Queen Mother Herself:

The Queen Mother Herself Helen Cathcart, 1979      The Queen Mother Herself Cathcart, Helen, 1980      The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike      Women in African Colonial Histories Susan Geiger, Jean Allman, Nakanyike Musisi, 2002-04 While recognising the inherent violence and brutality of the colonial encounter the essays in this anthology show that African women were not simply the hapless victims of European political rule      Monarchy and Exile P. Mansel, T. Riotte, 2011-10-28 Using detailed studies of fifteen exiled royal figures the role of Exile in European Society and in the evolution of national cultures is examined From the Jacobite court to the exiled Kings of Hanover the book provides an alternative history of monarchical power from the 16th to 20th century      The Divisions of French Catholicism, 1629-1645 Anthony D. Wright, 2016-03-23 For much of the sixteenth century France was wracked with religious strife as the Wars of Religion pitted Catholic against Protestant Whilst the conversion of Henri IV to Catholicism ended much of the conflict the ensuing peace highlighted the fractious nature of French Catholicism and the many competing threads that ran through it This book investigates the gradual division of the French Catholic reform movement often associated with those known as the devots during the first half of the seventeenth century Such division it is argued was emerging before the publication in France 1641 of the posthumous Augustinus of Jansenius not simply as a sequel to that Those who were already distinguishing themselves from other devots before that date were thus not yet identifiable as Jansenists Rather the initial defining sentiment was increasing French hostility towards Jesuit involvement in Catholic Reform both at home and abroad Drawing on sources from the Jesuit archives in Rome and on Port Royal material in Paris the book begins with an investigation into the development of Catholic Reform in France showing the problems that emerged before 1629 and the degree to which these were or were not resolved The second half of the book contrasts the fragmentation of the movement in the years beyond 1629 and the context of Richelieu's new directions in French foreign policy Covering a crucial period in the lead up to the establishment of an absolute monarchy in France this book provides a rich new explanation of the development of French political and ecclesiastical history It will be of interest not only to those studying the early modern period but to anyone wishing to understand the roots of French secular society

Going for a Spin Gordon Sharp, 2014-07-01 It was Gordon Sharp's experiences as a six year old boy in the Glasgow Blitz that first set him on the path towards a medical career By the time Gordon had left school he had two firm goals to specialise in aviation medicine and to try his hand at broadcasting He managed both in style becoming Commanding Officer of the RAF's Aviation Medicine Training Centre and later Head of Division at the Institute of Aviation Medicine During his time in the RAF Medical Branch he carried out pioneering work in the development of safer systems for aircrew As a member of the ITN studio team during the Apollo space programme in the 1970s Gordon became a familiar face to TV audiences Then just when he thought life held no more surprises he found himself flying high in a different sense when he was invited to serve as Physician Extraordinary to Her Majesty The Queen Mother
