in running presses bookshops and writing criticism Although historically situated it is written from the perspective of contemporary debates concerning the interface of gender and modernism The author argues that a cohering aesthetic of the poetry is a denial of femininity through various evasions of gendered identity such as masking male and female impersonations and the rupturing of realist modes The Poet as Experienter Adam Staley Groves,2025-08-13 In The Poet as Experienter Wallace Stevens and Nonhuman Intelligence Adam Staley Groves approaches Stevens not merely as poet thinker but rather as experienter and theorist of what is today called the phenomenon UFOs Challenging both Stevens scholarship and our broader understanding of poetic consciousness the book presents a radical appraisal of Stevens s oeuvre as an extended coded testimony of contact with nonhuman intelligence Drawing from journals uncollected poems and landmark works such as Harmonium and The Necessary Angel Groves argues that Stevens s poetic evolution mirrors the psychological and spiritual trajectory of an experienter grappling with anomalous phenomena long before cognitive frameworks for such were culturally available From moths and owls to missing time and the ethics of the imagination Groves reads Stevens s work as a sustained effort to reckon with anomalous phenomena whose language has not yet come Through careful textual analysis and historical correlation Groves positions the poet within a lineage that includes Coleridge Baudelaire Kierkegaard and Nietzsche who are recast not only as theorists of the imagination but as precursors to a modern metaphysical crisis now resurfacing through the contemporary discourse on UFOs and UAPs Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena Integrating rigorous literary scholarship with insights from ufology psychology and metaphysical philosophy Groves investigates Stevens s use of abstraction the ethics of poetic imagination and the emergence of the true subject as a form of ontological rupture In doing so the book bridges the hermetic with the historical and the poetic with the paranormal
