

The Other Universals Consortium

Virtual Talk Title :

On Non Western Marxisms

The Other Universals consortium engages with anti-imperial political and cultural thought, internationalist intellectual traditions and practices of solidarity that have emerged from locations marked by the struggle to refuse subordination and negation as embodied in blackness, Orientalism, untouchability and non-normative sexualities in 19th and 20th century Africa, the Caribbean, the Middle East, South Asia and Latin America.

In this seminar we explore the relationship of Marxism/s to race, ethnicity, religion and sexuality? What can a living tradition of left thinking on labour and Marxist thought proffer our current imaginings of a future beyond colonial modernity?

Marxisms Retreat From Africa:

Marxism's Retreat from Africa Arnold Hughes, 1992 V K Triandafilov 1894 1931 was an outstanding young commander who shaped the military theory and doctrine of the Red Army as it came to grips with the problem of future war A conscript soldier who rose through the ranks to become an officer in the Tsarist Army he saw combat in both the First World War and the Russian Civil war A student of some of the finest military specialists teaching the first generation of young Red commanders he sought to link theory and practice in his 1929 book by using past experience to comprehend future combat

Marxism's Retreat from Africa Arnold Hughes, 2015 The collapse of Marxism in much of the Third World as well as Europe was so sudden and spectacular that it is hard to believe that in the space of seven years The Journal of Communist Studies could bring out special issues both on the creation of Military Marxist Regimes in Africa and on their demise and the wider collapse of Marxist governments on the continent This volume first published in 1992 derives from a roundtable on the theme of The Retreat from Moscow African and Eastern European Experiences of Disengagement from Marxism held at the University of Birmingham in September 1991 The conference examined the recent experiences of African countries in transition from Marxism and Marxist influenced ideologies to an uncertain future based on the market economy and a plural political system

Independence Paul Nugent, 2012-06-13 An indispensable introductory textbook that provides students with a genuinely comparative study of the different trajectories and experiences of independent African states Paul Nugent explores a range of key concerns including the impact of HIV and AIDS the contagion of warfare and efforts at achieving national reconciliation both in the past and today This is an ideal core text for modules on Modern African History African Politics or Africa since Independence or a supplementary text for broader modules on African History which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate History Politics or African Studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying modern African history for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in African History African Politics or African Studies New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of the latest research Reflects recent developments on issues such as AIDS urbanization the secession of South Sudan questions of citizenship and the importance of transnational spaces This second edition now features photographs

Emerging Market Multinationals in Sub-Saharan Africa Aleksandra Wąsowska, 2025-02-25 The successful entry and survival of multinational enterprises MNEs in foreign markets largely depend on how governments and other stakeholders perceive their legitimacy How do emerging market MNEs legitimise their operations in distant markets What legitimacy threats must they overcome This book explores these questions by examining MNEs from three BRIC economies Brazil India China and Poland the largest economy in Central and Eastern Europe as they enter Sub Saharan Africa SSA We compare how these firms establish legitimacy in SSA exploring both similarities i e general patterns of legitimacy building and differences often rooted in the interplay between the historical and developmental trajectories of their home and host countries The uniqueness of this book lies in three key aspects Firstly it is the first to explore emerging market multinationals entering Africa through the lens of legitimacy building Secondly it analyses the behaviour of corporations from four emerging markets highlighting both commonalities and divergences in their legitimacy challenges and strategies Thirdly its concise format and balance between theory and practice make it particularly useful to a broad range of audiences including scholars students and practitioners especially entrepreneurs and managers aiming for success in Africa s fast growing markets By blending theory with practical insights the book is valuable for scholars students and practitioners in International Business IB and Strategy providing actionable knowledge for entrepreneurs and managers aiming to thrive in the dynamic African markets Africa and the International System Christopher S. Clapham, 1996-09-12 Paying for the state

