Mis, 2004-12-15 From the sacred monolith Uluru to the Great Barrier Reef Australia is a country filled with natural wonders Students will learn about Australia's wildlife and landmarks as they draw symbols of the Land Down Under Australia's history also comes alive through its sights and symbols The subjects follow Australia from its Aboriginal crafts and traditions through its colonial period in the nineteenth century to the sleek Sydney Opera House of today's Australia

Blooms and Brushstrokes Penelope Curtin, Tansy Curtin, 2019-04-29 Blooms and Brushstrokes takes you on a unique journey through the history of Australian art one flower at a time examining the blooms depicted in still lifes floral portraits decorative interiors and botanical illustrations by a long line of Australian artists Mother and daughter team Penelope and Tansy Curtin start this fascinating journey in the late eighteenth century when the traditions adhering to the Western art canon were transplanted into the newly colonised Australia They follow it through the rapidly developing artistic styles of the early twentieth century to the new media of the contemporary period These works of art also shine a light on the role and importance of plants and flowers in everyday life They illustrate changing floral fashions as well as highlighting flowers in their various forms cut flowers pot plants and gardens And along the way you'll encounter many of Australia's most significant artists including John Glover Arthur Streeton Margaret Preston Grace Cossington Smith John Brack and Margaret Olley as well as some of Australia's most beautiful and sometimes intriguing native flora such as the waratah and Sturt's desert pea not to mention perennial garden favourites like roses sweet peas and daisies Spectacular intimate engaging and meticulously researched and full of interesting and quirky facts about the flowers and the artists themselves Blooms and Brushstrokes is a book for art flower and history lovers alike Horses in Australia Nicolas Brasch, 2014-12-01 This beautifully illustrated book celebrates the horse in Australia past and present From Cobb Co to Black Caviar from the Walers of World War I to The Man from Snowy River it showcases our best historical and contemporary images The horse has been an integral part of Australian history since the First Fleet brought the first horse to our shores From the resilient workhorses of colonial Australia and the determined stockhorses rounding up cattle to the thoroughbreds that capture the country's imagination at every Melbourne Cup horses have contributed to many of the great human feats in our history Here alongside 180 stunning images Nicolas Brasch shows why we love horses and how they have been captured so strikingly by our photographers and artists Art and human rights Caroline Turner,Jen Webb,2016-01-01 Provides a deeply researched account of contemporary Asian art movements focusing on the work of a select group of internationally renowned and politically engaged artists Danse Macabre Desmond Manderson,2019-04-18 A revolutionary approach exploring legal themes such as justice legitimacy sovereignty and power through close readings of major works of art The 6th Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art ,2009 Established in 1993 the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art is the only major series of exhibitions in the world to focus on the contemporary art of Asia and the Pacific This publication accompanies the fifth exhibition in the series being held f rom the 2 12 06 to 27 05 07 at the Queensland Art Gallery Brisbane: Training, Teaching and Turmoil Brisbane History Group authors,2018 Brisbane Training Teaching and Turmoil Tertiary Education 1825 2018 looks at higher education before the advent of formal colleges and classes and how it evolved into the multi billion dollar university sector of today The book also considers the problems and issues confronting tertiary education and its likely future in Brisbane Fourteen Brisbanites contributed to this book Some are academics some are amateur historians but all have a scholarly passion for and depth of knowledge in their field They were asked to write not simply about the institutions but about the ordinary people and how they learnt rather than how or where something was taught We asked the authors to try to write themselves into the story and to use humour including cartoons This book looks at How early Brisbane doctors learned from indigenous medicine How early pharmacists and nurses could be very dangerous people How early Brisbane lawyers did not need to go to university How Brisbane people learned about society and culture How Brisbane artists and musicians developed before there was formal training How each Brisbane university set out to be radically different and ended up being much the same How Brisbane women changed and were changed by tertiary studies How student radicalism in Brisbane far preceded the 1960s This enjoyable and lavishly illustrated book explores some intriguing and largely forgotten aspects of our beautiful city of Brisbane Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 46 - 1960 , Identity, Community and Australian Artists, 1890-1914 Kate R. Robertson,2019-09-19 An irresistible call lured Australian artists abroad between 1890 and 1914 a transitional period immediately pre and post federation Travelling enabled an extension of artistic frontiers and Paris the centre of art and London the heart of the Empire promised wondrous opportunities These expatriate artists formed communities based on their common bond to Australia enacting their Australian ness in private and public settings Yet they also interacted with the broader creative community fashioning a network of social and professional relationships They joined ateliers in Paris such as the Acad mie Julian clubs like the Chelsea Arts Club in London and visited artist colonies including St Ives in England and taples in France Australian artists persistently sought a sense of belonging negotiating their identity through activities such as plays balls tableaux parties dress up and of course the creation of art While individual biographies are integral to this study it is through exploring the connections between them that it offers new insights Through utilising extensive archival material much of which has limited or no publication history this book fills a gap in existing scholarship It offers a vital exploration re consideration of the fluidity of identity place and belonging in the lives and work of Australian artists in this juncture in British Australian history

Collecting Cultures: Myth, Politics, and Collaboration in the 1948 Arnhem Land Expedition Sally K. May, 2009 Collecting Cultures investigates colonial museum collecting practices in indigenous communities based upon the case of the 1948 American Australian Scientific Expedition to Arnhem Land Precious beyond Measure Beth McKillop, Jane
