Kingdom not of this World Bulgakov refuses any such levelling instead he consummates the apocalyptic turn Solovy v had already commenced in the years immediately preceding his premature death in 1900 The resulting preference for the paradox of antinomy over the closure of dialectic comes to light in relation to four themes running through Bulgakov s thinking in the decades falling between his rejection of Marxism and the commencement of his mature systematic theological work in the 1930s history work knowledge and power