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. A. Smith, 2014-01-09 The impact of Communism on the twentieth century was massive equal to that of the two world wars Until the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991 historians knew relatively little about the secretive world of communist states and parties Since then the opening of state party and diplomatic archives of the former Eastern Bloc has released a flood of new documentation The thirty five essays in this Handbook written by an international team of scholars draw on this new material to offer a global history of communism in the twentieth century In contrast to many histories that concentrate on the Soviet Union The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism is genuinely global in its coverage paying particular attention to the Chinese Revolution It is global too in the sense that the essays seek to integrate history from above and from below to trace the complex mediations between state and society and to explore the social and cultural as well as the political and economic realities that shaped the lives of citizens fated to live under communist rule The essays reflect on the similarities and differences between communist states in order to situate them in their socio political and cultural contexts and to capture their changing nature over time Where appropriate they also reflect on how the fortunes of international communism were shaped by the wider economic political and cultural forces of the capitalist world The Handbook provides an informative introduction for those new to the field and a comprehensive overview of the current state of scholarship for those seeking to deepen their understanding

Why Europe Intervenes in Africa Catherine Gegout, 2018-01-01 Why Europe Intervenes in Africa analyses the underlying causes of all European decisions for and against military interventions in conflicts in African states since the late 1980s It focuses on the main European actors who have deployed troops in Africa France the United Kingdom and the European Union When conflict occurs in Africa the response of European actors is generally inaction This can be explained in several ways the absence of strategic and economic interests the unwillingness of European leaders to become involved in conflicts in former colonies of other European states and sometimes the Eurocentric assumption that conflict in Africa is a normal event which does not require intervention When European actors do decide to intervene it is primarily for motives of security and prestige and not primarily for economic or humanitarian reasons The weight of past relations with Africa can also be a driver for European military intervention but the impact of that past is changing This book offers a theory of European intervention based mainly on realist and post colonial approaches It refutes the assumptions of liberals and constructivists who posit that states and organisations intervene primarily in order to respect the principle of the responsibility to protect

Politics South Africa Heather Deegan, 2014-05-22 South Africa s democratic transformation in 1994 captured the attention of the international community Politics South Africa provides an acute appraisal of the critical moments in the history of South Africa and examines the political environment in the years following the shift to democracy Under the leadership of the revered figure of Nelson Mandela the rainbow nation achieved the transition with less violence than had been feared A new generation of post Apartheid young people has grown up and the socio political environment is maturing However the country still has immense challenges to overcome in delivering services to its diverse populations faced with the impact of HIV AIDS on communities and the economic demands of development This fully revised second edition includes two entirely new chapters based on the author s recent research and interviews within the country dealing with the legacy of the President Mbeki years the implications of the 2009 election and the challenges now facing the country under Jacob Zuma Politics South Africa is an accessible guide for students and a fascinating appraisal of a nation which has travelled a long journey but is still trying to reconcile its past Features include boxed discussions of key subject areas chronology of important events maps appendices of critical documents and speeches Dr Heather Deegan is a Reader in Comparative Politics at Middlesex University London She was a Fellow of the Africa Institute of South Africa Pretoria and was a Visiting Lecturer at the University of Witwatersrand She is the author of six books including the recently published Africa Today Culture Economics Religion Security 2009

Africa Today Heather Deegan, 2008-11-25 In the post 9 11 global environment Africa is standing at a crossroads in international affairs as the combined issues of politics religion and security attract renewed interest While some countries seem to be moving forward with greater levels of confidence democracy and stability others continue to be mired in conflict poverty and religious ethnic division This text focuses on key contemporary issues that the continent faces providing a comprehensive introduction of current political religious developmental and security concerns Features include Individual chapters devoted to key issues including health gender corruption religion and the newly emerging problems of human security Case studies and detailed analysis of topical issues including Muslim Christian clashes Kano Northern Nigeria Conflict Arms and Reconstruction Darfur and Sierra Leone Comprehensive range of countries discussed including Zimbabwe Botswana Kenya Ethiopia Uganda Lesotho Somalia Namibia and Madagascar Fully up to date statistics including primary research based on interviews conducted by the author providing data for both individual countries and the continent as a whole Boxed descriptions explaining clearly the ideas in important subject areas such as Islamic law and society By drawing on the author's empirical research and situating discussion within the context of wider debate Africa Today is designed both to introduce and to develop a deeper understanding of this rapidly changing continent an essential text for all students of African politics and International Relations      Global Geographies of Post-Socialist Transition Tassilo

