Mary Magdalene, La Malinche, and the Ethics of Interpretation Jennifer Vija Pietz,2022-11-08 By comparing the intersecting histories of interpretation of Mary Magdalene a first century disciple of Jesus and La Malinche a sixteenth century Mesoamerican woman enslaved by the Spanish conquistadores Jennifer Vija Pietz critically evaluates the use of past lives to address contemporaneous concerns She demonstrates how the earliest sources portray each woman as an agent in the foundation of a new community Magdalene s proclamation of Jesus s resurrection helped form the first Christian community while La Malinche s role as interpreter between Spanish and native people during the Conquest helped establish modern Mexico Pietz then argues that over time various interpreters turn these real women into malleable icons that they use to negotiate changing conceptions of communal identity and norms Strikingly popular portraits develop of both women as archetypal whores who represent transgression portraits that some women have experienced as harmful Although other interpreters present contrary portraits of Magdalene and La Malinche as admirable emblems of female empowerment Pietz argues that the tendency to turn real people into icons risks producing stereotypes that can obscure past lives and negatively affect people in the present In response she posits strategies for developing historically plausible and ethically responsible interpretations of people of the past      Women's Bible Commentary, Third Edition Carol A. The Fly in the Ointment: The Mysteries of Mary Magdalene Jennifer Smith, 2014-08-23 Mary Magdalene was the principle witness of the death burial and resurrection of Jesus as told in the Christian gospels the grief stricken scarlet woman at the foot of the cross clutching her jar of ointment her hair loose like that of the maenads Yet by the sixth century Mary once called the Tower had fallen into disrepute as a sinner and prostitute Mary was never a martyr but tradition has her exiled to a solitary cave where she was not a threat to the established church until she emerged after the rediscovery of the heretical Gnostic texts In these Mary Magdalene is the beloved companion of Jesus the disciple who knew the all As with her predecessor Eve she bears the sin of desiring knowledge and is condemned for it The question of whether Mary Magdalene can be identified with Mary of Bethany has become merely another means of reducing her authority In the gospels Jesus said that his anointer should be remembered for all generations yet she remains maligned and undefended until now
