The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus, 2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies

Queer Studies and Education Nelson M. Rodriguez, Robert C. Mizzi, Louisa Allen, Rob Cover, 2023 Queer Studies and Education An International Reader explores how the category queer as a critical stance or set of perspectives contributes to opportunities individually and collectively for advancing queer social justice within the context and concerns of schooling and education The collection takes up this general goal by presenting a cross section of international perspectives on queer studies in education Collectively the chapters critically engage with heteronormativity and normativity more generally as a political spectrum over a broad range of formal and informal sites of education and against a backdrop of critiques of liberalism and neoliberalism as the frameworks through which achievable social change and belonging are fostered particularly within educational settings
