Get the Summary of Quentin Tarantino s Cinema Speculation in 20 minutes Please note This is a summary not the original book Cinema Speculation by Quentin Tarantino delves into the American film industry of the 1960s focusing on iconic male stars like Steve McQueen whose film choices were influenced by his first wife Neile McQueen The book examines Bullitt a film that redefined the cop genre with its stylish protagonist and emphasis on coolness and action over complex narrative McQueen s portrayal of Frank Bullitt is celebrated for its minimalistic yet magnetic screen presence Extra-Ordinary Men Nicola Rehling, 2010-06-21 Extra Ordinary Men analyzes popular cinematic representations of white heterosexual masculinity as the ordinary form of male identity one that enjoys considerable economic social political and representational strength

Nicola Rehling argues that while this normative position affords white heterosexual masculinity ideological and political dominance such ordinariness also engenders the anxiety that it is a depthless vacuous and unstable identity At a time when the neutrality of white heterosexual masculinity has been challenged by identity politics this insightful volume offers lucid accounts of contemporary theoretical debates on masculinity in popular cinema and explores the strategies deployed in popular films to reassert white heterosexual male hegemony through detailed readings of films as diverse as Fight Club Boys Don't Cry and The Matrix Accessible to undergraduates but also of interest to film scholars the book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of the ways in which popular film helps construct and maintain many unexamined assumptions about masculinity gender race and sexuality Transnational Film Remakes Iain Robert Smith, 2017-03-08

What happens when a film is remade in another national context How do notions of translation adaptation and localisation help us understand the cultural dynamics of these shifts and in what ways does a transnational perspective offer us a deeper understanding of film remaking Bringing together a range of international scholars Transnational Film Remakes is the first edited collection to specifically focus on the phenomenon of cross cultural remakes Using a variety of case studies from Hong Kong remakes of Japanese cinema to Bollywood remakes of Australian television this book provides an analysis of cinematic remaking that moves beyond Hollywood to address the truly global nature of this phenomenon Looking at iconic contemporary titles such as The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo and Oldboy as well as classics like La Bête Humaine and La Chienne this book interrogates the fluid and dynamic ways in which texts are adapted and reworked across national borders to provide a distinctive new model for understanding these global cultural borrowings Movies in American History Philip C. DiMare, 2011-06-17

This provocative three volume encyclopedia is a valuable resource for readers seeking an understanding of how movies have both reflected and helped engender America's political economic and social history Movies in American History An Encyclopedia is a reference text focused on the relationship between American society and movies and filmmaking in the United States from the late 19th century through the present Beyond discussing many important American films ranging from Birth of a Nation to Star Wars to the Harry Potter film series the essays included in the volumes explore sensitive issues in cinema related to race class and gender authored by international scholars who provide unique perspectives on American cinema and history Written by a diverse group of distinguished scholars with backgrounds in history film studies culture studies science religion and politics this reference guide will appeal to readers new to cinema studies as well as film experts Each encyclopedic entry provides data about the film an explanation of the film's cultural significance and influence information about significant individuals involved with that work and resources for further study The Cinema of Generation X Peter Hanson, 2010-06-28

When Steven Soderbergh exploded onto movie screens with sex lies and videotape in 1989 it represented more than the arrival of an important new director it heralded the arrival of an entire generation of important new directors Quentin Tarantino Pulp Fiction Kevin Smith Dogma David Fincher

Fight Club M Night Shyamalan The Sixth Sense Ben Stiller Reality Bites Michael Bay Pearl Harbor and dozens of others are all members of Generation X the much talked about but much misunderstood successors to baby boomers This book is a critical study of the films directed by Gen Xers and how those directors have been influenced by their generational identity While Generation X as a whole sometimes seems to lack direction its filmmakers have devoted their careers to making powerful statements about contemporary society and their generation s role in it Each section of the book deals with an aspect of Gen X filmmaking including the influence of popular culture postmodern narrative devices slackerdom and the lack of direction disenfranchisement and nihilism the ever evolving role of technology gender issues and sexuality the question of race the influence of older filmmakers and visions of the future Screening Ethnicity Anna Camaiti Hostert,Anthony Julian Tamburri,2002 Literary Nonfiction Film Studies Remarkable for the variety and sophistication of the approaches that it brings to its subject matter SCREENING ETHNICITY makes a powerful argument for the validity indeed the necessity of Italian American cinema as an object of study By including the concepts of race gender and social class along with the more obvious themes of identity and ethnicity this collection sheds new light on the careers of Frank Capra Francis Ford Coppola Michael Cimino Martin Scorsese Quentin Tarantino and the recently canonized David Chase while calling attention to the achievements of such lesser known figures as Abel Ferrara Stanley Tucci Mariarosy Calleri and Nancy Savoca It comes as no suprise that there is so much smart thinking and writing contained in this book Bill Tonelli Rolling Stone Focus On: 100 Most Popular United States National Film Registry Films Wikipedia contributors,
