Queen of the Dark Chamber

It is some time since I have read a book which at once appealed to me, and interested me and moved me, as this book by Christiana Tsai. Written by a highly born and educated Chinese woman, it gives us a new insight into Chinese life as she knew it as a girl and as a young woman.

The book is remarkable, too, as a story of conversion to the Christian faith. Miss Tsai was the daughter of a high Chinese official, and by the grace of God was brought to the knowledge of Christ and His salvation. She passed through great trials and sufferings, and for many long years has been ill. Yet from her sick chamber she sends forth a beautiful testimony to the saving and keeping power of Christ. Both for its picture of Chinese life, and for its witness to the power of God unto salvation, I commend this book to all readers.

DR. CLARENCE EDWARD MACARTNEY, formerly pastor, Pittsburgh, Pa., and author of many books in the field of religion and history and biography.
