Quest Of The Golden Boy Life Gallienne:

The Quest of the Golden Boy. The Life and Letters of Richard Le Gallienne. [With Plates, Including Portraits.]. Richard Whittington EGAN (and SMERDON (Geoffrey)), 1960 The quest of the golden boy: the life and letters of richard le gallienne Richard Whittington-Egan, GEOFFREY SMERDON, 1962 The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face This unknown girl also called The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal geographical and linguistic frontiers It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century It also investigates how the mask's metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity the translatability of media Doing so this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age The Quest of the Golden Boy Geoffrey Smerdon, 1960 Extraordinary Aesthetes Joseph Bristow, 2023-04-14 The fin de siècle not only designated the end of the Victorian epoch but also marked a significant turn towards modernism Extraordinary Aesthetes critically examines literary and visual artists from England Ireland and Scotland whose careers in poetry fiction and illustration flourished during the concluding years of the nineteenth century This collection draws special attention to the exceptional contributions that artists poets and novelists made to the cultural world of the late 1880s and 1890s The essays illuminate a range of established increasingly acknowledged and lesser known figures whose contributions to this brief but remarkably intense cultural period warrant close attention Such figures include the critically neglected Mabel Dearmer whose stunning illustrations appear in Evelyn Sharp's radical fairy tales for children Equally noteworthy is the uncompromising short fiction of Ella D Arcy who played a pivotal role in editing the most famous journal of the 1890s The Yellow Book The discussion extends to a range of legendary writers including Max Beerbohm Oscar Wilde and W B Yeats whose works are placed in dialogue with authors who gained prominence during this period Bringing women's writing to the fore Extraordinary Aesthetes rebalances the achievements of artists and writers during the rapidly transforming cultural world of the fin de siècle The War of the Worlds Peter J. Beck, 2016-08-25 First published in 1897 H G Wells's alien invasion narrative The War of the Worlds was a landmark work of science fiction and one that continues to be adapted and referenced in the 21st century. Chronicling the novel's contexts, its origins and its many multi-media adaptations, this book is a complete biography of the life and the afterlives of The War of the Worlds. Exploring the original text's compelling sense of place and vivid recreation of Wells's Working home and the concerns of fin de siècle Britain, the book goes on to chart the novel's immediate international impact. Starting with the initial serialisations in US newspapers, Peter Beck goes on to examine Orson Welles's legendary 1938 radio adaptation, TV and film adaptations from George Pal to Steven Spielberg, Jeff Wayne's rock opera and the numerous other works that have taken their inspiration from Wells's original. Drawing on new archival research, this is a comprehensive account of the continuing impact of The War of the Worlds. The Life and Letters of William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod". Volume 1: 1855-1894 William F. Halloran, 2018-11-27 William Sharp 1855-1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time. Sharp was a Scottish poet, novelist, biographer and editor who in 1893 began to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod. This was far more than just a pseudonym; he corresponded as Macleod, enlisting his sister to provide the handwriting and address and for more than a decade Fiona Macleod duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as William Butler Yeats and in America E. C. Stedman. Sharp wrote, "I feel another self within me now more than ever; it is as if I were possessed by a spirit who must speak out." This three-volume collection brings together Sharp's own correspondence, a fascinating trove in its own right by a Victorian man of letters who was on intimate terms with writers including Dante Gabriel Rossetti, Walter Pater and George Meredith, and the Fiona Macleod letters which bring to life Sharp's intriguing second self. With an introduction and detailed notes by William F. Halloran, this richly rewarding collection offers a wonderful insight into the literary landscape of the time while also investigating a strange and underappreciated phenomenon of late nineteenth-century English literature. It is essential for scholars of the period and it is an illuminating read for anyone interested in authorship and identity. Yeats's Mask Margaret Mills Harper, Warwick Gould, 2013-12-20 Yeats's Mask Yeats Annual No. 19 is a special issue in this renowned research level series. Fashionable in the age of Wilde, the Mask changes shape until it emerges as Mask in the system of A Vision. Chronologically tracing the concept through Yeats's plays and those poems written as texts for exposition of his occult thought which flowers in A Vision itself, 1925 and 1937, the volume also spotlights The Mask before The Mask, numerous plays including Cathleen Ni Houlihan, The King's Threshold, Calvary, The Words upon the Window-pane, A Full Moon in March and The Death of Cuchulain. There are excursions into studies of Yeats's friendship with the Oxford don and cleric William Force Stead, his radio broadcasts, the Chinese contexts for his writing of Lapis Lazuli, his self-renewal after The Oxford Book of Modern Verse and the key occult epistolary exchange Leo Africanus, edited from MSS by Steve L. Adams. And George Mills Harper's is republished from the elusive Yeats Annual No. 1, 1982. The essays are by David Bradshaw, Michael Cade, Stewart Aisling Carlin, Warwick Gould, Margaret Mills Harper, Pierre Longuenesse, Jerusha McCormack, Neil Mann.

Emilie Morin Elizabeth M ller and Alexandra Poulain with shorter notes by Philip Bishop and Colin Smythe considering Yeats s quatrain upon remaking himself and the pirate editions of The Land of Heart s Desire Ten reviews focus on various volumes of the Cornell Yeats MSS Series his correspondence with George Yeats and numerous critical studies Yeats Annual is published by Open Book Publishers in association with the Institute of English Studies University of London A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T. Bose,Paul Tiessen,2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siècle Frances Knight,2015-10-23 The period known as the fin de siecle defined in this groundbreaking book as chiefly the period between 1885 and 1901 was a fluid and unsettling epoch of optimism and pessimism endings and beginnings as well as of new forms of creativity and anxiety The end of the century has attracted much interest from scholars of literary and cultural studies who regard it as a critical moment in the history of their disciplines but it has been relatively ignored by religious historians Frances Knight here sets right that neglect She shows how late Victorian society often said to be one of the most intensely Christian cultures the world has ever seen reacted to the bold agendas being set by the thinkers of the fin de siecle and how prominent Church figures during the era first identified many of the concerns that have preoccupied Christians latterly These include an active interest in social justice and the creation of new types of communities increasingly open discussion of the sexual exploitation of children debates about society s decadence new ideas about the role of women and the belief in the redemptive powers of art pioneered by figures as diverse as P T Forsyth Percy Dearmer and Samuel and Henrietta Barnett Examining in particular the Christian world of fin de siecle London the author offers penetrating insights into a society in which the ritual and culture of Christianity sometimes permeated the aesthetic movement and where devotees of the aesthetic movement like Walter Pater Oscar Wilde and their disciples often revealed a fascination with Christianity She argues that the long 1890s was a decisive decade in which various sections of Christian opinion both on the progressive and the more conservative wings of the faith began to express views which set the tone for attitudes which would become commonplace in the twentieth century Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siecle is the focussed treatment of religion and culture at the end of the nineteenth century that the field has long needed It will be welcomed by scholars of church history social and cultural history and the history of ideas Journey Through Despair, 1880-1914 John Ashby Lester Jr.,2015-12-08 English literary culture from the death of Thomas Carlyle to the First World War was paradoxical and diverse In literature it was a time of confusion and a nervous often frenzied search for new terms on which the imagination could live Professor Lester shows that the literary culture of the period moved steadily from a suspicion that the old bases of significant imaginative life were indefensible to a widespread conviction that they had collapsed His book is not an exercise in literary criticism Rather it is an attempt to discover the geist of an age to provide a synthesis for the years 1880-1914 His overriding concern is What is the primary force which so unsettles disperses and disorients the imaginative experience of this period Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
