Mongolian Film Music Dr Lucy Rees, 2015-11-28 In 1936 the Mongolian socialist government decreed the establishment of a film industry with the principal aim of disseminating propaganda It sent young rural Mongolian musicians to Soviet conservatoires to be trained formally as composers On their return they utilized their traditional Mongolian musical backgrounds and the musical skills learned during their studies to compose scores to the 167 propaganda films produced between 1938 and 1990 Lucy Rees provides an overview of the rich mosaic of music genres that appeared in these soundtracks Case studies of composers and film scores are presented demonstrating the influence of cultural policy on film music and showing how film scores complemented the ideological message of the films

Richard Strauss in Context Morten Kristiansen, Joseph E. Jones, 2020-10-29 Richard Strauss in Context offers a distinctive approach to the study of a composer in that it places the emphasis on contextualizing topics rather than on biography and artistic output One might say that it inverts the relationship between composer and context Rather than studies of Strauss's librettists that discuss the texts themselves and his musical settings for instance this book offers essays on the writers themselves their biographical circumstances styles landmark works and broader positions in literary history Likewise Strauss's contributions to the concert hall are positioned within the broader development of the orchestra and trends in programmatic music In short readers will benefit from an elaboration of material that is either absent from or treated only briefly in existing publications Through this supplemental and broader contextual approach this book serves as a valuable and unique resource for students scholars and a general readership A Chronological History of Australian Composers and Their Compositions Stephen Pleskun, 2012-01-17 This book is volume 1 of a 4 volume series the first 3 of which have been published by Xlibris and the 4th almost complete for imminent delivery In its entirety this work is the most comprehensive and accurate account of Australian Classical Music making ever undertaken The 4 volumes cover the period from 1901 2012 and include more than 800 composers famous and obscure with more than 30 000 compositions including details of their premieres where when and by whom Individual performers ensembles orchestras opera and ballet companies music educators instrument makers entrepreneurs academics philanthropists musicologists and critics are included as part of the story The foundation and demise of music institutions venues and festivals is recorded chronologically Altogether an extensive picture of Australian Classical Music production and performance can be gleaned in any given year This book is distinct insofar as it can be read conventionally from cover to cover or one may choose a composer performer and follow his/her career year by year or one may open the book at random and delight in the unusual and esoteric information therein This book and its companion volumes are valuable and indispensable works for the serious music student professional musician performing amateur cultural aficionado and inquisitive lay person and should be in the library of every reputable music conservatorium worldwide