Herrschel, 2006-09-27 Since the formal raising of the Iron Curtain there has been much interest in post socialism and the process of post socialist transition This timely book provides a systematic review and analysis of the process of transition Herrschel explores recent theories concepts and debates on post socialism and the notion of transition provides a systematic topical account of post socialist transitions around the world as evidence by social economic and political processes examines case studies of post socialist transition in east and Central Europe the former Soviet Union Asia and South East Asia and Africa and Latin America brings together theoretical and practical aspects by examining what lessons can be learned from recent experiences Global Geographies of Post Socialist Transition provides a truly global comparative account of the meaning and processes of post socialist transition and will be an invaluable resource for all those interested in this area

Africa Rising? Ian Taylor, 2014 Africa is said to be rising turning a definitive page in its history heralding new and exciting possibilities for the continent This discourse maintains that with upsurge in economic growth comes improved governance and endogenous dynamics that the emerging economies and especially the BRICS Brazil Russia India China South Africa have been instrumental in diversifying Africa's international relations perhaps leading to a radical change in the global order favourable to the developing world But to what extent is this true and how deep and how broad has been the impact on society at large This book takes a critical look at the prevalent Africa Rising discourse and explores the nature and implications of Africa's rise and the role that the BRICS have played in it The author argues that Africa has still to undergo any structural transformation that there is strong evidence that deindustrialisation and jobless growth have accompanied the upsurge of interest in the continent and that far from making a radical turn in its developmental trajectory Africa is being pushed into the resource corner as commodity exporters to the North and now the BRICS with little scope for industrial progress or skills advancement Hope that the BRICS might offer an alternative to the extant neoliberal order are misplaced for the BRICS have a stake in maintaining the current global inequality Africa must therefore fashion its own independent path while the emerging economies will be important relying on external actors may simply reproduce anew the current state of underdevelopment Ian Taylor is Professor in International Relations and African Politics University of St Andrews Chair Professor Renmin University of China Professor Extraordinary University of Stellenbosch South Africa Honorary Professor Institute of African Studies Zhejiang Normal University China and a Visiting Scholar at Mbarara University of Science and Technology Uganda

United Nations Peacekeeping in Africa Since 1960 Norrie Macqueen, 2014-07-30 United Nations Peacekeeping in Africa provides an exploration of United Nations military intervention in Africa from its beginnings in the Congo in 1960 to the new operations of the twenty first century The scene is set by an examination of the theoretical bases both of United Nations peacekeeping and of Africa's post independence politics and international relations The peacekeeping project in Africa is then described on a region by region basis Central Africa Southern Africa West Africa the Horn and Trans Saharan Africa with comparisons and contrasts within and between each part of Africa highlighted throughout A number of key questions are considered how have developments in the broader international system affected conflicts in Africa what are the internal and external forces which have caused African states to fail and collapse how have external powers used UN Peacekeeping in pursuit of their own political agendas what determines success and failure in African peacekeeping are there African solutions to African problems which could supplant UN involvement As well as providing an account of UN involvement the book is concerned to explore the long historical origins of the African conflicts with which the UN has been engaged Written in an engaging and accessible manner United Nations Peacekeeping in Africa provides an invaluable examination of the complex issues surrounding UN interventions in Africa

Third Worlds Heather Deegan, 2002-11 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison, 2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students      Charlatans, Spirits and Rebels in Africa Tim Kelsall,2022-09-01 When Stephen Ellis died in July 2015 African Studies lost one of its most prolific provocative and celebrated scholars Given the scale and uniqueness of his contribution it is perhaps surprising that a collection of his writings did not appear during his lifetime It is now possible to bring such a volume to the public With an introduction by Tim Kelsall and an afterword by Jean Fran ois Bayart this collection aims to provide scholars and students with an introduction to the main themes in Ellis work These revolved around the roles of religion criminality and violence in African society and politics preoccupations that also informed his interpretation of African rebellions and resistance movements The volume spans more than three decades of scholarship case studies from six countries highly cited and lesser known articles and a sampling of works intended for public engagement as well as an academic audience It will serve as a reader for African Politics and History and as an invitation to students to delve deeper into Stephen Ellis oeuvre      African Political Thought G. Martin,2012-12-23 Focusing on individual political thinkers and beginning with indigenous African political thought the book successively examines African nationalism African socialism populism and Marxism Africanism and pan Africanism concluding with contemporary perspectives on democracy development and the African state
