Marxist Perspectives On Imperialism:

Marxist Theories of Imperialism Murray Noonan, 2017-02-28 For Marxists imperialism is the highest stage of capitalism Critical analysis of imperialism has been a feature of Marxist throughout the twentieth century The conceptualising and theorising of imperialism by Marxists has evolved over time in response to developments in the global capitalist economy and in international politics Murray Noonan here provides the first complete analysis of Marxist theories of imperialism in over two decades Presenting three phases of imperialist theories he analyses and compares Classical Neo and Globalisation era Marxist theories of imperialism The book moves chronologically tracking the origins of imperialism theorised by J A Hobson at the beginning of the twentieth century up to the present day He critically identifies and engages with a new Globalisation era phase of Marxist imperialism theory Through a detailed scholarly analysis of the history and evolution of these theories Noonan offers vital new perspectives on imperialist theory and its relevance and application in the twenty first century

Marxist Perspectives on Imperialism Chronis Polychroniou, 1991-04-30 By distinguishing between classical Marxist and neo Marxist approaches to imperialism this volume challenges generally accepted views on the relationship between these two branches of Marxist thought reaffirming the principles and tools of fundamental Marxism as essential for understanding and explaining the internationalization of capitalist economic life Together original source materials and Polychroniou s highly readable analysis present a commentary both outlining and clarifying essential ideas contained in Marxist writings from the late 19th century to the present Marxist Perspectives on Imperialism also identifies current political and economic issues to which authentic Marxist concepts can be applied A review of Marx s views on capitalist production relations and expansion opens the discussion and defines criteria for evaluating analyses which follow Studies by classical Marxists such as Hilferding Bukharin and Lenin are then contrasted to the neo Marxist writings of Baran Frank and Wallerstein among others Polychroniou s defense of orthodox Marxism strengthens as he turns his attention to the practical uses of Marxist ideology to topics of international concern His conclusions clarify a complex topic and provide political economists sociologists and political scientists with a clear explanation of the theoretical and methodological contours of Marxist thought on capitalist imperialism

Marxist Theories of Imperialism Tony Brewer, 2002-09-11 The last two hundred years have seen a massive increase in the size of the world economy and equally massive inequalities of wealth and power between different parts of the world They have also witnessed the rise to dominance of the capitalist mode of production Marxists from Marx himself through to present day thinkers have argued that these changes are profoundly interconnected This book offers a unique account of Marxist theories of Imperialism It has been fully updated and expanded to cover all the developments since its initial publication and will be essential reading for any student of Marxism

Marx and Other Four-Letter Words Georgina Blakeley, Valerie Bryson, 2005-04-20 Karl Marx's classic definitions of class and society under capitalism are still widely used today Ideas such as class revolution production and oppression are employed across a broad range of academic subjects reaching beyond politics economics and sociology Yet these concepts within a specifically Marxist framework are not always easy to understand This book is an ideal student introduction that explains in clear and concise chapters the precise meaning and implications of each of Marx's key concepts Furthermore the contributors show how these ideas continue to be relevant and how they relate to modern society The contributors include leading academics in the field of political science Outlining clearly what each concept means they move on to situate it within cutting edge contemporary political theory Concepts include historical materialism capitalism class the state imperialism the division of labour oppression production and reproduction revolution working class internationalism equality and democracy

The Legacy of Marxism Matthew Johnson, 2012-06-28 Marx's influence is evident in a range of often incompatible and contradictory political movements and intellectual approaches With a number of those movements now discredited by the experience of really existing socialism and the academic left gravitating towards approaches which eschew authoritarian essentialist and ethnocentric elements of orthodox Marxism the relevance of Marx has been called into question Featuring chapters by Norman Geras Joseph Femia Alan Johnson Paul Bowman Ronaldo Munck Lawrence Wilde Mark Cowling Chengyi Peng Terrell Carver Oliver Harrison and Stuart Sim this book is an attempt to examine means by which the left can make real substantive and positive contributions to contemporary debate The collection examines such topics as the meaning of Marxism and pluralism within the left Marxism's scientific credentials i ek revolution democracy and cultural studies the politics of development the relationship between Marxism and global capitalism the global justice debate and Marx's rejection of moral discourse the analysis of crime and criminal justice Chinese society and constitutional diversity and the relationship between Marxism and post Marxism Rethinking Development Ronaldo Munck, 2021-05-17 Development and underdevelopment are the main determinants of life chances worldwide arguably more so than social class Marxism as the underlying theory for social revolution needs to have a clear understanding of the dynamics of development and social progress Exploring the intersection of Marxism and development this book looks at Marx's original conception of capitalist development and his later engagement with underdeveloped Russia The author also reviews Lenin's early critique of the Russian populists rejection of capitalism compared with his later analysis of imperialism as a brake on development in the non European world The book then considers Rosa Luxemburg who arguably provides a bridge between these theorists and those that follow with her analysis of imperialism as a necessity for capitalism to incorporate non capitalist lands Turning then to the non European world the author examines the Latin American dependency theories the post development school and the recent indigenous development theories advanced by Andean Marxism Finally Munck addresses the relationship between globalization and development Does this relationship suggest that it has not been capitalism but a lack of capitalism that has led to under development
